- Course description

This course introduces students to a range of international security issues, including the study of war, terrorism, insurgency, private military companies, and cyberwarfare through a mixed lecture/seminar format whereby lectures are interspersed with class discussion.

- Reading Material

Course reading material will be available online through Culearn and the library’s electronic journal and book resource page.

- Evaluation

80% critical review papers (x5)

Students will complete four short critical review essays (approx. 4 pages/1000 words each). The assignments require students to answer specific questions based on the required readings. Each essay should have a thesis (a core argument), advance the thesis throughout the paper, and show a strong understanding of the course materials. in a constrained writing space.

Assignments will be submitted online through the Culearn dropbox. Writing assignments will be graded in terms of the quality of the thesis/argument/analysis (40%), the quality of the use of the course material (40%), and writing, format and style (10%).

Each paper is worth 20%. Students have the option to write all 5, in which case the lowest mark will be discarded.
1. Pick one of the following theories: classical realism (B. Thayer); democratic peace theory (geditch); offensive realism (Mearsheimer). How well does your chosen theory explain the trends in violence described by Pinker (week 1). DUE: July 10

2. Taking the perspective of Kenneth Waltz on nuclear proliferation and strategy (week 5), what would be the consequences for international security should Iran acquire nuclear capability? Due: July 17

3. Which factors have scholars identified as possible factors that could lead to the emergence of armed groups? According to your analysis, which of these factors seems to be the most important when explaining the rise of the Islamic State? In your answer, describe the origins the Islamic State and draw on the readings from July 22, 24, and 29. Due: July 29

4. Did the private military company, Executive Outcomes, provide effective security services for the country of Sierra Leone in the mid 1990s? Based on your assessment, should the international community consider private security companies for peacebuilding or humanitarian intervention missions in other countries? Due: August 7

5. Drawing on Scott Sagan’s essay from week 6, what caused deterrence to fail in the movie Dr. Strangelove? Due: August 16

20%: Attendance/Participation

Students should attend class and participate when required. Students should also bring the required readings to class for reference purposes. The instructor will track both attendance and participation. Students can earn 10 marks for attendance and 10 marks for participation (max 2 per class, excluding week 1).

- Other issues
  - Lateness policy: late assignments will be penalized by 1/3 of a letter grade per day (i.e. A reduced to A-).

Academic Accommodations

Requests for Academic Accommodation

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request, the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy obligation

Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf

Religious obligation

Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

If you have a documented disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation or contact your PMC coordinator to send your instructor your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term. You must also contact the PMC no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with your instructor as soon as possible to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. carleton.ca PMC
Survivors of Sexual Violence
As a community, Carleton University is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working and living environment where sexual violence will not be tolerated, and is survivors are supported through academic accommodations as per Carleton's Sexual Violence Policy. For more information about the services available at the university and to obtain information about sexual violence and/or support, visit: carleton.ca/sexual-violence-support

Accommodation for Student Activities
Carleton University recognizes the substantial benefits, both to the individual student and for the university, that result from a student participating in activities beyond the classroom experience. Reasonable accommodation must be provided to students who compete or perform at the national or international level. Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. https://carleton.ca/senate/wp-content/uploads/Accommodation-for-Student-Activities-1.pdf

For more information on academic accommodation, please contact the departmental administrator or visit: students.carleton.ca/course-outline

Plagiarism
The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

• reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
• submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
• using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
• using another’s data or research findings;
• failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
• handing in "substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They may include a mark of zero for the plagiarized work or a final grade of “F” for the course. Student or professor materials created for this course (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the author(s). They are intended for personal use and may not be reproduced or redistributed without prior written consent of the author(s).

Submission and Return of Term Work
Papers must be submitted directly to the instructor according to the instructions in the course outline and will not be date-stamped in the departmental office. Late assignments may be submitted to the drop box in the corridor outside B640 Loeb. Assignments will be retrieved every business day at 4 p.m., stamped with that day’s date, and then distributed to the instructor. For essays not returned in class please attach a stamped, self-addressed envelope if you wish to have your assignment returned by mail. Final exams are intended solely for the purpose of evaluation and will not be returned.

Grading
Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor, subject to the approval of the faculty Dean. Final standing in courses will be shown by alphabetical grades. The system of grades used, with corresponding grade points is:

Approval of final grades
Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by an instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Dean.

Carleton E-mail Accounts
All email communication to students from the Department of Political Science will be via official Carleton university e-mail accounts and/or cuLearn. As important course and University information is distributed this way, it is the student’s responsibility to monitor their Carleton and cuLearn accounts.

Carleton Political Science Society
"The Carleton Political Science Society (CPSS) has made its mission to provide a social environment for politically inclined students and faculty. By hosting social events, including Model Parliament, debates, professional development sessions and more, CPSS aims to involve all political science students at Carleton University. Our mandate is to arrange social and academic activities in order to instill a sense of belonging within the Department and the larger University community. Members can benefit through our networking opportunities, academic engagement initiatives and numerous events which aim to complement both academic and social life at Carleton University.
