

Course Description
RELI 2510 – Hinduism with Jessica Ford

In this course, we will explore the multifaceted tradition known as “Hinduism” from the beliefs and concepts that inform the Hindu worldview to the rituals and practices of present-day. The course follows the historical development of the tradition beginning with a brief examination of the Indus Valley civilization and progressing through to modern times, paying special attention to the themes found in ancient Hindu texts and literature and the Hindu concepts of the divine.
