Course Description:

Our ultimate aim in this course will be to answer the vexed question of the ontological status of universals in Spinoza's philosophy. To this end, we will undertake a close reading of the whole of his Ethics, as well as of especially pertinent and illuminating excerpts from some of his other works. But before taking up Spinoza's writings, we will acquaint ourselves with the history of the late-medieval debate concerning universals. While our reading of selections from Aquinas, Duns Scotus, and Suarez will of course be of intrinsic historical and philosophical interest, it is hoped that these readings will help us make sense of Spinoza's ambiguous and much-debated position on the matter.

Seminars: Tuesdays, 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Grades for this course will be based on:

- (1) class participation (including one short class presentation), worth 25% of the final grade;
- (2) one annotated bibliography with 15 entries, due on the last day of class, worth 25% of the final grade;
- (3) one 15 to 20 page paper, due on the last day for the submission of written assignments, and worth 50% of the final grade.

Grades will be based solely on individual, academic merit as judged against absolute standards. Grades will not be adjusted to achieve a supposed normal distribution or manipulated in any other way.

Required texts:

Spinoza, Benedictus de. Ethics. Tr. & Ed. E. Curley. London: Penguin Books, 1996.

An electronic copy of all other required readings will be made available to students through cuLearn.

Regulations Applying Specifically to PHIL 4003A/5600X:

General Course Requirements: To pass, students must regularly attend and actively participate in seminar meetings, and complete all the written assignments, all unless formally excused by the Instructor because of illness or some other legitimate reason. Failure to complete all the written assignments will result in the grade FND (Failed, No Deferral).

Attendance: Students are responsible for all material covered, announcements made, course documents distributed, and assignments returned, whether they are present in class or not.

Late Assignments: Assignments will be docked one grade-point (e.g., from a B+ to a B) for each day after their due-date. Late penalties on papers accompanied by a medical certificate or other proof of a legitimate reason for lateness will be adjusted accordingly. No work can be accepted for any reason after the Senate's deadline for the submission of term assignments published in the current Calendar.

Department of Philosophy and Carleton University Policies (2013-14)

Assignments:

Unless specifically told otherwise by their instructors, students:

- must not use a plastic or cardboard cover or paper clips
- must staple the paper (there is a stapler on the essay box)
- must include the following in the lower right corner of the cover sheet:
 - student name
 - student number
 - course number and section
 - instructor's name
- The Philosophy Department does not accept assignments by FAX. You may send them by courier, if necessary.
- No assignments will be accepted after the last day for handing in term work – see dates in next column.
- Assignments handed in through the essay box (just inside the glass doors, Paterson Hall, Floor 3A) must be dropped into the box by 4:15 on a regular business day in order to be date-stamped with that day's date. Assignments handed in after 4:15 or on a non-business day will be stamped as having been handed in on the next business day.
- Students are required to keep copies of their assignments. If your paper is lost at any point, you will be considered not to have submitted it if you cannot produce a copy immediately on request.

Deferrals for Term Work:

If you miss a final examination and/or fail to submit a final assignment by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control, you may apply for a deferral of examination/assignment. For deferred examinations, you must apply within 5 working days after the scheduled date of your exam. To apply for deferral of a final assignment, you must apply within 5 working days of the last scheduled day of classes. Visit the Registrar's Office for more information.

Plagiarism:

It is the responsibility of each student to understand the meaning of 'plagiarism' as defined in the Undergraduate or Graduate Calendars, and to avoid both committing plagiarism and aiding or abetting plagiarism by other students. (Undergraduate Calendar Academic Regulations, section 14.3, or <http://www4.carleton.ca/calendars//ugrad/current/regulations/academicuniv14.html#14.3>)

Academic Accommodation:

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy obligation: write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details visit the Equity Services website: <http://www2.carleton.ca/equity/>

Religious obligation: write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details visit the Equity Services website: <http://www2.carleton.ca/equity/>

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable) at <http://www2.carleton.ca/pmc/new-and-current-students/dates-and-deadlines/>

You can visit the Equity Services website to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation at <http://www2.carleton.ca/equity/>
