Course Objective

This course presumes no previous knowledge about Judaism, Christianity, or Islam, but it does presuppose a burning curiosity and a high motivation to learn about these three major religions, and an openness to learn in a non-judgmental way about how different people live their lives religiously. We will focus on the historical development, the beliefs, and the practices of each religion. Our approach will never be confessional, but historical and critical and above all respectful. You should never feel pressured to change your religious perspective, nor should you pressure each other to do so.

Learning Objectives

By the end of the course, students should:
• know the basic facts about the religions covered in the course, namely their histories and the vocabulary pertaining to their beliefs and practices;
• understand the academic study of religion;
• be able to think critically about religion as a human phenomenon.

Course Evaluation

Course Intro Quiz – 10% (Noon May 3- Noon May 4)
Midterm Exam – 25% (covering History material only; May 18, in class).
Living Religion Assignment – 25% (2 pages; due 11:55pm June 1; details below)
Final Exam – 40% (during exam schedule; details below).

Note: Don’t plagiarize any part of your paper, not even one wee sentence. Oh, and don’t cheat on the exams, not even on one tough little question. Okay? Thanks.

Email Communication

- Carleton’s Connect Mail is the official mode of email communication for all matters having to do with the university and with this course. All communications sent by Connect are official, and you are expected to get them. It is not an option to claim you did not get some announcement or request because you have another email address. You can configure your connect account to forward university emails to another address, but you must be reachable through your Connect account. Also, any communication between you and me involving your personal information (like grades) must originate from a Connect account (FIPPA).

Course Intro Quiz (May 3-4, 10%)

- From noon on May 3 until noon on May 4, an on-line quiz is available through cuLearn
- This quiz covers the first lecture and the syllabus. Yes, it’s that easy!

Midterm Exam (May 18, in class – no lecture that day; worth 25% of the final mark)

- Exam: 6:10-7:40 pm
- No student is allowed to start the exam after the first person has left the room. Please don’t be late or you could lose the right to do the exam
- 80 multiple choice questions
- Written on scantron sheets
- Covering only the material on History

Living Religion Assignment (Due 11:55pm June 1; 25% of final mark)

- 2 pages (double-spaced, standard font and margins, and absolutely no longer than 2 pages)
- Choose ONLY ONE religion on which to do the assignment. Do not do more than one assignment, and do not combine religions.
- In this assignment, you will live as a Jew, a Christian, or a Muslim. You are not required to change your beliefs, nor to pretend you believe something you don’t. This is an exercise of orthopraxy – to learn how religious people live, not what or how they believe.

- Judaism: Living an Orthodox Sabbath
  - Choose any sundown Friday – sundown Saturday before the due date
  - Things you should try NOT to do:
    - not turn a light, but you can leave certain lights on (choose carefully), or use candles (with caution!)
    - no tearing toilet paper (torn in advance)
    - no cooking food (but if you have a crock pot with food in it you can leave it on, but don’t burn your house down!)
    - no driving
    - no doing dishes, house cleaning, or other chores
    - no buying anything (you cannot use money at all)
    - no listening to radio, no TV, no use of computer, iPod, telephone, cell phone no riding bikes or other recreational activities you can sing, but can’t play a musical instrument no homework, but non-work reading is okay (as long as you don’t take notes or write)

- Things you should try to do:
  - whatever you eat, try to eat in a conservative kosher manner, avoiding the obvious things (pork, shellfish, mixing milk and meat in the same meal, bugs, and food sacrificed to idols), but you do not have to ensure the rest of your food is kosher or worry about using two sets of dishes for milk and meat.
  - eat Sabbath supper with family and friends (both if possible)
  - sit, talk, laugh, celebrate, spend “quality” time with your significant other
  - On Saturday, eat whenever you normally would (this is not a fast), visit with friends who live within walking distance, go to a park, go for a short walk, socialise, nap, read a book, relax, reflect, meditate, think about the world, think about the environment and your effect on it.
  - Say good bye to the Sabbath at sundown

- Reflection Questions: In your reflection
  - consider how you found Sabbath observance: freeing? a burden?
  - consider what it was like to limit consumption. How much do we take for granted in our world? How much do we consume (energy, food) in a day? Do we really need everything we consume?

- Christianity: Living the Sermon on the Mount for Three days
  - Choose any three consecutive days before the due date
  - Ways to live according the sermon on the mount (somewhat tongue-in-cheek):
    - Avoid the appearance of wealth and power (Matt 5:5)
    - Be just and merciful in all things (5:6-7)
    - Think pure thoughts (5:8)
    - Actively find ways to foster peace (5:9)
    - DON’T try to get beat up (Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you)
    - Do not be angry with or insult others in any way (5:22-24)
    - If you have wronged someone recently, set things right (5:25-26)
    - Do not look at another person with lust (5:27)
    - DON’T blind or maim yourself (5:29-30)
    - Do not break up with anyone in this time (5:31-32)
    - Turn the other cheek, if anything is asked of you, give it, give to everyone who begs from you (5:39-42; 6:2)
    - Love your enemies (5:44-48)
    - Avoid worrying about things you cannot control (5:25-34)
- Don’t judge others (7:1)
- Don’t be hypocritical (7:2-5)
- Treat others as you would like to be treated (7:12)

Reflection Questions:
- Christians often seek to do what Jesus would do. Taking the Sermon on the Mount as an example of what Jesus would do, what do you think?
- Was the Sermon on the Mount intended to be a practical guide to daily living for regular people, or do you think it set up an impossible ideal?

Islam: Three Day Ramadan
- Choose any three consecutive days before the due date
- Fast starts at sundown on day 1, and ends at sundown three days later.
- On each of the three evenings prior to a day of fasting, you should state out loud, to yourself or to others, that you are fasting (and not for instance accidentally missing meals).
- If you want to eat on the morning of a fast, eating must be completed before sunrise. You can also eat as soon as the sun sets. It is universally acknowledged that eating small meals at sunset and sundown (and not pigging out) will make the fast easier. Likewise, eating good foods (proteins, nuts, dried fruit) will make things easier (as opposed to potato chips and ice cream).
- Remember the fast is complete: no food in any form (which includes gum and candies as well as food you “eat”), no drink in any form, not even brushing your teeth, since it is impossible not to swallow tooth paste or the water you rinse your mouth out with.
- Ramadan is a time not only of fasting, but of purity.
- Between sunrise and sunset in your fast you should avoid all sensual pleasures: not just food and drink (in all forms), but smoking, sexual thoughts, sex, anger, jealousy.
- In keeping with Islam, when you do eat, avoid pork and any form of alcohol.
- Reflection Questions:
  - You likely fasted alone for this exercise. How much different would it be to fast as a member of a community? You also fasted in Canada. How much different would it be to fast in a majority-Muslim community?
  - What sort of role do you think fasting plays in spirituality or religion?

Instructions for written assignments

- NOTE: You MUST choose an assignment in a different religion from your own. If you were raised in a Christian, Jewish, or Muslim household, you cannot do an assignment in your own tradition, even if you claim to be agnostic or no longer practicing. Be prepared to explain your decision if I question it.

- Assignments must be 2 pages, written into the template provided on cuLearn. They may not be longer than 2 pages. Can it be shorter? Of course! I won’t penalize short papers because they usually penalize themselves by being short. They must be double-spaced, 12 point font, with standard 1 inch margins. The manipulation of these things in order to make a longer paper appear shorter is unacceptable. Efficiency of language and focus on a task are required for working within assigned page- or word-limitations.

- Proof-read your work several times before handing it in, or ask someone whose writing skills are strong to do it. Needless and countless errors of spelling, grammar, and syntax are a serious impediment to effective writing and communication, and these will affect your grade. Take a low grade on this assignment seriously, as the expectations of writing quality and clarity in university become greater and greater each year. Yes, even for Engineering students!

- A paper that is any amount longer than 2 pages will face a 10% length-penalty. Papers that appear to have shown no regard at all for the directions provided here (by page limits, appearance, or content) may be returned ungraded for resubmission (and late penalties will accrue from the due date, regardless of when the problem is discovered). Therefore, read the directions carefully and follow them.

Instructions for Assignment Submission

- All papers must be submitted through cuLearn, whether on time or late. Papers received by 11:55pm June 1 (or before) will be considered on-time. Any papers submitted after 11:55pm June 1 (even by a few minutes) will be given a penalty of 2% per day. I will use the time provided by cuLearn to assess late-penalties.

- Retroactive extensions will be not granted, except according to the rules of the university: personal and family emergencies (for which documentation must be provided). Extensions will not be granted because of essay or exam conflicts, busy schedules, jobs, life, internet cat-videos, etc.

- Papers MUST be submitted as .doc, .docx, or .rtf. You may not submit in other formats (e.g., .pdf, .pages). Papers submitted in an incorrect format will be rejected (because we can’t open the file), and then considered late.

- Retain Copies of Work Submitted: It is crucial that you retain an electronic copy of all assignments/take home tests submitted in every course. Also remember to do a computer/disk back-up.

Final Exam (During final exam period; 40% of final mark)

- The final exam will be a multiple-choice exam written on scantron sheets
- The final exam will cover material from the WHOLE course (including history)
- 120 questions; 2 hour exam
• Do not make travel arrangements until the final exam schedule has been released.
• The final exam will be drawn from the textbook and the lectures equally. The date, time, and place of the exam are selected by the university, not by me. Watch for information as it becomes available on http://www2.carleton.ca/exams/
REGULATIONS COMMON TO ALL HUMANITIES COURSES

COPIES OF WRITTEN WORK SUBMITTED
Always retain for yourself a copy of all essays, term papers, written assignments or take-home tests submitted in your courses.

PLAGIARISM
The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:
- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in “substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.”

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences will conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course.
