Course Description:

This course examines the role of social forces in the Canadian political process, including interest groups, social movements, elites and classes. It is meant as a survey of the state of the discipline with regards to the role and impact of social forces on the policy process in Canada. Students are expected to grasp the competing debates on the actual impact of social actors, how they are studied and conceptualized, their strategies and methods in their attempts at social and political change, and how they interact with Canadian political institutions. The first half of the course examines theoretical and conceptual questions and the institutional-political context in which collective action proceeds in Canadian political life. The second half looks at contemporary manifestations of social power. Specific social actors can be explored more fully by students through their written assignments.

Class format:

The class will proceed as a traditional lecture, yet the instructor strongly encourages interaction and discussion throughout the class. Students are expected to actively participate in these discussions and questions are strongly encouraged.

Texts:

- There is one assigned book for this course, available in the bookstore and on reserve at the library:

Miriam Smith, Group Politics and Social Movements in Canada, (Toronto: Broadview Press, 2008).
- The readings will be on reserve at MacOdrum Library.

- Please see weekly schedule for assigned readings. You are expected to come to class having read the assigned readings and prepared to discuss them.

Evaluation :

10%- Attendance and participation.

10%- Short assignment (Due on Week 4, October 3)

5%- Research paper proposal (Due on Week 6, October 17)

35%- Research paper (Due on Week 12, November 28)

40%- Final Take-Home Exam (To be posted on WebCt on Week 12, November 28; Due on the last day of the formal examination period, December 19).

- Attendance and participation: Students are expected to attend class having read the required materials for that week and be prepared to participate in class discussions. Attendance will be taken in class each week.
- Short assignment: On Week 2 (September 19), the instructor will post a list of 4-5 articles from the assigned readings on WebCt. Students are expected to write a short review essay (700-1000 words) that provides a critical assessment of the author's contributions to the study of social power in Canada. It is not necessary to do any additional research for this assignment, and the aim is simply to allow students to engage more profoundly with particular theoretical, conceptual or methodological issues in the body of literature on social actors in the Canadian political process. The short assignment is due on Week 4 (October 3), at the beginning of class. As per early feedback guidelines, the short assignment will be returned on Week 5 (October 10).
- Research paper proposal: All students are required to submit a research paper proposal. These proposals are due on Week 6 (October 17), at the beginning of class. The proposal is intended to allow students to develop and frame their research topic through some preliminary work, and to receive feedback. The instructor will not provide a list of research topics, but students are encouraged to discuss their intentions with the instructor prior to submitting their proposals. The proposals should be no longer than 500 words in length, should clearly state a research question, and should provide some preliminary sources. The proposal is worth only 5% of your final grade, so it does not have to be exhaustive.
- Research paper: The research paper must be between 14 and 17 typed pages – double-spaced, using 12 point font. The paper must follow proper essay style and structure, and must use a recognized referencing style (which must be consistent throughout). I recommend that students consult the editorial style guidelines of the Canadian Journal of Political Science, which can be accessed here: <http://www.cpsa-acsp.ca/pdfs/Editorial%20Style%20Guidelines%202008.pdf>. Students are expected to undertake research using sources beyond those listed in the course outline. The papers are due at the beginning of the class on Week 12 (November 28). The essay will not be accepted if you are late to class. If you do not bring your essay on time to the beginning of class, you must deposit it in the Political Science drop box. These essays will be counted as 'late' (see late policy below). Secondary research is all that is required to write the paper, yet students may draw upon primary sources if they wish. The goal is to allow students to grasp the body of literature on a particular topic by providing a cogent and coherent synthesis, and to be able to articulate and defend a particular position based on the assessment of the literature. Please avoid overly drawn-out summaries in exposing what has been written on a topic – the exercise is meant to allow students to critically assess the state of research in their chosen topics.

- Final Take-Home Exam: On November 28, the instructor will distribute the final take-home exam, which is due on December 19. Students can submit the exam to the instructor or in the Department of Political Science Drop Box at any time throughout this period, and I will be in my office all day (9am-4:30am) on the due date. The exam will consist of three sections, each containing three essay questions. Students will select one question from each section. Each answer should be about 800-1200 words. Moreover, students are expected to draw from class lectures and reading assignments in writing the essays, and students are not expected to include any research outside of class materials.

Other Information:

Submitting assignments and late policy: Extensions beyond the original due date will only be granted in the case of exceptional circumstances. If you are ill (with a doctor's note) or have another legitimate reason for lateness, please see the instructor as soon as possible (preferably before the due date). All assignments must be handed in as hardcopies directly to the instructor, at the beginning of class, or in the case of the final take-home, during the instructor's office hours or all day on the last day of the formal examination period. For late assignments, the Department of Political Science's drop-off box may be used (located outside B640 Loeb Building, the box is emptied every weekday at 4 p.m. and papers are date-stamped with that day's date). Please recall that if an assignment is submitted via the drop-box on the day it is due, it will be considered one day late. Assignments sent by email will not be accepted. Assignments will be returned in class or during the instructor's office hours. If handed in with a self-addressed stamped envelope, they will be returned by mail. Late assignments will be penalized by five percentage points (5%) per day (including weekends); assignments submitted more than ten days late will receive a mark of 0%.

Grading: Assignments and exams will be graded with a percentage grade. To convert this to a letter grade or to the university 12-point system, please refer to the following table.

Percentage	Letter grade	12-point scale	Percentage	Letter grade	12-point scale
90-100	A+	12	67-69	C+	6
85-89	A	11	63-66	C	5
80-84	A-	10	60-62	C-	4
77-79	B+	9	57-59	D+	3
73-76	B	8	53-56	D	2
70-72	B-	7	50-52	D-	1

Office Hours and E-mail: My office hours are posted on this outline, and I strongly encourage students to use them for any reason related to the course material. If students cannot make it during the posted times, we can arrange individual appointments. If I have to cancel my office hours for any reason, I will make every effort to inform the class regarding make-up office hours. Please do not e-mail me with questions regarding the course material. I will only respond to e-mails regarding non-substantive procedural/technical issues which require a brief answer. Moreover, I will only respond to emails that use a Carleton account.

Academic Accommodations

For students with Disabilities: Students with disabilities requiring academic accommodations in this course must register with the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (500 University Centre) for a formal evaluation of disability-related needs. Registered PMC students are required to contact the centre (613-520-6608) every term to ensure that the instructor receives your request for accommodation. After registering with the PMC, make an appointment to meet with the instructor in order to discuss your needs at least two weeks before the first assignment is due or the first in-class test/midterm requiring accommodations. If you require accommodation for your formally scheduled exam(s) in this course, please submit your request for accommodation to PMC by (November 9th, 2012 for December examinations and March 8th, 2013 for April examinations).

For Religious Observance: Students requesting accommodation for religious observances should apply in writing to their instructor for alternate dates and/or means of satisfying academic requirements. Such requests should be made during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist, but no later than two weeks before the compulsory academic event. Accommodation is to be worked out directly and on an individual basis between the student and the instructor(s) involved. Instructors will make accommodations in a way that avoids academic disadvantage to the student. Instructors and students may contact an Equity Services Advisor for assistance (www.carleton.ca/equity).

For Pregnancy: Pregnant students requiring academic accommodations are encouraged to contact an Equity Advisor in Equity Services to complete a letter of accommodation. Then, make an appointment to discuss your needs with the instructor at least two weeks prior to the first academic event in which it is anticipated the accommodation will be required.

Plagiarism: The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in "substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They include a mark of zero for the plagiarized work or a final grade of "F" for the course.

Oral Examination: At the discretion of the instructor, students may be required to pass a brief oral examination on research papers and essays.

Submission and Return of Term Work: Papers must be handed directly to the instructor and will not be date-stamped in the departmental office. Late assignments may be submitted to the drop box in the corridor outside B640 Loeb. Assignments will be retrieved every business day at 4 p.m., stamped with that day's date, and then distributed to the instructor. For essays not returned in class please attach a stamped, self-addressed envelope if you wish to have your assignment returned by mail. Please note that assignments sent via fax or email will not be accepted. Final exams are intended solely for the purpose of evaluation and will not be returned.

Grading: Assignments and exams will be graded with a percentage grade. To convert this to a letter grade or to the university 12-point system, please refer to the following table.

Percentage	Letter grade	12-point scale	Percentage	Letter grade	12-point scale
90-100	A+	12	67-69	C+	6
85-89	A	11	63-66	C	5
80-84	A-	10	60-62	C-	4
77-79	B+	9	57-59	D+	3
73-76	B	8	53-56	D	2
70-72	B-	7	50-52	D-	1

Grades: Final grades are derived from the completion of course assignments. Failure to write the final exam will result in the grade ABS. Deferred final exams are available ONLY if the student is in good standing in the course.

Approval of final grades: Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by an instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Dean.

Connect Email Accounts: All email communication to students from the Department of Political Science will be via Connect. Important course and University information is also distributed via the Connect email system. It is the student's responsibility to monitor their Connect account.

Carleton Political Science Society: The Carleton Political Science Society (CPSS) has made its mission to provide a social environment for politically inclined students and faculty. Holding social events, debates, and panel discussions, CPSS aims to involve all political science students in the after-hours academic life at Carleton University. Our mandate is to arrange social and academic activities in order to instill a sense of belonging within the Department and the larger University community. Members can benefit through numerous opportunities which will complement both academic and social life at Carleton University. To find out more, please email carletonpss@gmail.com, visit our website at poliscisociety.com, or come to our office in Loeb D688.

Official Course Outline: The course outline posted to the Political Science website is the official course outline.
