

PSCI 4801 A

Selected Topics in Global Politics

“The Canadian Intelligence Community”

An introduction to intelligence and its function in Canadian national decision-making. A review will be made of the key agencies, departments, and organizations with significant intelligence roles, as well as look at Canada’s position as an international intelligence player. Will include an assessment of the role of intelligence oversight, the function of intelligence analysis, and the dissemination and impact of intelligence on policy-making.

- Instructor: Dr. Kurt Jensen
Adjunct Professor of Political Science
- Schedule: July to August 2010
- Time & Location: Please consult Carleton Central
- Prerequisite: Fourth year Honours standing or permission of the Department and one of PSCI 2601, PSCI 2602, PSCI 3107, PSCI 3600, PSCI 3601, SCI 3603 and PSCI 3703.

Please note: If you have previously completed this course/topic you are not eligible to receive additional credit.