

KEYNOTE BY DR. KIERA LADNER

When Continuity is Rupture - When Research is at the Edge: Indigenous
Politics in the 2020s

APRIL 22 2021 | ZOOM

Join Carleton's PSGSA for a virtual keynote presentation from Dr. Kiera Ladner, Carleton alumna and expert on Indigenous governance in Canada!

Dr. Ladner is presently Canada Research Chair in Miyo we'citowin, Indigenous Governance and Digital Sovereignties, and Professor in the Department of Political Studies at the University of Manitoba. Her research focuses on Indigenous Politics and Governance; Digital Sovereignties and Archiving; gender; women and governance; and resurgence (in terms of both women and youth).

CONFERENCE REGISTRATION:

<https://carleton.ca/polisci/cu-events>

This year's PSGSA conference is presented in partnership with the Department of Political Science and the Graduate Students' Association at Carleton University. The PSGSA is also particularly grateful for the support of Carleton's Bell Chair for the Study of Canadian Parliamentary Democracy, the sponsor of this year's keynote.

Department of Political Science
CARLETON UNIVERSITY

Political Science Graduate
Students' Association
CARLETON UNIVERSITY

