COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course provides a general overview of the historical origins and development of Buddhist doctrine and practice. Through lectures and audio-visual materials students will be introduced to Buddhist beliefs, rituals, meditation methods, Buddhist visual culture and symbolism. The implications of the geographical expansion of Buddhism throughout Asia and into the west, including Canada, will also be a component of this introduction.

COURSE AIMS/LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Knowledge of the Buddha and his life and teachings in their historical context.
2. Familiarity with the main phases and developments in Buddhist doctrine and practice.
3. Awareness of the history of Buddhism and the main social, cultural, and intellectual developments.
4. An appreciation of the geographical spread of Buddhism and how Buddhist ideas influenced, and were influenced by, the cultures it encountered.

SPECIAL PEDAGOGICAL FEATURES

The course is taught through the medium of an online textbook which links directly to carefully selected sites on the internet, thereby enhancing the learning experience by providing access to a range of multimedia resources.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND EVALUATION
1. Map quiz 10%
2. Midterm test* 30%
3. Essay 30%
4. Final Exam* (2 hours) 30%

*The Midterm test and final exam will include a scantron-graded objective component, i.e. multiple choice, true or false questions, and definitions. The final exam will cover the entire semester. Students will be responsible for material covered in the course text, the manual, and the class lectures. Returned tests and essays may be reviewed with the professor during office hours. A separate document on the essay’s objectives, format, writing standards, length, and subject matter will be available on the course WebCT by Sept 16, 2011. The essay is due at the end of class on November 4, 2011. Late essays will be penalized 1% of your final mark per day excluding weekends. For example, an essay submitted November 11th would be marked accordingly:

\[ \frac{x}{30} - 5 \text{ marks (or 5\% of your final mark)} = \]

COURSE POLICIES

- Students must make arrangements to be available for course quizzes, tests and the Final Exam. Applications for a deferral of the Final Exam must be made through the Registrar. Requests to write a missed in-class quiz or test must be made in writing to the professor and will be considered on a case by case basis. Please attach supporting documentation to your request. Missed tests/quizzes will be written on campus at a time convenient to the professor.

- Students with disabilities requiring academic accommodations for this course are encouraged to contact The Paul Menton Centre (520-6608/TTY 520-3937; or 501 Uni-Centre) as soon as possible to complete the necessary forms.

- Beginning Sept 9, all email communication to me must be made via the Buddhism RELI 2410A Web-CT email network. Please allow up to 48 hours for a response.

- All course communication to students will be done through the Buddhism RELI 2410A Web-CT page including emails and announcements. It is not an option to claim you did not receive a course-related announcement because you don’t read/use course WebCT email.

- There are no grade-raising tests or extra assignments for this course.

- Marks will be posted on the course WebCT page.

- PLEASE read the REGULATIONS COMMON TO ALL HUMANITIES COURSES attached at the end of this syllabus.
COURSE CALENDAR

The lectures generally follow the order of subjects presented in Buddhism—The eBook. Except for the first class, you are expected to read ahead in order to be prepared for the lecture. The Coursepack provides a brief summary of class notes as well as primary source readings. The required readings from the coursepack will be identified for you on WebCT and in class each week.

COPIES OF WRITTEN WORK SUBMITTED
Always retain for yourself a copy of all essays, term papers, written assignments or take-home tests submitted in your courses.

PLAGIARISM
The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in “substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.”

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course.

GRADING SYSTEM
Letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

A+ = 90-100 (12)  B = 73-76 (8)  C- = 60-62 (4)
A  = 85-89 (11)   B- = 70-72 (7)  D+ = 57-59 (3)
A- = 80-84 (10)   C+ = 67-69 (6)  D  = 53-56 (2)
B+ = 77-79 (9)    C  = 63-66 (5)  D- = 50-52 (1)

F   Failure. Assigned 0.0 grade points
ABS  Absent from final examination, equivalent to F
DEF  Official deferral (see "Petitions to Defer")
FND  Failure with no deferred exam allowed -- assigned only when the student has failed the course on the basis of inadequate term work as specified in the course outline.

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean.

WITHDRAWAL WITHOUT ACADEMIC PENALTY
The last date to withdraw from FALL TERM courses is DEC. 5, 2011. The last day to withdraw from FALL/WINTER (Full Term) and WINTER term courses is APRIL 5, 2012.

REQUESTS FOR ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION
You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term because of disability, pregnancy or religious obligations. Please review the course outline promptly and write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. You can visit the Equity Services website to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation at: carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/

Students with disabilities requiring academic accommodations in this course must register with the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) for a formal evaluation of disability-related needs. Documented disabilities could include but not limited to mobility/physical impairments, specific Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/psychological disabilities, sensory disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), and chronic medical conditions. Registered PMC students are required to contact the PMC, 613-520-6608, every term to ensure that your Instructor receives your Letter of Accommodation, no later than two weeks before the first assignment is due or the first in-class test/midterm requiring accommodations. If you only require accommodations for your formally scheduled exam(s) in this course, please submit your request for accommodations to PMC by Nov.11, 2011 for the Fall term and March 7, 2012 for the Winter term. For more details visit the Equity Services website: carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/

PETITIONS TO DEFER
If you miss a final examination and/or fail to submit a FINAL assignment by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control, you may apply a deferral of examination/assignment. If you are applying for a deferral due to illness you will be required to see a physician in order to confirm illness and obtain a medical certificate dated no later than one working day after the examination or assignment deadline. This supporting documentation must specify the date of onset of the illness, the degree of incapacitation, and the expected date of recovery.

If you are applying for a deferral for reasons other than personal illness, please contact the Registrar’s Office directly for information on other forms of documentation that we accept. Deferrals of assignments must be supported by confirmation of the assignment due date, for example a copy of the course outline specifying the due date and any documented extensions from the course instructor. Deferral applications for examination or assignments must be submitted within 5 working days of the original final exam.
