Anti-requisite: precludes additional credit for RELI 3306 (if taken summer 2005, 2006, or 2007).
Prerequisite: second-year standing or permission of the unit.

Topic for fall 2010: This course will focus on the three cultures that arose in Greece during the Bronze Age. Emphasis will be placed on archaeological discoveries as evidence for the earliest history of the Aegean area, and as background to later Greek culture, but written records will also be addressed. We will discuss architecture, pottery, painting, jewellery and other minor arts.

Text: Donald Preziosi and Louise Hitchcock, Aegean Art and Architecture (Oxford: 1999).

Requirements:

Essay Lecture (Oct. 5).....	minus 5% penalty if not present
Midterm Test (entire class Oct. 21).....	20%
Research Bibliography (due in class Nov. 4).....	20%
Research Essay (due in class Nov. 25).....	35%
Final Exam (2 hours, exam period Dec. 2010).....	25%

The final date for voluntary withdrawal without academic penalty is December 6, 2010.

Tests: The midterm test and final exam will include various types of questions but will certainly include slide identification and essay questions. There will be no aids allowed during tests and exams. Make-up tests will only be given for valid medical reasons. The instructor must be informed of such cases immediately and appropriate documentation must be produced. Make-up tests are normally scheduled within one week of the original test and at the professor's convenience. Students will be expected to produce their Carleton Student ID card at the final exam.

Research Bibliography and Essay: Students may develop their own essay topic IN CONSULTATION WITH THE PROFESSOR. All topics must be approved in preliminary form by the professor by October 14, 2010. Students are encouraged to meet with the professor for help developing an appropriate topic. I do not accept or grade essays on topics that have not been approved.

Your research bibliography and essay must be submitted in hard copy. I do not accept electronic submissions. These requirements are due by the end of their respective classes. If they are not in my hands by the time I leave the classroom on those dates, they will be considered late and a penalty will be assessed (see below). That includes if you have dropped them off in ANY departmental drop box, or given them to an Administrative Assistant.

Late policy: The penalty for late submission will be 10% subtracted from the grade for each working day late (ie. 1 day = minus 10%; 2 days = minus 20%; 3 days = minus 30%; 4 days = minus 40%; 5 days = minus 50%). After five days, the late work will receive a mark of zero.

Academic offences: All students are expected to know what constitutes an academic offence, to avoid committing academic offences, and to take responsibility for their academic actions. When the commission of an offence (such as plagiarism, cheating, improper research, obstructing academic activity, double submission, unauthorized cooperation / collaboration, impersonation, falsification etc.) is established, disciplinary penalties will be imposed in accordance with the regulations of the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences.

The minimum penalty assigned to any requirement in this course that is affected by an academic offence will be a mark of zero for the relevant work.

Information about academic offences and student discipline can be found in the university calendar under Student Conduct (Section 14.0 Academic Integrity). If you need help in learning how to avoid academic offences or clarification of aspects of the discipline policy, ask me!

PLEASE NOTE: This course will be supported by the WebCT Course Management System. ALL marks in this course will be released ONLY through WebCT. All email correspondence with the professor should be carried out through the WebCT email system or using ONLY your carleton.ca email account. I will NOT reply to emails from other private email addresses. Students will be fully responsible for reading and responding appropriately to all information distributed to students through WebCT. Information provided on WebCT will be considered to have been provided to all registered students within 24 hours of posting.

REGULATIONS COMMON TO ALL HUMANITIES COURSES

COPIES OF WRITTEN WORK SUBMITTED

Always retain for yourself a copy of all essays, term papers, written assignments or take-home tests submitted in your courses.

PLAGIARISM

The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in “substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.”

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean.

REQUESTS FOR ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term because of disability, pregnancy or religious obligations. Please review the course outline promptly and write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. You can visit the Equity Services website to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation at: carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/

Students with disabilities requiring academic accommodations in this course must register with the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) for a formal evaluation of disability-related needs. Documented disabilities could include but not limited to mobility/physical impairments, specific Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/psychological disabilities, sensory disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), and chronic medical conditions. Registered PMC students are required to contact the PMC, 613-520-6608, every term to ensure that your Instructor receives your Letter of Accommodation, no later than two weeks before the first assignment is due or the first in-class test/midterm requiring accommodations. If you only require accommodations for your formally scheduled exam(s) in this course, please submit your request for accommodations to PMC by the last official day to withdraw from classes in each term. For more details visit the PMC website: carleton.ca/pmc/accommodations/

PETITIONS TO DEFER

If you miss a final examination and/or fail to submit a FINAL assignment by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control, you may apply a deferral of examination/assignment. If you are applying for a deferral due to illness you will be required to see a physician in order to confirm illness and obtain a medical certificate dated no later than one working day after the examination or assignment deadline. This supporting documentation must specify the date of onset of the illness, the degree of incapacitation, and the expected date of recovery.

If you are applying for a deferral for reasons other than personal illness, please contact the Registrar’s Office directly for information on other forms of documentation that we accept.

Deferrals of assignments must be supported by confirmation of the assignment due date, for example a copy of the course outline specifying the due date and any documented extensions from the course instructor.

Deferral applications for examination or assignments must be submitted within 5 working days of the original final exam.
