

PSCI 4809 D

Honours Seminar in a Selected Topic

“Political Identity Through Graphic Novels”

This seminar is intended for those who wish to engage in deep and engaged reading of graphic novels. Through an examination of this emerging medium, we will examine the sources and implications of political and social identity. We will look at themes surrounding personal loss, collective trauma and memory, the Holocaust, war, race, rights, religion, mental health, gender, and sexuality.

Instructor:	Professor Mira Sucharov
Schedule:	January to April 2016
Time:	Please consult Carleton Central
Prerequisites:	Fourth-year Honours standing or permission of the Department