Office: 2A41 Paterson Hall
Office Hours: Wednesdays 9:30-11:30 am,

Course Lectures: Tuesdays and Thursdays, 2:35-3:55 pm (413 Southam Hall)

Course Description
This course is an introduction to the Qur’an, the sacred scripture of the Islamic religious tradition. Topics to be covered include: the history of the written text, major themes of the Qur’an, the idea of revelation, the Qur’an’s structure and literary style, and quranic interpretation (tafsir), as well as the roles of the Qur’an in the lives of Muslims past and present. No previous knowledge of the Qur’an is assumed.

Note: The purpose of this course is not confessional—it will not attempt to persuade you to adopt or reject a particular religious viewpoint. This course presupposes that students accept that the Qur’an will be studied using critical methods that are employed in a modern research university when examining any text, religious or otherwise.

Course Evaluation
Your final grade will be determined by the following:

• In-class pop quizzes—20%
• Mid-term exam—35%
• Written assignment—10%
• Final Exam—35%

NOTE: Both the readings and the lectures are essential components of this course. The readings cannot substitute for the lectures—or vice versa. Some course materials will only be covered in class. It is expected that all students will come to class regularly, having already done the readings.

The in-class pop quizzes ask questions drawn from the readings. They are my way of marking class preparation (meaning, whether you are doing the readings) as well as attendance. Students may choose to substitute up to three (3) of the pop quizzes with written responses to the assigned reading(s) for the day on which a given quiz is held (1½- 2 double-spaced, typed pages in length). Written responses must be submitted to the professor in hard copy by noon the next day in order to be counted for credit. Aside from these 3 written responses, no make-up tests or other substitutions for the in-class quizzes will be permitted under any circumstances.

Required Course Readings
The following textbooks are required:

• Carl Ernst, How to Read the Qur’an: A New Guide (The University of North Carolina
• These books are available through Haven Books (43 Seneca Street, Ottawa, www.havenbooks.ca). The links to all of the other readings are available through WebCT.

COURSE POLICIES

Exams

Please note that there will be no make-up examination for the mid-term. If you must miss the mid-term, you must choose whether to add its value to your final exam mark, or to your written assignment mark. In order to qualify for either of these options, you must (1) provide adequate documentation which shows why you missed the midterm, and (2) fill out a form (available in my office) asking to have the normal grade distribution changed.

In order to pass this course, you must pass the final exam. This stipulation stands regardless of the quality of your work during the rest of the term.

The Written Assignment

- Ensure that you know what plagiarism is, and how to avoid it. For details, see: http://www2.carleton.ca/studentaffairs.academic-integrity/ If you are in any doubt about what constitutes plagiarism, ask.
- If you have never written a paper like this before, you are strongly urged to contact the Student Academic Success Centre: http://www2.carleton.ca/sasc/writing-tutorial-service/writing-resources/
- Assignments are due in hard copy, at the beginning of class, on the date specified in the syllabus. Late papers will be penalized by the deduction of 2% per day or partial day (including weekends), unless an extension has been arranged before the due date. Retroactive extensions will be granted only according to the rules of the university—personal and family emergencies (documentation must be provided). Extensions will not be granted because of exam or essay conflicts, jobs, busy schedules, etc.
- Late papers can be submitted through the drop box at the Religion and Classics Department (a large locked wooden box on the wall outside 2A39 Paterson Hall). Do not put them under my (or anyone else’s) door; the cleaning staff may pick them up and throw them out.
- Papers that do not follow the directions given in class (in content, methodology, appearance, length) may be returned ungraded for resubmission. In such a case, late penalties will accrue from the due date, regardless of when the problem was discovered.
• Be sure to keep a hard copy of your paper, and do a computer/disk back-up as well. Please submit the original for marking, not a photocopy.
• More detailed instructions for the assignment will be provided in class.

Email communication

Please be aware that in order to ensure compliance with the federal privacy act known as FIPPA, Carleton communications policy states that faculty may only communicate with students through their Carleton Connect accounts.

COPIES OF WRITTEN WORK SUBMITTED
Always retain for yourself a copy of all essays, term papers, written assignments or take-home tests submitted in your courses.

PLAGIARISM
The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in “substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.”

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course.

GRADING SYSTEM
Letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

A+ = 90-100 (12)   B = 73-76 (8)   C- = 60-62 (4)

ABS Absent from final examination, equivalent to F
DEF Official deferral (see “Petitions to Defer”)
FND Failure with no deferred exam allowed -- assigned only when the student has failed the course on the basis of inadequate term work as specified in the course outline.

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean.

WITHDRAWAL WITHOUT ACADEMIC PENALTY
The last date to withdraw from FALL TERM courses is DEC. 3, 2012. The last day to withdraw from FALL/WINTER (Full Term) and WINTER term courses is APRIL 10, 2013.

REQUESTS FOR ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION
You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term because of disability, pregnancy or religious obligations. Please review the course outline promptly and write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. You can visit the Equity Services website to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation at: carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).

PETITIONS TO DEFER
If you miss a final examination and/or fail to submit a FINAL assignment by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control, you may apply a deferral of examination/assignment. If you are applying for a deferral due to illness you will be required to see a physician in order to confirm illness and obtain a medical certificate dated no later than one working day after the examination or assignment deadline. This supporting documentation must specify the date of onset of the illness, the degree of incapacitation, and the expected date of recovery. If you are applying for a deferral for reasons other than personal illness, please contact the Registrar’s Office directly for information on other forms of documentation that we accept. Deferrals of assignments must be supported by confirmation of the assignment due date, for example a copy of the course outline specifying the due date and any documented extensions from the course instructor. Deferral applications for examination or assignments must be submitted within 5 working days of the original final exam.
