

| Faculty Member | Expertise Research Areas / Regional Focus Methods | Current Research Projects | Email/ Office Hours if available | Other Relevant Information |
|------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Prof David Carment | Please consult profile on website for general info. | Please consult profile on website for general info. | Email: DavidCarment@cunet.carleton.ca Office Hours: Office: RB 5118 | |
| Prof Stephanie Carvin | Expertise: national security/international security/international security and technology. Research Areas: national security (extremism, espionage, foreign interference), intelligence studies, security studies Regional Expertise: Canada Methods: qualitative | Please consult profile on website for info. | Email: StephanieCarvin@cunet.carleton.ca Office Hours: Please email | |
| Prof Ana Dammert | Expertise: Economic Analysis/Development; Development Evaluation; Research Areas: Child labor, education/schooling, agricultural policies, and youth vocational training; Regional Expertise: Latin American, Caribbean; SubSaharan Africa; Methods: Quantitative | Global estimates of the prevalence of forced labor and commercial sexual exploitation; Work for cash programs' effect on children (various countries); Soft skills training for university students in Uganda (initial stages). | Email: AnaDammert@cunet.carleton.ca Office Hours: Please email | Languages: Spanish |
| Prof Jean Daudelin | Expertise: Development and conflict; Property rights theory; Economies of crime and conflict (institutional, political, moral); Criminal governance, Indirect rule and "native administration," Canadian and Brazilian foreign policy. Research Areas: Illegal and informal activities and markets, especially drug trafficking; drug policy; political and criminal violence; public insecurity, policing and incarceration; land and resource conflict; insurgencies; Inter-american politics, including US policy in the region. Regional Expertise: Latin America esp Brazil and Central America Methods: Qualitative | Economies of order and disorder in Brazilian prisons Illegalities and Economic Development in the Global South | Email: JeanDaudelin@cunet.carleton.ca Office Hours: Please email Office: RB 5315 | Supervision or Co-Supervision Topics: Artisanal mining in Ghana (PhD); Police violence in Bahia, Brazil (MA); Militias and informal transportation in Rio de Janeiro (MA); Smuggling and violence in Brazil's borderlands (PhD); The crackdown on the feminist movement in Nicaragua (MA); The governance of illegal migration in Panama (MA). Languages: French, Spanish, Portuguese |
| Prof Elisabeth Gilmore | Expertise: Climate policy; armed conflict and environment; environmental and biodiversity policy and governance; international science-policy Research Areas: adaptation effectiveness and metrics; mitigation scenarios and regulations; climate mobilities; co-production for climate science and policy; assessment science Regional Expertise: Southeast Asia; United States; Canada Methods: Policy analysis; mixed methods; co-production | Equitable adaptation pathways for climate mobilities (PATH): co-production with communities related to their self-determined aspirations for mobility or immobility in a changing climate (NFRF Grant) Politically-informed scenarios for climate policy Climate impacts, attribution of blame, and citizen-state relationships | Email: ElisabethGilmore@cunet.carleton.ca Office Hours: Please email Office: RB 5319 | |

| Faculty Member | Expertise Research Areas / Regional Focus Methods | Current Research Projects | Email/ Office Hours if available | Other Relevant Information |
|-----------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Prof Fen Hampson | Please consult profile on website for general info. | Please consult profile on website for general info. | Email: FenHampson@cunet.carleton.ca Office Hours: Please email Office: RB 5113 | |
| Prof David Hornsby | Expertise: Middle Powers, Canadian and South African Foreign Policies, International Studies Pedagogy, Scholarship of Teaching and Learning Research Areas: Middle Powers in International Affairs, Canadian foreign policy in Africa, Universities in foreign policy and international affairs, International Studies Pedagogy Regional Expertise: Canada, Sub-Saharan Africa, especially South Africa Methods: Qualitative | Middle powers in international affairs Critical understandings of Canada in the world Southern Powers and Global dis/order South African Higher Education | Email: DavidHornsby@cunet.carleton.ca Office Hours: by appointment | |
| Prof Philippe Lagasse | Expertise: Foreign and Defence Policy, Military Policy, Defence Procurement, Institutions Research Areas: Canadian foreign policy, American foreign and defence policy, French foreign and defence policy, Australian foreign and defence policy, New Zealand foreign and defence policy, military strategy, institutions and authorities for foreign and military affairs Regional Expertise: Canada, United States, France, Australia, New Zealand Methods: Qualitative | Executive power in Westminster states Unwritten constitutionalism in Canada Comparative Study of Commanders-in-Chief Comparative Study of defence ministries | Email: PhilippeLagasse@cunet.carleton.ca Office Hours: Please email Office: RB 5111 | Languages: French |
| Prof Meredith Lilly | Expertise: Economic/Political Analysis of Trade incl Labour Mobility, Trade Agreements, Sanctions Research Areas: North American trade relations; Canada's trade diversification strategy; Economic sanctions Regional Expertise: Canadian foreign and trade policy; North America; Asia-Pacific Methods: Economics and policy analysis | CUSMA review and implementation Trade diversification | Email: MeredithLilly@cunet.carleton.ca Office Hours: Please email Office: RB 5115 | Students must have completed at least one course taught by Prof Lilly. |
| Prof David Long | Expertise: History of International Thought, International Theory Research Areas: The work of C.A.W. Manning, the discipline of International Relations, interdisciplinarity Regional Expertise: Europe including the EU and the UK Methods: Qualitative, historical/archival | | Email: DavidLong@cunet.carleton.ca Office Hours: Please email Office: RB 5316 | |

| Faculty Member | Expertise Research Areas / Regional Focus Methods | Current Research Projects | Email/ Office Hours if available | Other Relevant Information |
|-----------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Prof Michael Manulak | Expertise: Foreign policy, International Institutions Research Areas: International Organizations, Multilateralism, Canadian Foreign Policy, Diplomacy; Non-Proliferation/Disarmament, Environment Regional Expertise: No specific geographic area Methods: Qualitative, historical analysis | The Future of International Organizations; The League of Nations; Co-evolution of International Institutions; Persuasion in International Affairs | Email: MichaelManulak@cunet.carleton.ca Office Hours: Currently on sabbatical Office: RB 5109 | |
| Prof Lama Mourad | Expertise: Middle East, Qualitative, Refugees and Migration Research Areas: Local governance and development, global governance of asylum, Methods: Qualitative, Mixed | Diasporas as development and governance actors | Email: LamaMourad@cunet.carleton.ca Office Hours: Please email Office: RB 5117 | Languages: French, Arabic |
| Prof David Mendeloff | Expertise: Conflict Analysis, Peacebuilding, Transitional Justice Research Areas: Causes and prevention of war and violent conflict; Causes and dynamics of civil wars; Causes and prevention of wartime civilian violence, war crimes and atrocities; International Criminal Court (ICC); Transitional justice in post-conflict states; Post-conflict statebuilding and peacebuilding Regional Expertise: No specific geographic focus Methods: Largely qualitative | Impact of ICC interventions on ongoing civil wars | Email: DavidMendeloff@cunet.carleton.ca Office Hours: Please email Office: Loeb D383 | |
| Prof Val Percival | Expertise: Global Health, Health Systems; Gender Analysis; Conflict Analysis; Gender & Conflict/Security; Humanitarian Engagement; Peacebuilding Research Areas: Health and dynamics of conflict, Health Systems, Backlash Against Gender Equality; Erosion of Civilian Protection in Conflict Regional Expertise: Conducted field research/worked in SubSaharan Africa, Balkans Methods: Qualitative, Systems Approaches. | Gender health systems access - Cabo Delgado Mozambique - writing up results - SSHRC funded Covid Modelling - examining gender biases in epi modelling (NFRF grant); Targeting Health in Conflict/Right to Health; Health Declines and the 'Conflict Trap'; Backlash Against Gender Equality. | Email: ValeriePercival@cunet.carleton.ca; Office Hours: Thursday 10 to noon or by appt. Office: RB 5312 | |
| Prof Chris Penny | Expertise: Public International Law Research Areas: International Law/Conflict; Law/Military Cooperation; Regional Expertise: No specific geographic focus Methods: Legal analysis (rather than theoretical focus) | Managing Legal Risks of Inter-state Military Cooperation Canada and the International Court of Justice | Email: ChrisPenny@cunet.carleton.ca Office Hours: Currently on sabbatical Office: RB 5318 | Required background before supervision: INAF 5018 (completion) Additional NPSIA international law course (completion or concurrent registration) |

| Faculty Member | Expertise Research Areas / Regional Focus Methods | Current Research Projects | Email/ Office Hours if available | Other Relevant Information |
|------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| Prof Dane Rowlands | Expertise: Development Economics, Conflict Analysis, Economic Policy, Econometric Analysis Research Areas: International Financial Institutions; Development Assistance; Health and Conflict; Conflict intervention; Economics (finance, trade, development, conflict, defence, public economics); Migration and Remittances. Regional Expertise: No specific geographic area Methods: Quantitative, Econometrics, Mixed Methods | Health policy, conflict and development; IMF program evaluations and graduation from IMF programs; Forced displacement and migration in Iraq; Arms export networks and supply chains. | Email: DaneRowlands@cunet.carleton.ca Office Hours: Tues & Thurs 1 - 2:30 pm Office: RB 5314 | On sabbatical from January 2027. |
| Prof Stephen Saideman | Expertise: International security, foreign policy Research Areas: Civil-military relations, Canadian defence/security policy Regional Expertise: No specific geographic area, current Canada defence focus, comparative studies of democracies Methods: Qualitative | Canadian Defence and Security Network Comparing democracies—do their defence agencies think their job is to do oversight over the armed forces. | Email: StephenSaideman@cunet.carleton.ca Office Hours: By appointment Office: RB 5104 | |
| Prof Yiagadessen Samy | Expertise: Development Economics, Economic Policy Research Areas: trade and development, domestic resource mobilization, development assistance, deindustrialization and income inequality, fragile and conflict-affected states, small island developing states. Methods: mostly quantitative Regional Focus: Sub-Saharan Africa Methods: Quantitative | Trade and Development: Towards an Innovative Research Agenda (funded by IDRC). Canadian Development Finance Modalities at a Time of Fiscal Constraints and Geopolitical Tensions (funded by Corporation Canada) "Development in a Time of Global Disruption," co-editor with Val Percival, Canada Among Nations 2026. "The Elgar Companion to Democracy and Development in Africa", co-edited with Samuel Oloruntoba and submitted for publication. "Domestic Resource Mobilization and Inclusive Green Growth in BRICS Countries," with Vanessa Tang (UKZN); under review. "Exploring RVCs and Industrialization Opportunities in the SADC region using Lithium-Ion Battery Production as a Case Study," with Samuel Oloruntoba. "Understanding Fragile States: Building Resilience Through Inclusive and Sustainable Growth," contract with Elgar Publishing. | Email: YiagadeesenSamy@Cunet.Carleton.Ca Office Hours: Tuesday 9:30 am to 11 am Office: RB 5304 | |
| Prof Yanling Wang | Expertise: Economic policy, International trade, Research Areas: Empirical analysis of international trade and foreign direct investment at the firm- and industry-level; Regional Expertise: Asia-Pacific, incl China, Canada Methods: Quantitative, Econometrics | Examining exports on Chinese firms' pollution intensity reduction; Canadian firms' export diversification | Email: YanlingWang@cunet.carleton.ca Office Hours: Please email | Languages: Mandarin |

| Faculty Member | Expertise Research Areas / Regional Focus Methods | Current Research Projects | Email/ Office Hours if available | Other Relevant Information |
|---------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Prof Inger Weibust | Expertise: Environmental policy/governance, Theories of Cooperation, Federalism, Research methods Research Areas: International Cooperation, Environmental Governance, Monitoring and Enforcement of International Agreements Regional Expertise: No specific geographic area Methods: Qualitative, Case study | Role of monitoring and remote sensing in environmental regimes | Email: IngerWeibust@cunet.carleton.ca Office Hours: Please email Office: RB 5105 | Languages: French, German and Scandinavian languages (Not Finnish) |
| Prof Leah West | Expertise: Legal Analysis, International Law (International Humanitarian, Human Rights), National Security Law Research Areas: International humanitarian law; international human rights law; National security law & policy, Cybersecurity law & policy; AI law & policy (public law issues) Regional Expertise: No specific geographic focus Methods: Legal research methods, both traditional and comparative; Feminist legal theory | Extraterritorial human rights for state conduct carried out in/via cyberspace; International law governing espionage and sabotage in armed conflict Canadian Lawful Access Reform Responsible use of AI by militaries and state security agencies | Email: LeahWest3@cunet.carleton.ca Office Hours: Currently on sabbatical Office: RB 5107 | No expertise in quantitative methods |
| Prof Alex Wilner | Expertise: Coercive Diplomacy incl. deterrence, Strategic foresight; Security/technology Research Areas: Strategic foresight in Canadian foreign policy; Cybersecurity; Technology in Warfare; Transnational Terrorism Regional Expertise: No specific geographic focus Methods: Qualitative, Strategic Foresight | Deepfakes and Strategic Communications (DND funded) AI Deterrence and the future of warfare (SSHRC funded) Use and Utility of Strategic Foresight in Canadian Security/Defence policy Canadians' willingness to serve & fight (DND funded) | Email: alex.wilner@carleton.ca Office Hours: Wednesdays, 1145-1245 Office: RB 5106 | Co-director of Triple Helix, a DND-supported network headquartered at CGAI Director of Infrastructure Protection and International Security (IPIS) program, Carleton Lead of the Collaborative Specialization in Cybersecurity, Carleton |