Course meets: Tuesday and Thursday, Tory 342, 2:35 – 5:25pm

Pre-requisites & precluded Courses: Also listed as RELI 2550. Precludes additional credit for SOAN 2403 and RELI 2403. Prerequisites: ANTH 1001 and ANTH 1002, or ANTH 1003 [1.0], or SOCI 1001 and SOCI 1002, or SOCI 1003 [1.0].

Course Description and Objectives:
This cross-cultural survey of religious institutions focuses on theories and methodologies in the study of religion. Topics may include myth, totemism, cults, ritual, belief systems, altered states of consciousness, new religious and/or new age movements and the relationship of religion with other social institutions and processes.

This course will incorporate a multidisciplinary approach to the social study of religion and society specifically focusing on contemporary sociological and anthropological approaches to the study of religion. Through this course, students will learn about the ways in which religion interacts with and clashes with modernity by exploring how religion influences and is influenced by various societal institutions. Students will also develop relevant research and writing skills through the course assignments, examinations and participation requirements.

Required Textbook and Readings:
All Required Readings will be posted on WebCt. It is your responsibility to download, print and prepare for class accordingly. Please bring copies of your readings to class.

Participation:
Your participation marks are distributed between attendance and in class participation evaluated through written reflections given in class throughout the semester. 5% of your participation grade comes directly from attending class. The additional 10% is allocated to the satisfactory completion of in class writing reflections, which will be related to required readings, lectures or various discussion questions.

Research Assignment: Your research assignment is due Tuesday, June 2nd, 2009. This assignment will help you improve your research and writing skills by developing a miniature literature review regarding religion and a contemporary social issue. The assignment will be handed out on Thursday, May 14th in class. Students will receive relevant instruction on library research techniques through a library workshop and additional lab time with the course instructor.

Midterm Examination: Your midterm examination will be held on Thursday, June 11th, 2009. The midterm will cover material (lectures, required readings and videos) up to and including Tuesday, June 9th.

Final Examination: Your final examination will be a take home exam. According to the Academic Regulations of Carleton University, this exam will be assigned to you on the last day of class (Thursday, June 25th, 2009) and will be due the last day of the official exam period (Saturday, July 4th, 2009) to the drop box in the main office of the Sociology and Anthropology Department (7th Floor Loeb Building). No extensions will be granted, as per university regulations.

Extensions:
Extensions will only be granted in exceptional circumstances where supporting documentation will be required. Otherwise, standard late penalties (5% per day late) will apply. No extensions will be granted for the final examination.
In accordance with the Carleton University Undergraduate Calendar (p 45), the letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

Academic Regulations, Accommodations, Plagiarism, Etc.

University rules regarding registration, withdrawal, appealing marks, and most anything else you might need to know can be found on the university’s website, here: http://www.carleton.ca/cu0708uc/regulations/acadregsuniv.html

Requests for Academic Accommodations

For Students with Disabilities:
Students with disabilities needing academic accommodations are required to contact a coordinator at the Paul Menton Centre to complete the necessary letters of accommodation. The student must then make an appointment to discuss their needs with the instructor at least two weeks prior to the first class or ITV test. This is to ensure sufficient time is available to make the necessary accommodation arrangements.
- The deadlines for contacting the Paul Menton Centre regarding accommodation for final exams for early summer courses is June 12 2009 for all full & late summer courses the deadline is July 31 2009.

For Religious Obligations:
Students requesting academic accommodation on the basis of religious obligation should make a formal, written request to their instructors for alternate dates and/or means of satisfying academic requirements. Such requests should be made during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist, but no later than two weeks before the compulsory event.
Accommodation is to be worked out directly and on an individual basis between the student and the instructor(s) involved. Instructors will make accommodations in a way that avoids academic disadvantage to the student.
Students or instructors who have questions or want to confirm accommodation eligibility of a religious event or practice may refer to the Equity Services website for a list of holy days and Carleton's Academic Accommodation policies, or may contact an Equity Services Advisor in the Equity Services Department for assistance.

For Pregnancy:
Pregnant students requiring academic accommodations are encouraged to contact an Equity Advisor in Equity Services to complete a letter of accommodation. The student must then make an appointment to discuss her needs with the instructor at least two weeks prior to the first academic event in which it is anticipated the accommodation will be required.

Plagiarism
Plagiarism is the passing off of someone else's work as your own and is a serious academic offence. For the details of what constitutes plagiarism, the potential penalties and the procedures refer to the section on Instructional Offences in the Undergraduate Calendar.

What are the Penalties for Plagiarism?
A student found to have plagiarized an assignment may be subject to one of several penalties including: expulsion; suspension from all studies at Carleton; suspension from full-time studies; and/or a reprimand; a refusal of permission to continue or to register in a specific degree program; academic probation; award of an FNS, Fail, or an ABS.

What are the Procedures?
All allegations of plagiarism are reported to the faculty of Dean of FASS and Management. Documentation is prepared by instructors and/or departmental chairs.

The Dean writes to the student and the University Ombudsperson about the alleged plagiarism.

The Dean reviews the allegation. If it is not resolved at this level then it is referred to a tribunal appointed by the Senate.
