Lecturers and the material in the pre-recorded interviews is all testable.

Course Description:

The course focuses on mythic images in the Indian tradition from the Indus Valley civilization to Mother India. The emphasis is mainly philosophical and the course investigates poetic truth or how aesthetic experience leads to knowledge of ultimate reality. The first half of the course explores aesthetic theories especially those involving rasa or aesthetic emotion and rupa or aesthetic form. Theories of artha or semantics are examined and Indian Idealism is discussed. This half ends with an exploration of the epistemology of the Tantric tradition.

The second half of the course, which is more visual, takes up the understanding and enjoyment of mythic images, through the rasa that they espouse. These will include Krsna, Siva, Visnu, Parvati, Duran, Kali and Buddha and the architecture of the temple. Various akritis or forms are examined and their relation to Indian culture investigated.

REGULATIONS COMMON TO ALL HUMANITIES COURSES

COPIES OF WRITTEN WORK SUBMITTED

Always retain for yourself a copy of all essays, term papers, written assignments or take-home tests submitted in your courses.

PLAGIARISM

The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in “substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.”

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course
