CHRISTIANTY

RELI 2210 A – (Early Summer 2014)

Professor Johannes C. Wolfart

Office: 2A62 Paterson Hall; Telephone: x2932; Email johannes_wolfart@carleton.ca (please see note below)

COURSE OBJECTIVES

This course is a survey of Christianity from (roughly) the time of the first Christian communities to (very roughly) the present. The aim is to introduce students to key concepts, doctrines and practices of the Christian traditions, all within a historical framework. Due to the nature of the survey course and the complexity and diversity of Christian history, we will actually only be studying very small samples from the Christian traditions. At the very least, students in this course should come to a greater appreciation of the diversity of the Christian traditions. It is a further aim of this course, however, to provide students with some more general frameworks for understanding Christianity historically. Please note, finally, that while some of the worldviews studied in this course are explicitly theological, the academic procedures and critical methods employed in the academic study of religion are not. This course presupposes your acceptance of the principles of the modern research university. Your understanding of these, especially as they pertain to the study of religion, will undoubtedly develop further during this course.

EVALUATION – GENERAL INFORMATION

Your performance will be graded on the basis of 4 assessed items, each worth 25% of your final course grade. You will have to complete both written assignments and at least two quizzes (there will be three quizzes and your best two results will be counted towards your course grade).

YOUR WRITTEN WORK IS DUE AT THE BEGINNING OF CLASS ON THE DATE SPECIFIED. I will not accept late assignments. Exceptions will be made only in extreme cases (hail storm, documented medical emergency, etc.) or if an extension has been granted by me (and for very good reasons of course) at least one week in advance of the due date.

THERE WILL BE NO MAKE-UP QUIZES! Since only the best two of three quizzes will count towards your final mark, everybody can afford to miss one quiz, due to unforeseen circumstances.

Certainly, it is my aim as a teacher to get to know you as individuals, to recognize your individual strengths and weaknesses, and to foster individual intellectual development. At the same time, however, I am obliged also to treat individuals equally in certain key respects. As a marker, therefore, I cannot take into consideration anything other than your actual performance on the evaluated components.

EVALUATION - PARTICULAR COMPONENTS and DATES

- 1) First Quiz – 14 May in class
- 2) Primary source response (a.k.a. “evaluation of a datum”) due 21 May
- 3) Second Quiz – 4 June in class
- 4) Secondary source response (a.k.a. “engagement with scholarship”) due 9 June
- 5) Third Quiz– 18 June in class

Further details will be communicated in assignment briefs and review guides posted to CULearn.

LECTURES

This is a lecture course, which means that my oral presentation is the primary mode of communication. Nevertheless, I shall also devote a certain amount of time to discussion and question periods. Readings are a prerequisite and not a substitute for lecture material. You can expect the quizzes to be based primarily on material presented in class. Thus attendance is not optional but obligatory in this course. Lectures will be held on Mondays and Wednesdays from 6:05-8:55pm in Tory 202.

Late arrivals are very distracting to both your fellow students and to me, so please be punctual. Finally, please be advised that I do not permit audio or A/V recording in my classes. It goes without saying, but PLEASE do switch off all electronic communication devices during class.

Finally, for obvious reasons I cannot and will not repeat lecture material in emails, so if you miss a class it is your responsibility to get lecture notes from a classmate (if you don't know anybody in the class, I can facilitate an introduction).

READINGS

The assigned textbook for this course is Ralph Keen, The Christian Tradition (2004). This textbook is available from Octopus Books on Third Avenue (just off Bank – www.octopusbooks.ca). This book comes from a major publisher so you should be able to find a used copy online, if you wish. Ralph Keen is a serious and respected scholar and the textbook has many things to commend it. I especially like Keen's ability to combine high level of scholarly precision with relative simplicity and ease of use. Like all textbooks, however, this one also has some deficiencies (for example, it is unabashedly biased towards so-called western Christianity and is clearly pitched for the American market).

The weekly readings from the textbook will be augmented with primary source materials, generally available online and indicated below in the daily topic list.

Please note, again, that readings are a prerequisite rather than a substitute for class attendance. Your ability to follow lectures and to participate effectively in question and discussion periods will depend on you keeping up with the reading. In my experience, student success in this course is directly correlated to diligent preparation and regular attendance.

OFFICE HOURS

Office hours will be held Mondays from 5-6pm, or by appointment.

E-MAIL COMMUNICATION

Carleton communications policy states that faculty must conduct email communications with students only through their Carleton accounts. Please be advised, further, that students can normally expect up to a 24hour turn-around time on e-mail communication, especially during high volume times (i.e. before examinations, at essay time, etc.).

REGULATIONS COMMON TO ALL HUMANITIES COURSES

COPIES OF WRITTEN WORK SUBMITTED

Always retain for yourself a copy of all essays, term papers, written assignments or take-home tests submitted in your courses.

PLAGIARISM

The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in “substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.”

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course

GRADING SYSTEM

Letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

A+ = 90-100 (12)	B = 73-76 (8)	C - = 60-62 (4)
A = 85-89 (11)	B- = 70-72 (7)	D+ = 57-59 (3)
A- = 80-84 (10)	C+ = 67-69 (6)	D = 53-56 (2)
B+ = 77-79 (9)	C = 63-66 (5)	D - = 50-52 (1)

F	Failure. Assigned 0.0 grade points
ABS	Absent from final examination, equivalent to F
DEF	Official deferral (see “Petitions to Defer”)
FND	Failure with no deferred exam allowed -- assigned only when the student has failed the course on the basis of inadequate term work as specified in the course outline.

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean.

For an accommodation request the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy obligation: contact the instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist

Religious obligation: contact the instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist.

If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).

PETITIONS TO DEFER

If you miss a final examination and/or fail to submit a FINAL assignment by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control, you may apply a deferral of examination/assignment. If you are applying for a deferral due to illness you will be required to see a physician in order to confirm illness and obtain a medical certificate dated no later than one working day after the examination or assignment deadline. This supporting documentation must specify the date of onset of the illness, the degree of incapacitation, and the expected date of recovery.

If you are applying for a deferral for reasons other than personal illness, please contact the Registrar’s Office directly for information on other forms of documentation that we accept.

Deferrals of assignments must be supported by confirmation of the assignment due date, for example a copy of the course outline specifying the due date and any documented extensions from the course instructor.

Deferral applications for examination or assignments must be submitted within 5 working days of the original final exam.
