Course Description
This course surveys religion in China, Japan, and Korea in a range of ancient traditions and contemporary movements including Ancestor Worship, Confucianism, Daoism, Shamanism, Zen Buddhism, Pure Land Buddhism, Christianity, Feminism, and New Religions.

Course Goals
Students will become familiar with historical and contemporary East Asian religious traditions, apply that knowledge in order to interpret the meaning of key texts in those traditions, and relate what they have learned to current issues.

Course Assessment
*Students will require content from both the required readings and the course lectures in order to do well in this course.

a) Textbook Reading Responses (10%)
There are three textbook reading responses in total. For each one, choose one of the two possible questions in the course schedule, and write a thoughtful and detailed response of about 250 words. The final mark will be based on your strongest two submissions.
*submit via CULearn

b) Group Presentations (15%)
Present your collective interpretation of a selected passage from the assigned primary source reading to the class. Groups will be assigned in-class. Passages and groups are accessible via CULearn.
*each student presents in one group, one time, and presentations will take place in class

c) Unit 1 Test (15%)
Three parts:
i) answer multiple choice questions about Chinese history, ii) give definitions of key terms for understanding Chinese religions, and iii) analyze passages from Confucius’ Analects and Zhuangzi’s Basic Writings.
*write during regular class hours
d) Unit 2 Paper (30%)
Respond to a question about Dōgen’s Bendōwa and Shinran’s Tannishō in a 1000 word essay. The question will be explained in-class and posted along with a marking rubric on the course website. There will be a peer editing exchange with your fellow classmates held in class.
submit via CU Learn

e) Final Exam (30%)
Four parts:
i) answer multiple choice questions about the history of Korean religions, ii) give definitions of key terms for understanding Korean religions, iii) analyze passages from Yun Sung-Bum and Kim Iryŏp, and iv) write a short essay in response to a question about Korean religions.
write during the formal exam period: date, time, and location TBD

Instructor’s Policies

(1) Attendance. Attendance is strictly the responsibility of the student and will not be monitored. There will be content and activities necessary to do well in this course that will be a regular part of class time and will not be available on-line. Therefore, regular and engaged attendance will have a positive impact on students’ marks.

(2) Lateness. Textbook Reading Responses will be reduced at a rate of one point out of five per hour past the 2:30 p.m. deadline and cannot be accepted at all after the beginning of class. The final grade of late Unit 2 Papers will be reduced at a rate of one grade point (e.g. A to A-, A- to B+, and so on) per 24-hour period beginning at 11:59 p.m. of the due date. If there are extraordinary circumstances which a student expects may have an impact on timely submission, then the instructor must be informed at least 48 hours before the due date in order for any extension of the deadline to be considered. In cases where the student informs the instructor less than 48 hours before a deadline, documented proof of emergency circumstances will be required.

(3) Appeals. If a student judges any of her or his mark on an assignment or test to be unfair, then appeals must be made within two weeks after the distribution of the mark and (unless it is regarding a simple mistake in calculation) the appeal must include a paragraph written by the student to explain why a better mark is justified.

(4) E-mail. The instructor will respond to student e-mails within 48 hours. If you do not receive a response within that time frame, then there is the strong possibility of a technical error, so re-send the e-mail, call the office phone number provided above, or speak to the instructor in person as befits the urgency of the question.

Note that the student discussion form on CULearn is an excellent place to air questions and concerns.
REGULATIONS COMMON TO ALL HUMANITIES COURSES

COPIES OF WRITTEN WORK SUBMITTED
Always retain for yourself a copy of all essays, term papers, written assignments or take-home tests submitted in your courses.

PLAGIARISM
The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in “substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.”

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course.

GRADING SYSTEM
Letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

- A+ = 90-100 (12)
- A = 85-89 (11)
- A- = 80-84 (10)
- B+ = 77-79 (9)
- B = 73-76 (8)
- B- = 70-72 (7)
- C+ = 67-69 (6)
- C = 63-66 (5)
- D+ = 57-59 (3)
- D = 53-56 (2)
- D- = 50-52 (1)
- F = Failure. Assigned 0.0 grade points

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean.

WITHDRAWAL WITHOUT ACADEMIC PENALTY
The last date to withdraw from FALL TERM courses is DEC. 7, 2015. The last day to withdraw from FALL/WINTER (Full Term) and WINTER term courses is APRIL 8, 2016.

REQUESTS FOR ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION
You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term because of disability, pregnancy or religious obligations. Please review the course outline promptly and write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. You can visit the Equity Services website to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation at: carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/

Students with disabilities requiring academic accommodations in this course must register with the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) for a formal evaluation of disability-related needs. Documented disabilities could include but not limited to mobility/physical impairments, specific Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/psychological disabilities, sensory disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), and chronic medical conditions. Registered PMC students are required to contact the PMC, 613-520-6608, every term to ensure that your Instructor receives your Letter of Accommodation, no later than two weeks before the first assignment is due or the first in-class test/midterm requiring accommodations. If you only require accommodations for your formally scheduled exam(s) in this course, please submit your request for accommodations to PMC by Nov. 6, 2015 for the Fall term and March 6, 2016 for the Winter term. For more details visit the Equity Services website: carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/

PETITIONS TO DEFER
If you miss a final examination and/or fail to submit a FINAL assignment by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control, you may apply a deferral of examination/assignment.

If you are applying for a deferral due to illness you will be required to see a physician in order to confirm illness and obtain a medical certificate dated no later than one working day after the examination or assignment deadline. This supporting documentation must specify the date of onset of the illness, the degree of incapacitation, and the expected date of recovery.

If you are applying for a deferral for reasons other than personal illness, please contact the Registrar’s Office directly for information on other forms of documentation that we accept.

Deferrals of a final assignment or take home, in courses without a final examination, must be supported by confirmation of the assignment due date, for example a copy of the course outline specifying the due date and any documented extensions from the course instructor.

Deferral applications for examination or assignments must be submitted within 5 working days of the original final exam.
