

PSYC 3507 B : SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT

Instructor	Brent Bezo
Term	Winter 2027
Course Delivery	In-Person
Email Address	brentbezo@cunet.carleton.ca
Office Location	TBD
Office Hours	TBD

COURSE DESCRIPTION/INSTRUCTOR'S STATEMENT

This course provides theoretical insights and empirical evidence on topics related to influences on the social development of children and adolescents. Specific topics such as the roles of family, peers, schools and media in development; attachment and forming close relationships; the development of aggression; the biological foundations of development, among other topics will be covered. This course is in-person on campus.

EVALUATION (SUBJECT TO CHANGE)

Evaluation will include two midterm exams (each worth 45% of the final grade) and a written assignment worth 10% of the final grade.

TEXT

Ross D. Parke, Glenn I. Roisman, & Amanda J. Rose (2014). Social Development (3rd Ed.). Wiley.