Course Description
Although the Quran is one of the world’s most widely read books, it is also one of its least understood books. In this course we will therefore attempt to come to terms with the Quran through a careful study of its content, form, style, central themes, and process of canonization. Emphasis will also be placed on the Quran’s vast interpretive tradition (tafsir), as well as the various theories and methods employed by modern scholars in understanding the Quran’s textual history, relationship to the Bible and Near Eastern culture, and its various stylistic and linguistic features.

Learning Objectives
❖ To understand the main aspects of the academic study of religion and scripture
❖ To come to a better understanding of the field of Quranic studies and the methods employed by contemporary scholars in studying the Quran
❖ To be able to critically analyze a wide variety of Quranic materials, including medieval and modern works concerned with Quranic interpretation (tafsir)
❖ To gain a firm grasp of academic research methods, particularly writing and citation

Term Test Guidelines

Content
The term test will cover all of the course’s lectures and assigned readings up to and including the class before the day of the test.

Date and Test Length
The test is scheduled to take place in class on February 15th, 2016. It will be one hour in length.

Structure
The test consists of three questions and is divided into two parts. All of the questions must be answered. The first part consists of one question, which is out of ten. The second part is also out of ten, but consists of two questions, each of which is out of five. The entire test, therefore, is out of 20, and is worth 20% of the total course mark.

The test is comprised of response-type questions. This means that responses do not have to be in essay format. They simply have to address the question asked in as thorough and thoughtful a manner as possible. Answers must be both descriptive and analytical.
Research Paper Guidelines

Instructions

Address one of the following topics/questions. You must consult The Study Quran as well as the “Islamic Studies Resources” document (located on the course website) in order to locate materials essential for your research.

1. Explore the notion of what scholars call “opposition” in the Quran.
2. Assess the development of the field of Quranic studies, from its genesis in the late nineteenth century CE to the present day.
3. Discuss the different Muslim interpretations of the famous Light Verse (Q 24:35).
4. Drawing on the Quran and its interpretive traditions, analyze the Quranic story of Adam and Eve.
5. A topic chosen in consultation with the Professor.

Evaluation

Essays are graded out of 40, and are worth 40% of the total course mark. Each essay will be evaluated in terms of (1) the quality of its language, including grammar, spelling, and style; (2) the clarity of its thesis, (3) the coherence of its argument(s), (4) evidence of original research and its careful integration into the fabric of the essay, and (5) faithful adherence to the content and formatting guidelines mentioned below.

Content

The paper must have a clear thesis which is defended consistently throughout. An essay without a thesis cannot receive more than a C+. A thesis essentially summarizes, in one or several sentences, the entire point of your essay. It is simply not enough to say “This essay is going to talk about x, y, and z”; you must be more specific than that. A good thesis should be concise and straightforward, and must endeavour to prove a point: “In this essay, it shall be demonstrated that, because of x, y and z obtain.” You may not use the wording of this example in your essay.

Due Date

Essays are due at the beginning of class on March 20th, 2017. Emailed versions of the essay are not acceptable.

Penalties

Essays not handed in on the due date will receive a mark of zero. Absolutely no exceptions will be made to this rule. Papers submitted late due to a medical or other compassionate reason must be accompanied by relevant documentation (i.e., a medical certificate, etc.). Plagiarized essays will be assigned a zero, and the issue will be taken up with the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences.

Form

1. Essays are to be ten full pages in length (excluding the title page and bibliography), double spaced, and written in Times New Roman font (size twelve).

2. Diction is to be formal, and the essay is to be written in Canadian English. Grammar, syntax, spelling, and style must be impeccable.

3. All paragraphs—except the first paragraph of your essay—must be indented. Every paragraph in your essay—including isolated quotations and footnotes—must be justified.

4. Use footnotes as opposed to endnotes and/or internal citations. Footnotes are to be single spaced and written in Times New Roman font (size ten). A bibliography must be appended to the essay. Your method of citation must follow the rules laid out in the Chicago Manual of Style.

5. When citing from the translation in The Study Quran, an internal citation as follows will suffice: Q 18:5. If citing from any part of the commentary on this verse, for example, simply insert a “c” in the internal citation: Q 18:5c.

8. Do not put your quotations in italics, bold, or a combination of the two. Sentences which are more than three lines long are to be isolated, single spaced, and reduced to font size eleven with their margins indented to one inch on both the right and the left. This can easily be done by using the “paragraph” function on your Word program.

9. Your essay must have a title page. All pages—including the title page and bibliography—are to be numbered at the bottom right corner of the page.
Final Exam Guidelines

Content
The final exam will cover all of the course’s lectures and assigned readings, from the first lecture to the last, with emphasis placed on materials covered after the term test.

Date, Time, and Location
The exam will be scheduled by the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences and announced in mid-February. I shall inform the class of the date, time, and location of the examination as soon as this information is made available.

Length
The exam will be two hours in length.

Structure
The exam is divided into two sections. The entire exam is out of 40, and is worth 40% of the total course mark.

Part I will consist of ten items, namely the names of some Quranic verses and chapters, as well as some terms in English and Arabic transliteration. All of these items must be defined/described in a clear and detailed manner. Each question is out of two. The first part of the exam, therefore, is out of 20, and is worth 20% of the total course mark.

Part II will consist of six questions, four of which must be answered. Each question is out of five. This part of the exam, therefore, is out 20, and is worth 20% of the total course mark. The questions in Part II are response-type questions. This means that responses do not have to be in essay format. They simply have to address the question asked in as thorough and thoughtful a manner as possible. Answers must be both descriptive and analytical.
WITHDRAWAL WITHOUT ACADEMIC PENALTY
The last date to withdraw from FALL TERM courses is DEC. 9, 2016. The last day to withdraw from FALL/WINTER (Full Term) and WINTER term courses is APRIL 7, 2017.

PLAGIARISM
The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in “substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.”

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course.

PETITIONS TO DEFER
If you miss a final examination and/or fail to submit a FINAL assignment by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control, you may apply a deferral of examination/assignment.

If you are applying for a deferral due to illness you will be required to see a physician in order to confirm illness and obtain a medical certificate dated no later than one working day after the examination or assignment deadline. This supporting documentation must specify the date of onset of the illness, the degree of incapacitation, and the expected date of recovery.

If you are applying for a deferral for reasons other than personal illness, please contact the Registrar’s Office directly for information on other forms of documentation that we accept.

Deferrals of a final assignment or take home, in courses without a final examination, must be supported by confirmation of the assignment due date, for example a copy of the course outline specifying the due date and any documented extensions from the course instructor.

Deferral applications for examination or assignments must be submitted within 3 working days of the original final exam.
