

Blumbergs' Snapshot of the Quebec Charity Sector 2018

By Mark Blumberg and Henri Pasha (February 15, 2021)

We recently reviewed the T3010 Registered Charity Information Return database for 2018 as part of the Sean Blumberg Transparency Project. The database covers 84,323 of the 85,800 registered charities in Canada that had filed their T3010 for 2018 and were processed into CRA's Charity Listing database by May 2020. We are hoping that by mid-2021 the 2019 dataset will be complete.

This article provides a snapshot of the registered charity sector in Quebec taken from a subset of the 2018 T3010 filings. We have completed Blumbergs' Snapshots of the Canadian Charity Sector for 2010 – 2017 as well. Keep in mind that these statistics only relate to registered charities under the Income Tax Act (Canada) and not to the 80,000 -100,000 non-profits across Canada which are not registered charities and for which CRA is not permitted to release information.

The amount of easily accessible data on the registered charity sector is lacking. The T3010 form asks very little information of charities. It is unfortunate but when you look at other countries such as the US and UK there is far more publicly available information on individual charities. In this world of greater expectation of transparency, the charity sector has fallen far behind and this could result in a reduction of public trust in charities. Here is my most recent submission to the Federal government calling for greater transparency with non-profits and charities.

Below are some of the highlights of the Blumbergs' Snapshot of the Quebec Charity Sector in 2018, as compared to the same figures from the T3010 for Ontario and Canada in the same year

	Quebec 2018	Ontario 2018	Canada 2018
Number of registered charities in Quebec	15,703	30,316	84,323
Quebec charities identified themselves as active	14,273	28,132	78,264
Quebec charities identified themselves as inactive	1231	1637	4382
Quebec charities that made gifts to other charities or qualified donees	3855	12,762	31,532
Total revenue for Quebec charities	$54.4 billion	$117.5 billion	4284
Total expenditures of Quebec charities	$53 billion	$108.3 billion	$284 billion
Quebec charities who funded projects outside of Canada	429	1,584	3,327
Amount spent by Quebec charities outside of Canada	$520 million	$2.6 billion	$3.75
Quebec charities received funds from Global Affairs Canada	33	76	148
Quebec charities that identified carrying on political activities	174	292	722

Quebec charities that had employment expenses	8871	15,839	45,462
Quebec charities that did not have any employment expenses	6756	14,349	38,485
Amount spent by Quebec charities on salaries and other compensation	$31.5 billion	$61.7 billion	$155 billion
Value of official donation receipts issued by Quebec charities	$2 billion	$9.4 billion	$18 billion

The Canadian charity sector is a vital part of Canadian society and economy with revenue of over $284 billion and expenditures of about $271 billion.

Please review the caveats at the end about the reliability and usage of T3010 information.

The Sean Blumberg Transparency Project is in memory of my youngest brother Sean Blumberg. Sean was a sweet, kind person, a great brother who helped me on a number of occasions with many tasks including the time consuming and arduous task of reviewing T3010 databases and making them into something useful. As part of the Sean Blumberg Transparency Project, Blumbergs has been releasing information on the Canadian charity sector to provide a better understanding of the size, scope, complexity and challenges of the sector.

Some of the highlights of the Blumbergs' Snapshot of the Quebec Charity Sector 2018 include:

- 15,703 Quebec registered charities filed their T3010 out of approximately 85,800 charities in Canada
- $54.4 billion in total revenue for Quebec charities and total expenditures of $53 billion.
- Government revenue totaled $39.5 billion including from the federal government ($1.4 billion), provincial governments ($37.6 billion) and municipal/regional governments ($475 million). In total government is approximately 72.6% of revenue of the whole charity sector in Quebec.
- 14,273 identified themselves as active and 1231 as inactive
- 3855 made gifts to other charities or qualified donees during their 2018 fiscal year

www.canadiancharitylaw.ca

Political activities

Schedule 7

A registered charity may pursue political activities only if the activities are non-partisan, related to its charitable purposes, and limited in extent. A political activity is any activity that explicitly communicates to the public that a law, policy or decision of any level of government inside or outside Canada should be retained, opposed, or changed.

- 1 Describe the charity's political activities, including gifts to qualified donees intended for political activities, and explain how these relate to its charitable purposes.

- 2 Identify the way the charity participated in or carried out political activities during the fiscal period.

Limitations and Caveats

There are a number of cautions in dealing with the information from the T3010. You can access the CRA Charities Listing database directly on the CRA website at: <https://www.canada.ca/en/revenue-agency/services/charities-giving/list-charities/list-charities-other-qualified-donees.html>. As well, Blumbergs also maintains Canada's largest charity information portal at www.charitydata.ca with up to 16 years information on every Canadian registered charity. The portal is free and the aim is to increase transparency in the Canadian charity sector. With CRA recently removing over 10 years' worth of information from the Charities Listing, www.charitydata.ca has far more years available.

- 1) The data in this note is based on the 2018 T3010 Registered Charity Information Return filings. Although all charities are supposed to file their T3010 within 6 months of their fiscal year end, some charities file late or do not file at all and then will lose their charitable status. Depending on the data set from CRA, not every charity may have filed their T3010 or been inputted yet.
- 2) Registered charities complete the T3010 and one person signs the form. The T3010 information is not independently verified by CRA when it is posted on the CRA site or placed in the CRA database.
- 3) Although an important legal document, the T3010 is often completed by volunteers or others who may have little understanding of the nuances of the Income Tax Act (Canada), limited language skills, may not have easy access to the correct information or are in a hurry to file the form to avoid deregistration. In the case of larger institutions, it is typically accountants or finance staff who prepare the T3010. One would expect greater accuracy with the larger institutions. However, as they also tend to be more complicated and involve bigger numbers, the likelihood of a significant inaccuracy in their T3010 filings is great.
- 4) The T3010s are filed with CRA and in many cases needs to be coded by hand at CRA which can also introduce mistakes. Only a small number of T3010s have 2D bar code technology which can eliminate most processing errors on CRA's part. Canadian charities can as of June 2019 electronically file the T3010 which will hopefully reduce errors and speed up the process for T3010 data becoming available.
- 5) In some cases, those completing the T3010 for a charity are deliberately deceptive when completing the T3010. For example, an organization knows that it has substantial fundraising or political expenses but chooses to put them under charitable activities. Or an organization claims pharmaceuticals that it can purchase for $50,000 are really worth $50 million.
- 6) Don't rely on any of this information without checking with the charity and appropriate due diligence as required.
- 7) The T3010 is a tax form which is supposed to be completed according to guidance provided by the CRA in Guide Completing the Registered Charity Information Return \(T-4033\) and also various other CRA guidances and policies. The information inputted may not conform to Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) and often the numbers will not match what is in a financial statement.

www.canadiancharitylaw.ca

You can obtain copies of financial statements, whether audited or not, on any registered charity by requesting the financial statements from CRA. These financial statements are filed with CRA but not placed on the CRA website and they can sometimes add further information.

8) Some questions on the T3010 are more prone to error than others. Some questions are complicated, while others are quite straightforward. Some matters are easily quantifiable, like value of official donation receipts, while others require allocation and other subjective measurements. Some questions, like revenue, are answered by almost every charity and if a charity makes a mistake, the likelihood is that such a mistake will not have much impact on the bigger picture. On the other hand, some numbers like political expenditures by Canadian charities are often incorrectly completed and even one or two charities by mistakenly inserting large numbers in this category can distort the picture. With the 2012 numbers, the top 6 organizations listing political expenditures appear to be all mistakes. This seems to have inflated the numbers by about 1000%. You can see my article "Did the University of Windsor spend \$285 million on political activities in 2012". For the 2013 political numbers were $171 million on the T3010. If one reviews the actual organizations, the number is probably about $26 million. For 2017 the number is 28 million. For 2018 the number is 30 million.

9) The T3010 form asks certain questions. Many important questions are not asked on the T3010. Relying on the T3010 to make decisions on whether a charity is efficient or worthwhile to support is prone to failure. We have established a website at www.smartgiving.ca which discusses in detail questions donors may want to ask before donating to charity.
