COURSE DESCRIPTION/INSTRUCTOR'S STATEMENT

This course follows PSYC 5904 where you will continue to put into practice the content and skills you learned. You will be implementing your knowledge mobilization plans that you developed in PSYC5904. You also will be evaluating your implantation to determine the impact it has on well-being. The focus of this course is to implement and evaluate how effective your knowledge mobilization plan is at improving well-being. Note, this course is the second part of the capstone course for the Mental Health and Well-Being concentration for the MA in psychology.
