1 Refereed Scholarly Publications
(a) Books authored

(b) Articles (refereed journals)

(c) Chapters in edited books (refereed)

2 Other (Non-Refereed) Scholarly Publications
(a) Chapters in non-refereed books

‘Strengthening the Role of the BTWC and CWC’ Vilmos Cserveny, Jozef Goldblat, Faawzy Hussein Hamad, Hannelore Hoppe, Jez Littlewood, Ibrahim Othman, Enrique Roman Morey,

(b) Articles (non-refereed journals)

‘Biological Weapons Review Conference 2011: Avoiding The Road to Nowhere’ Federation of American Scientists Public Interest Report (PIR) 64:3 (Fall 2011)

‘US Critical Infrastructure under Obama’ RUSI Monitor 8:2 (August, 2009)

(c) Technical Reports
‘CBRN Terrorism: Assessing the Threat of CBRN Terrorism by Groups and Individuals in Canada and Worldwide’ [Co-authored with Dane Rowlands and Joshua Kilberg] (Kanishka Project Contribution Program – submitted to KPCP August 31, 2012)

‘Investigating allegations of CBW use: reviving the UN Secretary-General’s mechanism’ Compliance Chronicles Number 3 (December 2006) Canadian Centre for Treaty Compliance, NPSIA, Carleton University. [http://www6.carleton.ca/cctc/publications/]

‘New Terror Weapons’ Topics in Terrorism: Towards a Transatlantic Consensus on the Nature of the Threat Atlantic Council of the United States and NATO, July 2005 pp. 39-54 [Co-authored with Darryl Howlett]

(d) Book reviews in Scholarly journals

OTHER SCHOLARLY OR PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITY

1. Editorial responsibilities

2. Papers presented (not subsequently published)
   (Professional Associations and related conferences)
   ‘The future(s) of terrorism and Canadian national security’ Preliminary Research Findings from a TSAS-sponsored project, Ottawa, May 30, 2014

   ‘Co-Operation, Complexity and Change: Canadian Intelligence and the Globalized Security Environment’ presented at the 55th International Studies Association Annual Convention, Toronto, March 26-29, 2014

   ‘Intelligence support to Canada’s interventions in the “9/11 Wars”: Cooperation, Complexity, and Change’ paper presented to Leverhulme-University of Reading conference on The Liberal Way of War July 6-7, 2012, University of Reading, UK

   ‘The Disarmament-Development Nexus in the NPT and the BWC’ paper presented for the panel on Nuclear Disarmament and Global Zero: Lessons from the Chemical and Biological Weapons Conventions 52nd Annual Convention of the International Studies Association March 16-19, 2011, Montreal

   ‘Intelligence and Biological Weapons’ presented at the 51st Annual Convention of the International Studies Association, February 17-20, 2010, New Orleans

   Foreign Approaches to Pathogen Security’ FBI Synthetic Biology Conference Building Bridges Around Building Genomes, August 4-5, 2009, San Francisco, California

   ‘Disabling Counter-Proliferation: Chemical & Biological Incapacitants’ Chemical Heritage Foundation CAIN Conference, March 27-28, 2008. Philadelphia,

   ‘Cooperation, Complexity and Change: Canada’s Transatlantic Intelligence Relationships in the early 21st Century’ paper for the conference Transatlantic Relations and International Conflict Management February 7-8, 2008 Carleton University, Ottawa

   ‘Biological Disarmament: Governance not Arms Control?’ 3rd European Consortium for Political Research (ECPR), September 8-11, 2005, Budapest, Hungary,
‘What is the role of global governance in the war on terrorism?’ for the conference Global Governance: scenarios for the future 21st Century Trust, October 21-29, 2004, Madingley Hall, University of Cambridge, UK

3. Presentations & Papers (Conferences, Workshops & Symposia by invitation)
‘Leveraging a 21st Century Information Space’ invited presentation to Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade (DFAIT) workshop on Leveraging a 21st Century Information Space January 28, 2013, Ottawa

‘Global Forces: Terrorism’ invited presentation to Canadian Association of Security and Intelligence Studies (CASIS) symposium on Developing Security and Intelligence Challenges November 16, 2012, Ottawa

‘Undertaking effective review and oversight’ invited presentation to the 8th International Intelligence Review Agencies Conference (IIRAC) Strengthening democracy through effective review May 27-30, 2012, Ottawa

‘State and non-state actor interest in CBW: what role for the Conventions in influencing potential offensive motivations and intent for CBW?’ remarks for CCISS-CCTC-NPSIA Workshop on The role of the chemical and biological weapons conventions in preventing acquisition and use of chemical and biological weapons, March 15, 2011, Ottawa

‘The future utility of biological weapons’ invited paper presented at ENTRA Technology Inc-National intelligence Council (US) workshop on CBW Utility Washington, D.C., October 14, 2010

‘Past efforts to strengthen the Biological and Toxin Weapons Convention’ University of Bath & Riksbanken Jubileumsfond, Europe and the Global Challenge of Biological Controls January 15-16, 2010 Bath, UK

‘A New ‘Cold War’? Climate Change, Security, and the Arctic’ presented at the Annual International Conference of the Canadian Association of Security and Intelligence Studies (CASIS), Ottawa, Canada, October 29, 2009

‘Implications of chemical and biological incapacitant weapons on counter-proliferation’ Wilton Park Conference WPS09/7 Preventing and Mitigating the next use of chemical and biological weapons, September 25-27, 2009, Wilton Park, UK.

‘The strengths and weaknesses of current Confidence Building Measures in the Biological Weapons Convention’ Geneva Forum Workshop Options and proposals to strengthen the Confidence-Building Measures mechanism of the Biological Weapons Convention Jongny, Switzerland, August 22-23 2009

‘The view from afar: issues from irregular conflicts (Northern Ireland and Iraq)’ presented at Defence S&T Symposium, Understanding the Human Dimension in the 21st Century Conflict/Warfare: Taking Care of the Frontline, Defence Research & Development Canada, April 21-23, 2009

‘Chemical and Biological Terrorism: is there a balance between apathy and hyperbole?’, Pugwash High Level CBW Workshop Present Trends and Future Policy Choice Pugwash Meeting no. 304, April 16-17, 2005 Oegstgeest, The Netherlands
‘What outcome would be regarded as successful in 2006?’ 21st Workshop of the Pugwash Study Group, on the Implementation of the Chemical and Biological Weapons Conventions The BWC New Process and the Sixth Review Conference, December 4-5, 2004, Geneva, Switzerland

‘The nature and scale of the bioterrorist threat and how to prepare for it’ for the conference Disease and Security 21st Century Trust, April 23-May 1, 2004, Villa Monastero, Varenna, Italy

‘Terrorism and Biological Weapons’, prepared for the ESRC Project on Domestic Management of Terrorist Attacks University of St Andrews & University of Southampton, September 15-16, 2004, London, UK

‘2006 and beyond: preparatory assistance and background activities’ 20th Workshop of the Pugwash Study Group on the Implementation of the Chemical and Biological Weapons Conventions The BTWC Intersessional Process towards the Sixth Review Conference and Beyond November 8-9 2003, Geneva, Switzerland,

‘The Role of the CWC and the BTWC’ The League of Arab States-UNIDIR Conference on Establishing a Weapons of Mass Destruction Free Zone in the Middle East February 24-25, 2003 Cairo, Egypt

‘Strengthening the BWC: what is a realistic inter-Review Conference Strategy?’ 18th Workshop of the Pugwash Study Group on the Implementation of the Chemical and Biological Weapons Conventions The Resumption of the Fifth Review Conference 2002 and Beyond, November 9-10, 2002, Geneva, Switzerland

Invited Lectures
‘Terrorism and International Security: Reflecting on five years of teaching’ presentation to Canadian Association of Professional Intelligence Analysts (CAPIA) November 23, 2011

‘Biological Weapons: Disarmament and Proliferation Dynamics in the next Decade’ presentation to staff of Communications Security Establishment of Canada (CSEC), October 27, 2011

‘Chemical and Biological Weapons: Proliferation, Future Use and Development’ presentation to RCMP Counter-Proliferation Workshop, Ottawa, February 22, 2011

‘Chemical and Biological Weapons: Future Use and Development’ Presentation to DRDC-CORA, Ottawa, December 14, 2010

‘When Good is no longer good enough: issues in Canadian Intelligence and Accountability’ Brunel University & Loughborough University ESRC Seminar Series on Intelligence, Brunel University, London (UK) August 24, 2009.

Metropolis Project 10th Annual Conference, Panel member for Plenary Session ‘Does a Commitment to Citizenship, Inclusion and Integration Prevent Extremism and Radicalization? Halifax, NS., April 6, 2008

‘Countering WMD Proliferation’ Lecture at the Defence Academy (Shrivenham) Joint Services Command Staff College (JSCSC) October 21 2004,

‘CBRN: The Terrorist Threat’ The Regional Challenge of Asymmetric Conflicts and Terrorism Defence Studies Course, The Southampton Park Hotel, Southampton, October 12, 2004

4. Contract or other research July 2007 to April 2013: $282,103.53

1) Canadian network for research on terrorism, security and society (TSAS): Carleton University / Jeremy Littlewood (PI) research on ‘The future(s) of terrorism and Canadian National Security’ (May 2013-March 2014) $15,000

2) DFAIT/ISROP/Public Safety Canada: Carleton University / Jeremy Littlewood research and presentation at workshop on 'Leveraging a 21st Century Information Space' (January 2013) $1,000

3) Public Safety Canada: Carleton University / Jeremy Littlewood (PI) research and presentation on ‘Is Hizballah a threat to the US and Canada?’ (October-November 2012) $1,000

4) ISROP / Simons Centre: Review and assessment of applicants for Graduate Research Assistantship competition (November 2012-February 2013): $1,000

5) Public Works / Public Safety Canada – Kanishka Project Contribution Program: Carleton University / Dane Rowlands (Principal Investigator), Jeremy Littlewood, Joshua Kilberg (March 1, 2012 to July 1, 2012) research project on chemical, biological, radiological and nuclear terrorism: $60,739

6) Public Works / Public Health Agency Canada (PHAC): Carleton University / Jeremy Littlewood research project on compliance with the Biological and Toxin Weapons Convention: $8,800

7) Department of National Defence (Contract W699-12-DB67) Consulting and Professional Services. CCISS to provide two lectures on Canadian Intelligence and Terrorism and international security: PI (Littlewood): $4,039.75

8) DRDC: DND (Contract W7714-4500824171) to host and organize conference on chemical and biological weapons (March 15, 2011) $4,424.78

12) Royal Canadian Mounted Police – National Security Criminal Investigations: Conference on “Policing Counter-Terrorism” November 2008: $45,000
15) Department of National Defence, DRDC-Center for Science Security, CBRNE Hazards: an open-source evaluation and threat assessment, January 17, 2008: $4,000

5. Media
Op-Ed: ‘Intelligence, accountability and privacy versus globalization: is Parliament up to the task?’ The Hill Times, October 31, 2011