Description: This 2000 level course explores Judaism as a lived religious tradition, practiced by men and women, that takes place in diverse communities across Canada and around the world. We begin with the premise that Judaism is defined by the teachings, beliefs and practices that form the core of Jewish communal life. From this point of view, Judaism is both historical and evolving; rooted in tradition, responding to changing contexts, looking towards its own future. Practiced by Jews in community all around the world, Judaism is a dynamic and richly diverse tradition that includes a range of teachings and practices. This diversity can be a challenge for students who are at the early stages of studying Judaism. One way into this problem is to begin where Jewish communities begin in defining their own identity: Jews understand themselves as standing in relationship to, and in continuity with, a historical past. With historical primary source texts as our entry point we will explore the teachings, traditions, practices and formative experiences of the Jewish people. To this end, films will be also be shown and several guest speakers from the local and national Jewish community will be invited into the class throughout the semester to illustrate the diversity of Judaism in Canada and around the world.

Required Texts: Required readings prepare you for class lectures and discussions. Always read the required text prior to class meeting.
- Eliezer Segal, Introducing Judaism (available at bookstore)
- Additional readings online and linked through CULearn

Recommended for students continuing in courses in Jewish Studies: JPS translation of Tanakh (Hebrew Bible) (available at bookstore) or bring your own copy of another translation to class. We will frequently be looking at biblical texts to discuss in class.

Midterm and Final Exams are 2/3 lecture based, 1/3 textbook based. Regular attendance is key to succeeding in this course.

Course Requirements
- 10% Attendance & Participation
- 35% In-class Midterm
- 20% Living Judaism Assignment
- 35% Exam during exam period

NOTE: Any student who misses more than 10 scheduled class meetings without valid and documented reasons for these absences is not eligible to pass the course.

Students who miss a class for religious reasons MUST email the professor or TA in advance to have the absence excused.
Course Goals: At the end of this course the student will:

- Be familiar with key concepts necessary for the academic study of religion in general and Judaism in particular.
- Have a broad general knowledge and understanding of the history, teachings, and practices of Judaism.
- Be familiar with the rich textual traditions of rabbinic Judaism focusing on its role in contemporary Jewish life.
- Gain an appreciation for diversity within the Jewish tradition.
- Be able to understand Jewish beliefs and practices in relation to their historical and communal contexts.
- Develop critical reading, writing and thinking skills.

Students are encouraged to keep track of all grades until the final grade is posted. If you see an error, email the TA or Professor Butler. Note that participation and online grades will not be finalized until shortly before the grades are submitted (10 days after the final exam).

| Dec 9  | Conclusions and Final Exam Review | Fall term ends. Last day of fall-term classes. Last day for academic withdrawal from fall term courses. Last day for handing in term work and the last day that can be specified by a course instructor as a due date for term work for fall term courses. |
Things you need to know: 2000 Level Lecture

Attendance, Participation & Passing this course: Your learning depends not only on successfully completing course assignments and exams but also in actively participating in the classroom where essential learning takes place. If you have not attended this class, you cannot be said to have taken the class. Any student who misses more than 10 of the scheduled class meetings without valid and documented reasons for these absences will not pass the course.

Participation: Learning Support Services Workshops: Earn a maximum of 5 participation points by attending 3 workshops or 2 marks per workshop. You must sign in at the workshop to receive credit.

Learning Support Services’ (LSS) mission is to educate Carleton students of the skills and strategies needed to be independent and active learners, and to achieve academic success. LSS programs and services promote learning and development in students by helping them strengthen academic skills and by teaching students the strategies necessary for achieving their goals.

Your course has been registered in the Incentive Program offered through LSS. By attending study skills workshops in LSS, it is our hope that you are developing and expanding on your current academic skill set. There are over 20 different workshops to choose from. ELIGIBLE Topics include:

Absent from in-class exam / medical deferral for final exam:

In the case of a missed in-class exam, you must explain why you need accommodation (email is fine or speak to me during office hours) as soon as possible, provide the documentation required by university regulations, and book an alternate date with the TA. In either a missed class exam or a deferral of the final exam, the replacement exam may not take the same format as the original. In most cases a missed exam is replaced with a 100% essay exam.

Contact me: The best way to reach me is through email or office hours. Should you email or come see me? Short questions that can be answered quickly can always be asked in email. But if your question requires more than a quick response you’d be better off coming to see me in person. I am happy to make appointments outside of office hours. Please email me to make an appointment. Although I usually check email daily, I may not do so on weekends and it may take 2-3 days during busy periods. Please put your full name and course number in the subject heading. ALWAYS EMAIL ME DIRECTLY AT deidre.butler@carleton.ca.

Late policy: The late policy of this class is designed to be fair to students who handed their work in on time. Late assignments will be penalized at the rate of 10% per day (weekends included) until 100% has been reached. Extensions will only be granted for documented medical or family emergencies. Please note that late work will be graded as my schedule allows.
Rough drafts: I am happy to review and comment on rough drafts that are submitted by email a minimum of 7 days before an assignment is due. I will return it to you with comments. In order to receive credit for the effort of doing a rough draft, always submit the rough draft (print if necessary) with my comments.

Sources: Assignments specify what types of sources are appropriate and expected for a given task. These guidelines are aimed at detecting plagiarism, preventing students from exclusively relying on faulty and/or suspect Internet research, and promoting the use of the range of types of scholarly sources that are standard for university level research. Any assignment which does not use the required sources does not meet the requirements of the assignment and will receive a failing grade.

Plagiarism:

Learn About plagiarism: It is the responsibility of every student to know what constitutes plagiarism and avoid it. There is a great deal of information about what plagiarism is and how to avoid it on the Carleton University Library web site and class Web CT.

Check for plagiarism in your own work: Re-read all written assignments to ensure that they include proper citations for quotes and paraphrases and do not too closely paraphrase the original text when you put material in your own words. See the web site for links to online guides about paraphrasing. You may always contact me and ask my opinion about your work. It is always safer to have an extra citation that perhaps is not absolutely necessary than to be missing one. When in doubt, cite. Failure to cite sources is a form of plagiarism. Please see the University regulations below.

Style: The Religion program uses the Chicago Manual of Style as its standard style. Use it for all citations. I also strongly recommend using RefWorks for your citations. See the Library web site for information on both.

http://www.library.carleton.ca/services/refworks

List of Works Cited: Always include a list of works cited at the end of the assignment.

Things I need to know: (Contact me by email or come speak with me)

- You don’t understand what is expected of you.
- English is not your first language.
- You have a learning disability.
- You are doing poorly in the course and want to improve.
- You don’t understand the material.
- You have a problem that is making you do poorly in the course.
- If you are going to ask for a deferral for this course from the Registrar.

How to cite Scripture / Rabbinic Sources: There are standard abbreviations for each book in the Hebrew Bible or the Talmud, check online if in doubt. Cite the edition you are using in the List of Works Cited at the end of your assignment. To cite Hebrew Bible, use the following format: Book Chapter:Verse (Gen. 23:13-16 for Genesis Chapter 23 verse 13 to 16). To cite Talmud, if it is from the Babylonian Talmud (the most commonly cited, also referred to as Bavli), use the following format: BT Book folio page (BT San. 64a-b for Babylonian Talmud Sanhedrin folio 64a and b). If you need help citing, ask the Librarian, TA or professor of this course.

WHAT’S THE BEST WAY TO SUCCEED IN THIS CLASS (OR ANY OTHER)?

Attendance: Your high school teachers may have told you “no one will be making you go to class when you go to university!” but that’s only part of the story. Students who have excellent attendance do much better than students who miss a class here and there. You are expected to attend each and every class, the same way you are expected to be present for every shift at a job. You are rewarded twice for every class you attend: First by being there and learning, exploring and reinforcing the content for that day so that you will succeed in assignments and exams. Second, through participation and attendance marks. Make getting to class each and every day a priority.

Speak to your professor: Your first instinct might be to be anonymous, but you really do want your professor to learn your name. Whether you are doing well and want to do better, or are having a personal or academic problem and things seem to be spinning out of control; your best course of action is to open the lines of communication. Speak to your professor (and/or TA in large classes) during office hours or make an appointment.

Learn to think like a professor: What does a professor want from you? If the course outline has objectives, look them over. Most professors don’t want you to just memorize material, they want you to gain knowledge, improve your skills, and think critically about the material. Why did your professor want you to learn this? Why does this matter? How does it connect to other things I am learning? What fact or step in the argument is missing? Whether you are reading a text, listening to a lecture, studying for an exam or writing an essay always ask “So what? Why does this matter?”

PREPARE the readings before you come to class: Professors assign readings for a reason. When you prepare the reading in advance, the class discussion and/or lecture and your reading work together. You can ask effective questions, trace relationships between the material and begin to think critically about the issues raised. Keeping up with readings also makes it easier to complete assignments and study for exams effectively. Students who only read the material for the assignment or exam often feel lost and tend to memorize what they read without actually understanding it. Worse, they might never get through the readings because they got too far behind. Notice, you should not just read the readings but prepare them. What does it mean to prepare a reading? Test your own preparedness for class by being able to answer the following before coming to class

1. What TYPE of text is it? Primary or Secondary source? Textbook, encyclopaedia entry, scholarly article, popular, web site, news article, fiction, memoir?
2. What is the TOPIC of the reading? This can be answered broadly: “The topic of the reading is homosexuality in Judaism” A scriptural passage might be “laws concerning sexuality” or “love poetry”, a textbook chapter might be “overview of history of menstruation laws” or “summary of wedding rituals.”
3. OVERVIEW OR CENTRAL ARGUMENT: For texts that do not include analysis or arguments (i.e. an encyclopaedia article) be able to SUMMARIZE the content. Be able to quickly summarize the main issues raised by the text OR be able to identify the three most important points. For scholarly readings (and opinion pieces) that do include argument and analysis be able to answer: What is the CENTRAL ARGUMENT? Most academic articles you will read in university are secondary sources that analyse or interpret primary sources (scripture, historical documents, laws, philosophic arguments, scientific data etc)
4. EVALUATE the argument / analysis. Saying that an article is easy to read or that you like the writing style or topic is not a critical response. Critically responding to the text asks more significant questions: Is the text accurate, well argued, biased? Why? Is there something you find particularly interesting or insightful? Is there a weakness? What connections can you make to other material? Why is this important? Be ready to argue your case with specific examples.
REGULATIONS COMMON TO ALL HUMANITIES COURSES

COPIES OF WRITTEN WORK SUBMITTED
Always retain for yourself a copy of all essays, term papers, written assignments or take-home tests submitted in your courses.

PLAGIARISM
The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

• reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
• submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
• using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
• using another’s data or research findings;
• failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper quotation marks;
• handing in “substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.”

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course.

REQUESTS FOR ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION
You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term because of disability, pregnancy or religious obligations. Please review the course outline promptly and write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. You can visit the Equity Services website to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation at: carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/

Students with disabilities requiring academic accommodations in this course must register with the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) for a formal evaluation of disability-related needs. Documented disabilities could include but not limited to mobility/physical impairments, specific Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/psychological disabilities, sensory disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), and chronic medical conditions. Registered PMC students are required to contact the PMC, 613-520-6608, every term to ensure that your Instructor receives your Letter of Accommodation, no later than two weeks before the first assignment is due or the first in-class test/midterm requiring accommodations. If you only require accommodations for your formally scheduled exam(s) in this course, please submit your request for accommodations to PMC by Nov, 8, 2013 for the Fall term and March 7, 2014 for the Winter term. For more details visit the Equity Services website: carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/

PETITIONS TO DEFER
If you miss a final examination and/or fail to submit a FINAL assignment by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control, you may apply a deferral of examination/assignment. If you are applying for a deferral due to illness you will be required to see a physician in order to confirm illness and obtain a medical certificate dated no later than one working day after the examination or assignment deadline. This supporting documentation must specify the date of onset of the illness, the degree of incapacitation, and the expected date of recovery.

If you are applying for a deferral for reasons other than personal illness, please contact the Registrar’s Office directly for information on other forms of documentation that we accept. Deferrals of assignments must be supported by confirmation of the assignment due date, for example a copy of the course outline specifying the due date and any documented extensions from the course instructor.

Deferral applications for examination or assignments must be submitted within 5 working days of the original final exam.
