

Bryan Palmer

Colonialism and Capitalism: Canada's Origins 1500–1890

Part of IPE's Socialist Seminar Series 2024-2025

Bryan Palmer weaves together groundbreaking research to examine colonial practices that displaced Indigenous peoples and the rise of capitalism that shaped resource exploitation and wealth distribution. This compelling narrative challenges traditional accounts and reimagines the complex threads of Canada's past.

Wednesday January 22, 2025
1p.m. - 3p.m.
Dunton 1524 and via Zoom

Carleton
University

Institute of Political Economy