

“Skill and Knowledge”

Joshua Shepherd

Carleton University

“I offer an account of skilled behavior. Along the way notions key to understanding human agency and intentional action are introduced and discussed. I then reflect upon the role knowledge has in the execution of skill, and I criticize what some other philosophers have said.”

Friday, September 13th, 2019
1201 Richcraft Hall
1:00 P.M.

Everyone welcome!