Migration and Mobility: The Politics of Citizenship and Identity
Friday, 11:35-2:25
Confirm location on Carleton Central

Instructor: Christina Gabriel
Office: Loeb D692
Phone: 520-2600 x. 1413
E-mail: christina_gabriel@carleton.ca
Office Hours: Friday, 9:30-11:00 or by appointment

Course Description:
This seminar focuses on how the movements of people – including labour migrants, family members and temporary workers, - across borders challenge our understandings of state sovereignty, territory and citizenship. The first portion of the course provides an overview of some key debates within citizenship and migration studies. The second portion of the course examines different types of cross border mobility.

Course Objectives:
- To review debates within the theoretical literature on migration and citizenship
- To map and assess current developments in the governance of migration.
- To consider the ways in which cross-border mobility raises questions about social justice and political membership
- To understand how broader social relations find expression in the politics of international migration and citizenship

Format:
This class is structured as a weekly three-hour seminar. The instructor will begin each three-hour session with a short presentation (15- minutes) to introduce key themes and ideas associated with each topic. Students will also be required to make one oral presentation based on a seminar topics. Each student is expected to come to all classes and must be prepared to actively participate. All required readings must be completed prior to each class.

Course Materials:
Course material is available through the Ares System on cuLearn and through the Reserve Desk at the library. Many readings are available electronically.

Evaluation:
Students will be evaluated on the following basis

- Essay Proposal* 15%
Students will be required to write an essay proposal based on a research topic of their choosing. The topic must be relevant to the broad themes and questions covered by this course. Each proposal should be seven - nine pages long, including an annotated bibliography. Details attached. Due Date: October 23, 2015
• Research Essay* 35%
Students will submit a research paper based on their essay proposal. The paper must be 12-15 pages, double-spaced, standard margins, 12pt font, times new roman. Details attached. Due Date: December 4, 2015.

• Short Annotations 25%
Each student will submit five annotated entries (each entry worth 5%) based on course readings. Each annotation must be no longer than three-quarters of a page, single spaced and is due on the same day as the relevant reading. There will be no exceptions for late or missing annotations. Details and schedule attached.

• In-Class Presentation: 10%
Each student will participate in a three person group presentation. These presentations will be based on an assigned policy report. Students will sign up in class on September 11 and 18. Details attached.

• Attendance & Participation: 15%
Students will be evaluated on the basis of their active, informed and thoughtful oral participation in class discussions. See details attached. Attendance will be taken at every class; late arrivals and early departures will not receive full credit for participation.

STUDENTS MUST COMPLETE ALL COURSE REQUIREMENTS IN ORDER TO OBTAIN A FINAL GRADE

Policies on Assignments:
All assignments in this course (with the exception of the single-space annotation) must be 12 pt font, double-spaced and have standard one-inch margins. As much as possible they should be free of spelling and grammatical errors. They must include appropriate citations (endnotes or footnotes) and bibliography.

The University takes instructional offences (including plagiarism) very seriously. Please make sure that you are familiar with the regulations regarding instructional offences, which are outlined in the Undergraduate Calendar. Also, it is not acceptable to submit the same assignment in two different courses.

Assignments are due at the beginning of class on the date specified. They should be submitted directly to the Professor in class. If this is not possible use the Political Science Drop Box located on the sixth floor of the Loeb Building. The Drop Box is emptied daily at 4:00 p.m. Papers received after this time will be date stamped the following working day.

Please do not submit papers to the staff in the Political Science Office or anyone else in the office. Late papers without a date stamp will be assessed a penalty based on the date the Professor actually receives the paper.

Do not slip assignments under my office door, post them on my office door or place them in my mailbox. Do not submit assignments by e-mail or fax. It is the student’s responsibility to ensure that the Professor receives papers and it is the student’s responsibility to collect the graded paper in a timely fashion. Students should make a copy of all of their assignments before submitting them and are advised to keep all notes and drafts of work until after the final grade has been assigned and awarded.

Late Penalties
Assignments are due on the dates specified in the course outline. Late papers will be subject to a penalty of 5% a day not including weekends. The essay proposal will not be accepted two weeks after the due date. Late research essays will not be accepted after December 9, 2015.

No retroactive extensions will be permitted. Do not ask for an extension on the due date of the assignment. Exceptions will be made only in those cases of special circumstances, (e.g. illness, bereavement) and where the student has verifiable documentation. If you anticipate a problem with one of the above deadlines please approach me as soon as you can in advance of the assignment.

E-mail Policy
E-mail will be answered within two business days. Do not submit any class assignments by e-mail unless you have made an arrangement with the instructor.

Short Annotations

Worth: 25%
[Five annotations @ 5% each]

Length:
Between one half and three quarters of a page, single-spaced.

Due Date:
Due on the same date as relevant reading in class.

Note:
Missing or late annotations will not be accepted.

- If you are absent from class you are not permitted to submit the annotation. Exceptions will be made only in case of illness or other documentable circumstances.

- If you attend class but do not submit your annotation in class it will not be accepted later.

- Group collaboration is not permitted on this assignment.

Purpose:
The purpose of the short written annotations is:
- To engage with the required reading in a focused and critical manner
- To enhance your contributions to seminar discussions.

Task:
Throughout the term each student in the class will submit five written annotations based on the required readings. Be prepared, if called upon, to share the points in your annotation with the class. Each annotation should begin with relevant bibliographic details (author, title, source, publisher, year of publication). It should include the following information:
- Topic of the reading
- Key question or central argument
- Key supporting claims of the author
- Your identification of a strength and/or weakness of the reading
- One question for class discussion

Do not use point form.

Choice of Annotations:
Students are not permitted to write an annotation on the same reading as their in-class presentation.

Those students with the surname beginning with A-J may choose one reading/per week from the following weeks. You must complete one annotation based on one reading for each topic.

In-Class Presentation Based on Required Course Reading

Worth: 10%

Dates of Presentations will be arranged in class September 11 and 18. Groups will also be able to meet briefly in class on September 18.

First Group Presentation Scheduled for October 2.

Task:
Students will form groups of three. Each group will be responsible for reviewing and presenting one policy report. The formal presentation (not including discussion) should be 20 minutes.

It is expected that the oral group presentation will:
- Provide some information on the think tank that produced the report
- Highlight some key points
- Outline the report’s policy recommendations / key findings / conclusions
- Offer a critique or analysis
- Draw links between report’s themes/issues and weekly readings as well as broader course themes
- Develop a discussion question for the class

It is expected that each member of the group will participate in the presentation. Avoid doing a straightforward summary of the readings but keep in mind the rest of the class will not have read the report.

Think creatively. Presentations could take the form of a panel discussion or include a mini debate.

Evaluation:
The evaluation of this assignment will be based on:
- Success in identifying, presenting and assessing the policy brief.
- Communications skills
- How well each member of the group complements/coordinates with fellow group members
- Success in generating class participation

The grade assigned will be based on three factors (i) individual contribution to the presentation (ii) group mark (iii) group members’ evaluation of their fellow group members (you will be asked to submit a grade for each of your fellow group members based on their contribution to the group effort. This evaluation will be kept confidential

Written Summary:
Each individual group member is also required to submit a two page summary (double spaced) of their oral presentation. This summary is due in the same class as your presentation. There is no separate grade for this requirement. Late submissions will be penalized.

Students will receive their presentation marks on December 4.

Essay Proposal

Due Date: October 23, 2015
Length: 12 pt font, seven - nine pages
Worth: 15%

Purpose:
The purpose of this assignment is to allow students an opportunity to do some preliminary research on an aspect of migration and mobility. The proposal is intended to assist students to develop and frame their own research topic. Additionally, this assignment ensures that students are provided with some early feedback on their proposed topic and preliminary thesis. Your subsequent essay must reflect the topic outlined in the essay proposal. Essays that do not follow the initial proposal topic will be penalized. Please choose carefully.

Task:
Your essay proposal must include:
• A statement of topic. Why is this of interest to you and how does it relate to course themes.
• A preliminary thesis suggesting the directions you will pursue in this paper
• A brief statement of why your thesis and topic is significant. Why is it important?
• A brief summary of what you have learned regarding key issues and debates in the relevant scholarly literature.
• A brief statement of how you plan to carry out the rest of your research

Annotated Bibliography:
Your proposal must also include an annotated bibliography of five scholarly sources. Each entry must include: (a) complete bibliographic details (b) topic of source (c) purpose/thesis and (d) why is this particular source important or relevant to your proposed topic.

Do not use point form and pay close attention to (d).

Note:
The readings listed in your course outline provide a good starting point for identification of a topic and suggestions for other research sources. Where appropriate, course material should be integrated into your final essay. However, your annotated bibliography in the proposal should be a list of scholarly sources that do not appear on your course syllabus.

For the purposes of the proposal assignment scholarly sources are academic journal articles, chapters in edited volumes, and scholarly monographs.

Essay

Due Date: Friday, December 4 2015*
Worth: 35%
Length: 12 – 15 pages, double spaced, times new roman, 12 pt. font

Purpose:
The purpose of the essay is to provide you with an opportunity to develop the topic identified in your initial research proposal into a comprehensive, scholarly research paper.

Marking:
The paper will be marked on three criteria:
• Argument, organization and logic. Is the thesis presented in a logical and convincing manner?
• Research and use of evidence: Does the paper contain extensive and effective use of available research sources? Minimum number of scholarly sources 10.
• Does it contain proper footnotes/endnotes and bibliographic style?
• Communication: Is the paper organized and written as clearly and concisely as possible?

Note:
• Late penalties will be imposed on all papers submitted after the due date.

• Papers will not be accepted after Wednesday, December 9.

Seminar Participation – 15%
This class runs as a seminar based discussion. Students should come to class having completed the required reading in advance. Your active and thoughtful participation is important to the learning process. Attendance counts in the assessment of participation and attendance will be taken in each class. Seminar assessment will be based on the following broad guidelines

Grades:
A +
- Attendance – Always
- Completes all the readings and is well prepared for class
- Draws connections between readings and course themes
- Offers excellent assessment on individual readings
- Provides original ideas on weekly topic
- Generates topical class discussion
- Always has insights on topic but is careful not to dominate discussion
- Asks relevant and topical questions

A/A-
- Attendance – Perfect or Near Perfect
- Completed all the readings and is prepared for class
- Draws links between readings and course themes
- Offers very good assessments on individual readings and is a frequent participant
- Generates topical class discussion
- Asks relevant and topical questions

B+
- Attendance - Near Perfect
- Completed all the readings and is prepared for class
- Offers useful observations of weekly reading
- Regular participant in weekly discussions

B/B-
- Attendance – Regular
- Completed most of the readings
- Good understandings of the theme of the required readings but may not always draw links between them
- Regular participant in discussion

C
- Attendance – Regular (or erratic)
- Has completed some of the required readings
- Does not actively participate in class discussion (or participation may not always reference weekly topic and/or substantive themes of reading)
- Oral contributions are sometimes off topic

D (or less)
- Both attendance and participation erratic
Academic Accommodations

The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).

For Religious Observance: Students requesting accommodation for religious observances should apply in writing to their instructor for alternate dates and/or means of satisfying academic requirements. Such requests should be made during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist, but no later than two weeks before the compulsory academic event. Accommodation is to be worked out directly and on an individual basis between the student and the instructor(s) involved. Instructors will make accommodations in a way that avoids academic disadvantage to the student. Instructors and students may contact an Equity Services Advisor for assistance (www.carleton.ca/equity).

For Pregnancy: Pregnant students requiring academic accommodations are encouraged to contact an Equity Advisor in Equity Services to complete a letter of accommodation. Then, make an appointment to discuss your needs with the instructor at least two weeks prior to the first academic event in which it is anticipated the accommodation will be required.

Plagiarism: The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in “substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They may include a mark of zero for the plagiarized work or a final grade of "F" for the course. Student or professor materials created for this course (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the author(s). They are intended for personal use and may not be reproduced or redistributed without prior written consent of the author(s).

Submission and Return of Term Work: Papers must be submitted directly to the instructor according to the instructions in the course outline and will not be date-stamped in the departmental office. Late assignments may be submitted to the drop box in the corridor outside B640 Loeb. Assignments will be retrieved every business day at 4 p.m., stamped with that day’s date, and then distributed to the instructor. For essays not returned in class please attach a stamped, self-addressed envelope if you wish to have your assignment returned by mail. Final exams are intended solely for the purpose of evaluation and will not be returned.

Grading: Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor, subject to the approval of the faculty Dean. Final standing in courses will be shown by alphabetical grades. The system of grades used, with corresponding grade points is:

Approval of final grades: Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by an instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Dean.

Carleton E-mail Accounts: All email communication to students from the Department of Political Science will be via official Carleton university e-mail accounts and/or cuLearn. As important course and University information is distributed this way, it is the student’s responsibility to monitor their Carleton and cuLearn accounts.

Carleton Political Science Society: The Carleton Political Science Society (CPSS) has made its mission to provide a social environment for politically inclined students and faculty. Holding social events, debates, and panel discussions, CPSS aims to involve all political science students at Carleton University. Our mandate is to arrange social and academic activities in order to instill a sense of belonging within the Department and the larger University community. Members can benefit through numerous opportunities which will complement both academic and social life at Carleton University.
