Fall 2017-Winter 2018 Registration Checklist for Carleton University Students Registering at uOttawa on the Exchange Agreement

Fall 2017 (first day to register for Carleton students): Wednesday August 16, 2017
Winter 2018 (first day to register for Carleton students): Monday December 18, 2017

Fall-Winter Sessions – Undergraduate Registration

- Students can register for courses at the host university only when each of the following four conditions apply: (1) the course is essential to the student’s program; (2) the course is not offered at the student’s home university; (3) the course counts towards the requirements of the student’s current degree program; (4) the student has received written consent from their home university. Please note that this agreement only applies to courses taken for credit (visiting students cannot audit courses).

Registration Process for Carleton Students Studying at uOttawa

- Complete the “Carleton University Undergraduate Exchange Approval Form” and get the appropriate signatures from the Registrar’s Office at Carleton University. Ensure you have noted the specific course and course code on your form. We require both course number and section letter for registration purposes. Courses may also require prerequisites.

- This information is available by verifying the course schedule and course description on the “uOttawa Timetable”: https://web30.uottawa.ca/v3/SITS/timetable/Search.aspx

  Note: transcripts are normally required for proof of prerequisite completion.

- If you already have a uOttawa student ID, complete and sign the “uOttawa Undergraduate Registration Form” and confirm course approval in person at the appropriate uOttawa faculty: http://www.registrar.uottawa.ca/Default.aspx?tabid=2777

- If you have never applied or studied at uOttawa or St-Paul University, please complete the online form “uOttawa Personal Identification”: https://uoforms.uottawa.ca/specialstudent/en. This will accelerate the in-person registration process at the appropriate faculty. Select the special student category Transfer of credits. Also please complete the “uOttawa Undergraduate Registration Form” and confirm course approval in person at the appropriate uOttawa faculty: http://www.registrar.uottawa.ca/Default.aspx?tabid=2777

- Once approved, go to InfoService in Tabaret Hall, room 129 (map site below) to get a student ID card. Please bring photo identification with you. If you already have a uOttawa ID number and have taken courses at uOttawa in the past, your ID is still active. Your ID card is good for the duration of your studies at uOttawa. It will be activated automatically once your course selection is approved by the faculty.

- You will be required to show identification. Once you have successfully registered in the course you must return to Carleton University to complete the registration process. They will need the Carleton University approval form signed by our faculty staff for confirmation.
It is your responsibility to ensure that you do not create course conflicts when participating in the Exchange Program. If you choose to register in a course with a conflicting schedule, you will not be eligible for special consideration or accommodations.

Exams

You must verify your exam schedule at both institutions as soon as it is available in order to avoid exam conflicts. You can do so by logging into your uoZone account, under “Personalized Exam Timetable” or visit the Exam Schedule web site: https://web30.uottawa.ca/v3/SITS/timetable/ExamSearch.aspx

Note: Exam conflicts must be resolved at the home institution (Carleton University).

Academic Withdrawals

For Carleton students, withdrawing from courses at uOttawa must be done within the withdrawal deadlines of the host university (uOttawa) and must be done in person at the faculty where you originally registered for the course. The dates and deadlines that apply for both “Financial Withdrawal” (last day to withdraw with a fee adjustment) and “Academic Withdrawal” (last day to withdraw with no academic penalty) are detailed below.

If you are entitled to any financial reimbursements, the home university (Carleton University) will make the necessary adjustments. The uOttawa Registrar’s Office will provide the necessary documents to the Carleton University Registrar’s Office to update your academic and financial file.

Any appeals to missed deadlines or university rules and regulations surrounding courses taken on exchange must follow the process of the host institution (uOttawa), and any outcomes that affect academic or financial status will be communicated to the home institution (Carleton University).

uOttawa Services

uOttawa Email Account:
Correspondence from uOttawa is sent to uOttawa.ca email accounts. Once you are registered, go to and enter your uoAccess ID. Your uoAccess ID is the short name before your @uOttawa.ca e-mail address (ex: jsmitt000). To access to uoZone go to http://www.uottawa.ca/en/students

If you have not been assigned a password, or if you have trouble accessing the tool, call the technical help line at 613-562-5800, extension 6555 to have your password set for you. It is your responsibility to check your university email account regularly.

Virtual Campus (Brightspace):
At uOttawa, virtual campus (Brightspace) is the one-stop portal allowing the University community to access online course information as well as other e-learning resources. Virtual Campus is one of the many applications that you will find into your uoZone account.
