This course provides an introduction to psychology as a science. The goal is to provide you with an overview of the many different topics of psychology, focusing on topics such as human development, motivation, emotion, personality, social interaction, disorders, stress and health, and therapy. This course is designed for those students considering careers in the discipline of psychology, as well as those students generally interested in understanding human behaviour.

EVALUATION

Midterm exam
Final exam
Tutorials
Research Participation

TEXT

To reduce costs, the Carleton bookstore offers a loose-leaf version and a digital eTextbook bundled together at a discount. The loose-leaf text fits in a 3-ring binder and this makes it easy to carry around only the chapters you need.