

PSCI 5009

Canadian Political Economy

This seminar focuses on Canadian political economy as an approach to the study of Canadian politics and the changing nature of the Canadian state. It examines the debates and issues that have animated Canadian political economy both in historical terms and through the contemporary period. Canada's economic development, social relations and position in a globalizing world are explored. The course emphasizes how socio-economic changes have also engendered new forms of struggle and resistance. Among the topics that will be included:

- Labour Markets, Precarious Work and Worker Agency
- Staples Economy
- Political Economy of Migration
- Social Reproduction and Care Work
- Continentalization

Instructor: Professor Christina Gabriel

Schedule: January - April 2016

Time: Please consult Carleton Central