I. Course Description

Aims

This course provides a basic introduction to ancient Greek world and religious practices. It will emphasize on the development of Greek Religion from Neolithic to Hellenistic Period through all the available source materials from each period (archaeology, art history, literary texts etc.). Readings related to ancient sources (in translation) will be provided. They will give specific information on how ancient Greeks experienced religion. The course will be focused on the continuities and changes in the religious expression of ancient Greece. It will be given special attention to social, cultural, political and economical developments impacted the ancient Greek religion as well as gender roles. It will also examine the five major Greek Cults and their practices, the religion in Greek family in city-states and villages. The course will also present the material aspects of religion in Ancient Greece. In addition, students will become familiar with the terminology of ancient religion such as religion, myth, ritual, cult etc. and apply these theoretical concepts to a comparative study of ancient and modern religions.

Learning Objectives

By the end of the fall term 2015 students are expected to achieve the following learning outcomes:

1. To expand their knowledge of ancient Greek religious practices and values.
2. To understand the continuity and changes in Greek Religion as well as the present through the past.
3. To develop their communication, analytical, organizational, and presentation skills.
4. To understand the necessity for the evaluation of historical and other resources.
5. To develop their critical thinking and express ideas and opinions with confidence.

IV. Evaluation
Assignment: 20%
Participation in Group Discussions: 10%
Midterm: 30%
Final Exam: 40%

Assignment
Students will complete one written assignment. Assignment would consist of responding to a question or reflecting-analyzing a topic or completing a real or virtual tour of a Museum and writing an essay related to our lecture topics, readings or class discussions. Students will select the topic of their assignment. Detailed structure of the assignment will be presented in the classroom. Six topics will be provided and students will select one. Students are expected to write an assignment independently. Our regular and online texts and resources are highly recommended for the assignment. Additional resources are recommended as well.
The assignment is due on November 16th 2015. There will be a penalty of 2% per day from the mark of the paper including weekends. The assignment will be designed to make students reflect on the material presented or discussed in the classroom. The assignment is worth 20%.
Instructions: Seven pages (including cover page and page of references), typed, double spaced, MLA style in citations, font size 12 and titles 14, Times New Roman. Staple the pages together. Guide for MLA style will be provided to students. Content, spelling, grammar, syntax and citation format are some of the general criteria that influence grading.
The written work will be delivered to the Instructor in hard copy in person during office hours or before/after our session.
Assignment Structure: 1st page: Cover Page-Student Data and Title, from 2nd page: 1 Heading, 2 Heading, 3 Heading, Conclusion, last page: References

All students are highly recommended to attend the course sessions and participate to the discussions. Class discussions will last one hour per week (last hour of our session). It is worth 10%.

Midterm

Midterm will be based on 80 multiple choice questions covering the lectures and textbooks (material through the last session before the midterm exam). It is worth 30%

Final Exam

It will be held during the examination period in December. It is worth 40% and is based on 120 multiple choice questions. It will cover all the lectures, textbooks and readings.

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by the instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Dean.

V. Course Values and Classroom Environment

Respect, integrity and dignity are the main values of our course. All students are strongly encouraged to be respectful to other’s beliefs and opinions. It is instructor’s and student’s responsibility to establish and maintain a safe environment for all. Good communication is based on listening actively and responding with respect.

VI. Statement on Plagiarism

http://www2.carleton.ca/studentaffairs/academic-integrity

The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentionally or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.”

VII. Request for Academic Accommodations
Academic Accommodation

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy obligation: write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details see the Student Guide.

Religious obligation: write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details see the Student Guide.

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).

VIII. Copyrights

Student or professor materials created for this course (including presentations and posted notes, case studies and exams) remain the intellectual property of the author(s). They are intended for personal use and may not be reproduced or redistributed without prior written consent of the author(s).
REGULATIONS COMMON TO ALL HUMANITIES COURSES

COPYES OF WRITTEN WORK SUBMITTED
Always retain for yourself a copy of all essays, term papers, written assignments or take-home tests submitted in your courses.

PLAGIARISM
The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in “substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.”

Plagiarism is a serious offense which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course.

WITHDRAWAL WITHOUT ACADEMIC PENALTY
The last date to withdraw from FALL TERM courses is DEC. 7, 2015. The last day to withdraw from FALL/WINTER (Full Term) and WINTER term courses is APRIL 8, 2016.

REQUESTS FOR ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION
You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term because of disability, pregnancy or religious obligations. Please review the course outline promptly and write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. You can visit the Equity Services website to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation at: carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/

Students with disabilities requiring academic accommodations in this course must register with the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) for a formal evaluation of disability-related needs. Documented disabilities could include but not limited to mobility/physical impairments, specific Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/psychological disabilities, sensory disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), and chronic medical conditions. Registered PMC students are required to contact the PMC, 613-520-6608, every term to ensure that your Instructor receives your Letter of Accommodation, no later than two weeks before the first assignment is due or the first in-class test/midterm requiring accommodations. If you only require accommodations for your formally scheduled exam(s) in this course, please submit your request for accommodations to PMC by Nov, 6, 2015 for the Fall term and March 6, 2016 for the Winter term. For more details visit the Equity Services website: carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/

PETITIONS TO DEFER
If you miss a final examination and/or fail to submit a FINAL assignment by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control, you may apply a deferral of examination/assignment. If you are applying for a deferral due to illness you will be required to see a physician in order to confirm illness and obtain a medical certificate dated no later than one working day after the examination or assignment deadline. This supporting documentation must specify the date of onset of the illness, the degree of incapacitation, and the expected date of recovery.

If you are applying for a deferral for reasons other than personal illness, please contact the Registrar’s Office directly for information on other forms of documentation that we accept. Deferrals of a final assignment or take home, in courses without a final examination, must be supported by confirmation of the assignment due date, for example a copy of the course outline specifying the due date and any documented extensions from the course instructor.

Deferral applications for examination or assignments must be submitted within 5 working days of the original final exam.
