

Academic unit: Psychology
Category of appointment: Preliminary (Tenure-Track)
Field of specialization: Health Psychology
Rank/Position title: Assistant Professor
Start date: July 1, 2018
Closing date for applications: October 16, 2017

About the position:

The Department of Psychology at Carleton University invites applications from qualified candidates for a preliminary (tenure-track) appointment in Health Psychology with a focus on mental health at the rank of Assistant Professor beginning July 1, 2018.

Applicants must have a Ph.D., have demonstrated excellence in research and teaching and possess a strong commitment to scholarship, as reflected in publications in the area of Health Psychology (research focus on mental health). The successful candidate will have the ability to develop an externally-funded, high quality research program; will be committed to excellence in teaching at the undergraduate and graduate level; and will contribute effectively to the academic life of the Department.

The Department is interested in candidates with a research program in the area of Health Psychology with a focus on mental health. Current health research in the department focuses on healthy goal setting behavior; personality and behaviours associated with health, illness and well-being; gambling and addiction; and environmental influences on health. The Department of Psychology currently offers undergraduate programs in the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, as well as the Faculty of Science. Graduate programs in Psychology are offered at the master's and doctoral level. Further information on the department is available at <http://www2.carleton.ca/psychology>. Further information can be obtained from our website at <http://www.carleton.ca/psychology> or by contacting Dr. Lise Paquet at the address below or by email at PsychChair@carleton.ca.

Qualifications:

The position requires a Ph.D. in psychology with evidence of research in Health Psychology (mental health). The successful candidate would be expected to teach undergraduate and graduate courses in Health Psychology (mental health) and have effective leadership and collaborative skills. The successful candidate is expected to show evidence of being able to maintain a successful program of research that is eligible for Tri-Council funding.

Application instructions:

Applicants should submit applications electronically to Dr. Lise Paquet, Acting Chair, Department of Psychology (PsychChair@carleton.ca) in three PDF files including: 1) a curriculum vitae; 2) copies of representative publications; and 3) a summary of research objectives and teaching experience by October 16, 2017. At the same time, candidates should arrange to have three referees forward supporting letters to Dr. Lise Paquet, Acting Chair, Department of Psychology, Carleton University, 1125 Colonel By Drive, Ottawa, Ontario, K1S 5B6 or via email at PsychChair@carleton.ca.

Please indicate in your application if you are a Canadian citizen or permanent resident of Canada.
