

Dr. Sabrina Fernandes

Green Sacrifice Zones and the Political Economy of Unjust Transitions

December 11, 2024

1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Dunton 1524 and via Zoom

Part of IPE's Socialist Seminar Series 2024-2025

Dr. Sabrina Fernandes is a Canadian and Brazilian sociologist and political economist, ecosocialist activist, acclaimed author, and IPE alumna. Currently Head of Research at the Alameda Institute, she is the author of Se Quiser Mudar o Mundo: Um guia político para quem se importa (2020) and Morbid Symptoms: the crossroads of the Brazilian Left (2019). Dr. Fernandes is also the editor of new Portuguese editions of The Communist Manifesto, The 18th Brumaire of Louis Bonaparte, and a box set of the three volumes of Capital. She is co-editor of the International Research Group on Authoritarianism and Counter-Strategies' Global Authoritarianism: Perspectives and contestations from the South.

Carleton
University

Institute of Political Economy

Carleton
University

Department of Sociology and Anthropology

CLIMATE
COMMONS

