This 2000 level course presents the teachings, beliefs, practices and institutions that are central to Jewish communal life. Attention will be paid to key historical events, the evolution of religious communal institutions, and developments in Jewish thought, especially as these contributed to the creation of a dynamic and richly diverse tradition that includes a range of teachings and practices. Students will be introduced to historical primary source texts: these will be the basis for exploring the formative experiences of the Jewish people. Films will be also be shown, and there will be several guest speakers invited into the class throughout the semester to illustrate the diversity of Jewish life in Canada.

REQUIRED TEXTS:
Required readings prepare you for class lectures and discussions. Always read the required text prior to class meeting.
- Additional readings online and linked through CULearn

RECOMMENDED FOR STUDENTS
continuing in courses in Jewish Studies:
JPS translation of Tanakh (Hebrew Bible, available at bookstore) or bring your own copy of another translation to class. We will be looking at biblical texts to discuss in class.

REQUIREMENTS
10% Class Attendance and Participation
30% Assigned Tasks* (3)
25% Engaging with Jewish Life Assignment
35% Final Take-Home Exam

NOTE:
Any student who misses more than 10 scheduled class meetings without valid and documented reasons for these absences is not eligible to pass the course.

Students who miss a class for religious reasons MUST email the professor in advance.

COURSE GOALS: At the end of this course the student will
- Be conversant with the beliefs, practices and history of Judaism.
- Be familiar with the rich textual traditions of rabbinic Judaism and its role in contemporary Jewish life.
- Gain an appreciation for diversity within the Jewish tradition.
- Be able to identify and distinguish the contemporary varieties of Jewish belief and practice in Canada, North America and around the world.
- Develop critical reading, writing and thinking skills.
Students are encouraged to keep track of all grades until the final grade is posted. If you see an error, email the Professor Landau-Chark. Note that participation and online grades will not be finalized until shortly before the grades are submitted.

CLASS ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION:
Participation and attendance are required. Absence from class lowers discussion grade; if you are not in class, you obviously cannot participate. Excellent participation and attendance can raise your grade. Poor attendance or participation can lower your grade. Students shy about participating in class discussions should speak with the professor on this issue so that alternate ways may be advised for your participation.

Lectures will not repeat the contents of the textbook. Rather, they will provide opportunities to discuss the assigned readings, to focus on specific issues, and to supplement the information contained in the textbooks. Students will be assumed to have prepared the assigned readings for each class session.

| Attendance and Participation    | 10%   | Ongoing | Participation points may be earned in 3 different ways up to a maximum of 10 points = 10%
|                                 |       |         | 1) Excellent Attendance: Max 5 points. Be sure to sign the attendance sheet each class. 1 free absence. |
|                                 |       |         | 2) Participation: In Class and/or online: Max 5 points.                     |
|                                 |       |         | • In-class participation should take the form of constructive engagement in class discussions and evidence of having come to class prepared by having done the required readings. 3.5 = regular contributions, 3 = frequent contributions, 1-2 = occasional contributions. Each would be lowered by poor attendance, lack of preparation or unhelpful contributions. |
|                                 |       |         | • Online participation should take the form of thoughtful reflections posted on CULearn throughout the semester. Focus should be on course readings and/or class discussions, and/or engage other students’ contributions, and/or contribute a new interesting resource for learning about Judaism (include bibliographic reference). |

| Assignment 3 | 25% | April 2 | Engaging with Jewish Life: 1st draft due March 3; Final copy due IN CLASS April 2 |

There are 5 options for this assignment:
1) Observe the Sabbath for one 25 hour period (Fri sundown – Sat sundown)
2) OR Keep Kosher for one 24 hour period (Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner)
3) OR Visit a religious service, ceremony or house of worship (Any one of these practices: Orthodox, Conservative, Reform, Reconstruction, or Jewish Renewal)
4) OR Focus on a particular issue within Judaism and compare two different approaches within Judaism.
5) OR Explore an aspect of the Jewish experience that you might wish to study in more detail. Topic to be chosen in consultation with Professor. Proposal should include thesis statement, preliminary bibliography and outline of paper.

All of the above require scholarly research and are to be approached form the observer perspective. A bibliography is required and should contain academic resources. Wikipedia is NOT AN OPTION.

Paper length - Minimum 6 pages -- Maximum 12 pages (not including bibliography). Detail on how to approach these assignments will be posted.

| Assignment 4 | 10% | April 2 | Short Paper: Reflection on one (only) of the seven (7) videos either shown in class or given as required viewing. |

THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW: 2000 LEVEL LECTURE

Attendance, Participation & Passing this course: Your learning depends not only on successfully completing course assignments and exams but also in actively participating in the classroom where essential learning takes place. If you have not attended this class, you cannot be said to have taken the class. Any student who misses more than 10 of the scheduled class meetings without valid and documented reasons for these absences will not pass the course.

Participation: Learning Support Services Workshops: Earn a maximum of 5 participation points by attending 3 workshops or 2 marks per workshop. You must sign in at the workshop to receive credit.

Learning Support Services’ (LSS) mission is to educate Carleton students of the skills and strategies needed to be independent and active learners, and to achieve academic success. LSS programs and services promote learning and development in students by helping them strengthen academic skills and by teaching students the strategies necessary for achieving their goals.

Your course has been registered in the Incentive Program offered through LSS. By attending study skills workshops in LSS, it is our hope that you are developing and expanding on your current academic skill set.

Contact me: The best way to reach me is through email or office hours. Short questions that can be answered quickly can always be asked in email. If your question requires more than a quick response you are better off coming to see me in person. I am happy to make appointments outside of office hours. Please email me to make an appointment. I usually check email daily, however, I may not do so on weekends and it may take 2-3 days during busy periods. Please put your full name and course number in the subject heading. ALWAYS EMAIL ME DIRECTLY AT Susan.LandauChark@carleton.ca

Late Policy: The late policy of this class is designed to be fair to students who handed their work in on time. Late assignments will be penalized at the rate of 10% per day (weekends included) until 100% has been reached. Extensions will only be granted for documented medical or family emergencies. Please note that late work will be graded as my schedule allows.

Rough Drafts: I am happy to read and comment on first drafts or outlines that are submitted by email a minimum of 7 days before an assignment is due. I will return it to you with comments. In order to receive credit for the effort of doing a rough draft, always submit the rough draft (print if necessary) with my comments along with the good copy.

Sources: Assignments specify what types of sources are appropriate and expected for a given task. These guidelines are aimed at detecting plagiarism, preventing students from exclusively relying on faulty and/or suspect Internet research, and for promoting the use of the range of types of scholarly sources that are standard for university level research. ANY ASSIGNMENT WHICH DOES NOT USE THE REQUIRED SOURCES DOES NOT MEET THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE ASSIGNMENT AND WILL RECEIVE A FAILING GRADE.

Indication that any work is not your own will be treated as a case of plagiarism

How to avoid plagiarism:
There is a great deal of information about what plagiarism is and how to avoid it on the Carleton University Library web site.

Failure to cite sources is a form of plagiarism. Please see the University regulations below.

Check for plagiarism in your own work: Re-read all written assignments to ensure that they include proper citations and do not too closely paraphrase the original text. See the web site for links to online guides about paraphrasing. You may always contact me and ask my opinion about your work. When in doubt, cite.

Style: The Religion Program uses the Chicago Manual Style as its standard style. Use it for all citations. I also strongly recommend using RefWorks for your citations. See the Library web site for information on both. Mixing citation styles is not acceptable.

List of Works Cited: Always include a list of works cited at the end of the assignment.

Things I Need to Know (Contact me by email or come speak with me)

- You do not understand what is expected of you.
- You have a learning disability.
- You are extremely shy about speaking in class.
- You are doing poorly in the course and want to improve.
- You do not understand the material.
- You have a problem that is making you do poorly in the course.
- You are ill and cannot come to class.
- If you are going to ask for a deferral for this course from the Registrar

WHAT'S THE BEST WAY TO SUCCEED IN THIS CLASS (OR ANY OTHER)?

Attendance: Your high school teachers may have told you “no one will be making you go to class when you go to university!” but that’s only part of the story. Students who have excellent attendance do much better than students who miss a class here and there. You are expected to attend each and every class, the same way you are expected to be present for every shift at a job. You are rewarded twice for every class you attend: First by being there and learning, exploring and reinforcing the content for that day so that you will succeed in assignments and exams. Second, through participation and attendance marks. Make getting to class each and every day a priority.

Speak to your professor:
Your first instinct might be to be anonymous, but you really do want your professor to learn your name. Whether you are doing well and want to do better, or are having a personal or academic problem and things seem to be spinning out of control; your best course of action is to open the lines of communication. Speak to your professor during office hours or make an appointment.

Learn to think like a professor:
What does a professor want from you? If the course outline has objectives, look them over. Most professors don’t want you to just memorize material, they want you to gain knowledge, improve your skills, and think critically about the material. Why did your professor want you to learn this? Why does this matter? How does it connect to other things I am learning? What fact or step in the argument is missing? Whether you are reading a text, listening to a lecture, studying for an exam or writing an essay always ask “So what? Why does this matter?”

PREPARE the readings before you come to class: Professors assign readings for a reason. When you prepare the reading in advance, the class discussion and/or lecture and your reading work together. You can ask effective questions, trace relationships between the readings and begin to think critically about the issues raised. Keeping up with readings also makes it easier to complete assignments and study for exams effectively. Students who only read the material for the assignment or exam often feel lost and tend to memorize what they read without actually understanding it. Worse, they might never get through the readings because they got too far behind. Notice, you should not just read the readings but prepare them. What does it mean to prepare a reading? Test your own preparedness for class by being able to answer the following before coming to class:

1. What TYPE of text is it?
   Is it a Primary or Secondary source? Is it a textbook or encyclopaedia entry? Is it a scholarly article, a popular web site or a news article? Is it fiction or a memoir?
2. What is the TOPIC of the reading?
   This can be answered broadly: “The topic of the reading is homosexuality in Judaism” A scriptural passage might be “laws concerning sexuality” or “love poetry”, a textbook chapter might be “overview of history of menstruation laws” or “summary of wedding rituals.”
3. OVERVIEW OR CENTRAL ARGUMENT:
   For texts that do not include analysis or arguments (i.e. an encyclopaedia article) be able to SUMMARIZE the content. Be able to quickly summarize the main issues raised by the text OR be able to identify the three most important points. For scholarly readings (and opinion pieces) that do include argument and analysis be able to answer: What is the CENTRAL ARGUMENT? Most academic articles you will read in university are secondary sources that analyse or interpret primary sources (scripture, historical documents, laws, philosophic arguments, scientific data etc)
4. EVALUATE the argument / analysis.
   Saying that an article is easy to read or that you like the writing style or topic is not a critical response. Critically responding to the text asks more significant questions: Is the text accurate, well-argued or biased? Why? Is there something you find particularly interesting or insightful? Is there a weakness? What connections can you make to other material? Why is this important? Be ready to argue your case with specific examples.
REGULATIONS COMMON TO ALL HUMANITIES COURSES

COPIES OF WRITTEN WORK SUBMITTED
Always retain for yourself a copy of all essays, term papers, written assignments or take-home tests submitted in your courses.

PLAGIARISM
The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in “substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.”

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course.

WITHDRAWAL WITHOUT ACADEMIC PENALTY
The last date to withdraw from FALL TERM courses is DEC. 8, 2014. The last day to withdraw from FALL/WINTER (Full Term) and WINTER term courses is APRIL 8, 2015.

REQUESTS FOR ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION
You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term because of disability, pregnancy or religious obligations. Please review the course outline promptly and write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. You can visit the Equity Services website to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation at: carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/

Students with disabilities requiring academic accommodations in this course must register with the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) for a formal evaluation of disability-related needs. Documented disabilities could include but not limited to mobility/physical impairments, specific Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/psychological disabilities, sensory disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), and chronic medical conditions. Registered PMC students are required to contact the PMC, 613-520-6608, every term to ensure that your Instructor receives your Letter of Accommodation, no later than two weeks before the first assignment is due or the first in-class test/midterm requiring accommodations. If you only require accommodations for your formally scheduled exam(s) in this course, please submit your request for accommodations to PMC by Nov. 7, 2014 for the Fall term and March 6, 2015 for the Winter term. For more details visit the Equity Services website: carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/

PETITIONS TO DEFER
If you miss a final examination and/or fail to submit a FINAL assignment by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control, you may apply a deferral of examination/assignment.

If you are applying for a deferral due to illness you will be required to see a physician in order to confirm illness and obtain a medical certificate dated no later than one working day after the examination or assignment deadline. This supporting documentation must specify the date of onset of the illness, the degree of incapacitation, and the expected date of recovery.

If you are applying for a deferral for reasons other than personal illness, please contact the Registrar’s Office directly for information on other forms of documentation that we accept.

Deferrals of assignments must be supported by confirmation of the assignment due date, for example a copy of the course outline specifying the due date and any documented extensions from the course instructor.

Deferral applications for examination or assignments must be submitted within 5 working days of the original final exam.
