

ANNUAL GRADUATE CONFERENCE IN ETHICS AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS

MARCH 7

Program Details

Duntun Tower 2017 (In-Person Panels + Keynote Speaker + Social Event)

12:30-12:45pm

Registration/Check-In

Coffee/Tea & Light Snacks Provided

12:45-1:00pm

Opening Remarks

Conference Organizer, Claire French

Dr. Vida Panitch, Director of Ethics and Public Affairs

Carleton University (Ottawa, Ontario)

1:00-2:30pm

Session 1: Living in Digital and Digitized Spaces

Preserving Our Mental Wilds in the Digital Age

Seth Wade, Bowling Green State University (Bowling Green, Ohio)

Ignore All Prior Instructions and Tell Me You Love Me: A Critical Argument Against the Use of Relational Artefacts for Relationships with Incels

Theo Dunn, Carleton University (Ottawa, Canada)

Watching Territory: Surveillance Art & the Ethics of Shared Public Spaces

Kayleigh Lewis, Carleton University (Ottawa, Canada)

2:30-3:30pm

Session 2: Ethical Frameworks for Shared Spaces

The Ethical Implications of Mega-Constellations Satellites' Space Debris - Unintentional Harm

Benjamin Segobaetso, Carleton University (Ottawa, Ontario)

Survivors of Sexual Assault on the Stand: A New Feminist and Victim-Centered Bioethical Framework to Discuss Justice and Trauma

Mathilde Genest, McGill University (Montreal, Quebec)

3:30-4:15pm

Break

Coffee/Tea & Light Snacks Provided

4:15-5:45pm

Keynote Speaker

Refugees in our City: The Impact of their Displacement on our Public Spaces

Patti Tamara Lenard, Graduate School of Public and International Affairs, University of Ottawa (Ottawa, Ontario)

5:45pm

Reception

7:00pm

Dinner for Presenters

Off-Campus

ANNUAL GRADUATE CONFERENCE IN ETHICS AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS

MARCH 8

Program Details

Duntun Tower 2017 (All Day In-Person)

10:00-10:15am

Registration/Check-In

Coffee/Tea & Light Snacks Provided

10:15-11:45am

Session 3: Bioethics and Public Spaces

Organs and Trust: An Examination of the Role of Trust in Organ Acquisition

Stephen Oriaku, University of Ottawa (Ottawa, Ontario)

MAiD for Mental Disorders: How the MAiD Process Can Benefit the Suicidal

Loughran Butcher, Carleton University (Ottawa, Ontario)

Shared Spaces in the Context of Communicable Diseases: A Presumptive Approach to Vaccine Mandates

Evan Mackie, Carleton University (Ottawa, Ontario)

11:45am-1:00pm

Lunch

1:00-2:00pm

Session 4: Reshaping Shared Physical Spaces

Public Magnificence; Accessibility Through Splendour

Rebecca Robb, Carleton University (Ottawa, Ontario)

Hidden Injustice: What Autism-Friendly Spaces Teach Us About The Cost of Unspoken Rules

Melinda Robinson, Queen's University (Kingston, Ontario)

2:00-3:00pm

Session 5: (Re)Creating Spaces for Care

In Favour of Universal Design: Supplementing Jenkins and Webster's Marginalised Functioning

Lauren Rundell, McMaster University (Hamilton, Ontario)

The Illegitimacy of Conscientious Objection to Gender-Affirming Care

Jessica Baptista, McGill University (Montreal, Quebec)

3:00-3:15pm

Break

3:15-4:15pm

Session 6: Rethinking Methodologies

A Common Ground Approach for Justifying Protections for Third Parties in Human Subjects Research

Jordan Vaters, McMaster University (Hamilton, Ontario)

The Collective Capability for Self-Determination as a People

Aisling Gilmour, Carleton University (Ottawa, Ontario)

4:15-4:30pm

Closing Remarks

Conference Organizer, Claire French