Seminar Schedule

II. Description
‘Egalitarianism’ is a label applied to a family of views about distributive justice that value equality among individuals. In this seminar, we will explore some of the main contemporary debates about egalitarianism. Questions that may be discussed: What should be equal among individuals? Is equality intrinsically valuable, is it only instrumentally, or is it only valuable insofar as it is the product of the promotion of some other value? What role, if any, should notions such as desert, choice, and luck play in an egalitarian society?
II. Prerequisites
Eligibility for fourth-year standing in a Philosophy Honours Program or permission of the department.

IV. Readings
All readings will be made available through cuLearn. Please bring all required texts to class with you, as we may need to consult the text from time to time.

V. Assignments and Grading (Please see the Seminar Schedule for assignment deadlines and presentation dates)
   a. Class Attendance and Participation (worth 15% of the final grade).
   b. Three Assignments (the best of which worth 30% of the final grade, the other two 20% each)
   c. Weekly Discussion Questions (jointly worth 15% of your final grade).

VI. Policies

Attendance. Attendance is mandatory. If you are absent, you are responsible for finding out what has been covered in class and for any course-related announcements. If unforeseen circumstances are preventing you from attending class regularly, it is your responsibility to inform me as soon as possible.

Readings. You are responsible for consulting the Seminar Schedule online before each class to find out the readings for that class and for reading each of them carefully. Please be aware that, if you don’t do the readings, you are very unlikely to do well in this course.

Communications. You are responsible for checking regularly your Carleton email account for course-related messages and announcements. You are also responsible for checking regularly the Seminar Schedule online for any changes or updates.

Assignments. Instructions for each assignment will be sent to your Carleton email account about two weeks before the assignment is due. Please follow those instructions very carefully, as failure to do so may result in penalties. If you have not received the instructions for an assignment two weeks prior to the deadline for that assignment, it is your responsibility to contact me to let me know.

The deadline for each assignment is at 11:59pm of the day the assignment is due (see the Seminar Schedule for Assignment Deadlines). Unless I have granted you an extension in writing (see below), you will receive a 5-point penalty for every day the assignment is late. Late assignments will be marked but not commented upon in writing. If you wish to receive detailed feedback on a late assignment, you will have to make an appointment with me to discuss it. Failing to submit an assignment will result in a 0% on that assignment.

Each assignment must be exclusively the work of the individual student submitting it. Please be aware that plagiarism and unauthorized collaboration are very serious academic offences (see below) and that I am bound to report any suspected academic offence directly to the Office of the Dean.

Summaries. Summaries are to be submitted before the beginning of the seminar meeting for each meeting in which you are supposed to summarize a chapter/article (see Seminar Schedule for details). In each summary, you have to outline in your own words and as clearly, informatively, accurately, and concisely as possible the key theses and/or arguments of each of the week’s readings. Summaries cannot exceed 200 words. Longer summaries will be penalized. Please submit each summary by sending it in the body of an e-mail with subject line ‘Seminar Summary for [date]’ (e.g. ‘Seminar Summary for October 23’). Each summary must include a word count. Failing to submit a summary on time will result in a 0% on that summary.

Discussion Questions. Discussion Questions are to be posted on cuLearn each week before the beginning of each seminar meeting (with the exception of the first meeting). You are expected to submit one question for each chapter/article that we are reading for that day. Your question can be either an interpretive question or an evaluative question. Examples of interpretive questions are questions of the form ‘What do you think is the argument in the xth paragraph of page y?’ or ‘What do you think the author means when s/he says ‘x’ on page y?’ Examples of evaluative questions are questions of the form ‘Do you think that the argument for x on page y succeeds?’ or ‘Do you think that the author is correct in claiming that x on page y?’ The subject line of your post should have the last name of the author, the number of the chapter/year of the article, and ‘IQ’ for interpretive questions or ‘EQ’ for evaluative questions (e.g. ‘Rawls (Ch 2) EQ’, ‘Dworkin (1981) IQ’). Everything else being equal, specific questions (i.e. questions that refer to a specific sentence or paragraph) are preferable to general questions. In class, students will take turns asking their questions. Each student is expected to offer a reasoned answer to their own question. Failing to submit your discussion questions on time will result in a 0% for that week.

Drafts. While I am happy to answer any general questions you might have about your assignments, please be advised that I am not able to provide any feedback on draft assignments.

Extensions. Extensions will be granted only in extraordinary circumstances (e.g. serious illness or family emergency) and only if the extension is requested in writing before the assignment deadline. If you think you may need an extension, please contact me as soon as possible by e-mail.

Academic Integrity. You are responsible for ensuring that you understand the nature of academic offences (such as plagiarism and unauthorized collaboration), as defined in the Undergraduate Calendar (see here), to avoid both committing them and aiding or abetting academic offences perpetrated by other students. Please be aware that I am bound to report any suspected academic offence directly to the Office of the Dean.

Final Grades. All final grades are subject to the approval of the Dean.

VII. Schedule
The Seminar Schedule can be found online (see link above). It contains a reading schedule, as well as other important course information, such as assignment deadlines. Please check the Seminar Schedule posted on cuLearn regularly for any updates or changes.

Department of Philosophy and Carleton University Policies (Fall/Winter 2018-19)

Assignments:
Unless specifically told otherwise by their instructors, students:
- Must not use a plastic or cardboard cover or paper clips.
- Must staple the paper (there is a stapler on the essay box).
- Must include the following on the first page: student name and number; course name and number; instructor’s name.
- No assignments will be accepted after the last day for handing in term work – see dates below.
- Assignments handed in through the essay box (just inside the glass doors, Paterson Hall, Floor 3A) must be dropped into the box by 4:15 on a regular business day in order to be date-stamped with that day’s date. Assignments handed in after 4:15 or on a non-business day will be stamped as having been handed in on the next business day.
- Students are required to keep copies of their assignments. If your paper is lost at any point, you will be considered not to have submitted it if you cannot produce a copy immediately on request.

Evaluation:
Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by the instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Dean.

Deferrals for Final Exams:
If you miss a final examination (formally scheduled or take-home) because of circumstances beyond your control, you may apply for a deferral. You must apply within 3 working days after the scheduled date of your formally scheduled exam or within 3 working days after the due date of a take-home exam. Visit the Registrar’s Office for more information: http://calendar.carleton.ca/undergrad/regulations/academicregulationsoftheuniversity/acadregsuniv2/#2.5

Plagiarism:
It is the responsibility of each student to understand the meaning of ‘plagiarism’ as defined in the Undergraduate or Graduate Calendars, and to avoid both committing plagiarism and aiding or abetting plagiarism by other students. https://carleton.ca/registrar/academic-integrity/

Academic Accommodation:
You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request the processes are as follows:
If you have a documented disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation or contact your PMC coordinator to send your instructor your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term. You must also contact the PMC no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with your instructor as soon as possible to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. carleton.ca/pmc
Pregnancy obligation: write to your professor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details visit the Equity Services website: http://www2.carleton.ca/equity/

Religious obligation: write to your professor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details visit the Equity Services website: http://www2.carleton.ca/equity/

Survivors of Sexual Violence: as a community, Carleton University is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working and living environment where sexual violence will not be tolerated, and is survivors are supported through academic accommodations as per Carleton's Sexual Violence Policy. For more information about the services available at the university and to obtain information about sexual violence and/or support, visit: carleton.ca/sexual-violence-support

Accommodation for Student Activities: Carleton University recognizes the substantial benefits, both to the individual student and for the university, that result from a student participating in activities beyond the classroom experience. Reasonable accommodation must be provided to students who compete or perform at the national or international level. Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist.
