

Course Description
RELI 1712 – Religions of South and East Asia with Jessica Ford

This course is a survey of the major religious traditions that emerged in South and East Asia, including Hinduism, Jainism, Buddhism, Sikhism (collectively known as the Dharma traditions), Daoism, Confucianism, and Shinto. We will explore the history, beliefs, rituals, practices, and conceptualizations of the divine/sacred of each religious tradition individually. However, as our exploration progresses we will also examine some ideas and concepts that may be shared amongst some or all of these traditions