Course Lectures: Mondays 8:35-11:25 am (Southam Hall 501)

Course Description

This course examines the life of Muhammad as it is presented in biographical and historical Muslim writings. Students will be introduced to the critical methods used in contemporary academic scholarship to investigate and reconstruct Muhammad’s life. Issues to be studied include: Muhammad’s teachings, the relationship between Muhammad’s life and the Quran, Muslim concepts of prophecy, Muhammad’s religious significance for Muslims, and common Western European perceptions of Muhammad’s life, past and present.

NOTE: This course presupposes that students accept that Muhammad’s life will be studied using critical methods which are employed in a modern research university when examining any historical figure. All those taking this course are required to study historical-critical methods, as well as to critically examine a selection of the various ways that Muhammad has been presented historically—both by Muslims of different sectarian and theological persuasions, as well as by indifferent or hostile Others.

Course Evaluation

Your final grade will be determined by the following:

- In-class assignments and group work—20%
- Mid-term exam—25%
- Essay—20%
- Final Exam—35%

NOTE: Both the readings and the classes are essential components of this course. The readings cannot substitute for the lectures—or vice versa. Some course materials will only be covered in class. It is expected that all students will come to class regularly, having already done the readings, and ready to participate in group work. Be aware that the readings for this course are heavy. When signing up for this course, it is important to consider whether you will be able to make the time commitment required.
Required Course Readings

The following textbooks are required:

- These books are available through Haven Books (43 Seneca Street, Ottawa, www.havenbooks.ca).
- All other required readings are available online. Links are posted on cuLearn.

COURSE POLICIES

In-class assignments and group work

The in-class assignments ask questions drawn from the readings. In-class group work involves small-group discussion/analysis of an assigned reading (typically, of a primary source text), with findings reported to the class. The assignments and group work are my way of marking class preparation and contribution to the class discussion, as well as attendance. Therefore, it is not possible to make up or substitute for either the quizzes or the group work.

Exams

Please note that there will be no make-up examination for the mid-term. If you must miss the mid-term, you must choose whether to add its value to your final exam mark, or to your written assignment mark. In order to qualify for either of these options, you must (1) provide adequate documentation which shows why you missed the midterm, and (2) fill out a form (available in my office) asking to have the normal grade distribution changed.

Extensions and late papers

The essay is due in hard copy on the date and time specified in the syllabus. Late papers will be penalized by the deduction of 2 marks per day or partial day (including weekends), unless an extension has been arranged before the due date. Retroactive extensions will be granted only according to the rules of the university—personal and family emergencies (documentation must be provided). Extensions will not be granted because of exam or essay conflicts, jobs, busy schedules, etc.

Late papers can be submitted through the drop box at the Religion and Classics Department (a large locked wooden box on the wall outside 2A39 Paterson Hall). Do not put them under my (or anyone else’s) door; the cleaning staff may pick them up and throw them out.

Email communication

Please be aware that in order to ensure compliance with the federal privacy act known as FIPPA, Carleton communications policy states that faculty may only communicate with students through their Carleton Connect accounts.

REGULATIONS COMMON TO ALL HUMANITIES COURSES

COPIES OF WRITTEN WORK SUBMITTED
Always retain for yourself a copy of all essays, term papers, written assignments or take-home tests submitted in your courses.

PLAGIARISM
The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in "substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs."

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course.

WITHDRAWAL WITHOUT ACADEMIC PENALTY
The last date to withdraw from FALL TERM courses is DEC. 7, 2015. The last date to withdraw from FALL/WINTER (Full Term) and WINTER term courses is APRIL 8, 2016.

REQUESTS FOR ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION
You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term because of disability, pregnancy or religious obligations. Please review the course outline promptly and write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. You can visit the Equity Services website to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation at: carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/

Students with disabilities requiring academic accommodations in this course must register with the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) for a formal evaluation of disability-related needs. Documented disabilities could include but not limited to mobility/physical impairments, specific Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/psychological disabilities, sensory disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), and chronic medical conditions. Registered PMC students are required to contact the PMC, 613-520-6608, every term to ensure that your Instructor receives your Letter of Accommodation, no later than two weeks before the first assignment is due or the first in-class test/midterm requiring accommodations. If you only require accommodations for your formally scheduled exam(s) in this course, please submit your request for accommodations to PMC by Nov. 6, 2015 for the Fall term and March 6, 2016 for the Winter term. For more details visit the Equity Services website: carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/

PETITIONS TO DEFER
If you miss a final examination and/or fail to submit a FINAL assignment by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control, you may apply a deferral of examination/assignment. If you are applying for a deferral due to illness you will be required to see a physician in order to confirm illness and obtain a medical certificate dated no later than one working day after the examination or assignment deadline. This supporting documentation must specify the date of onset of the illness, the degree of incapacitation, and the expected date of recovery. If you are applying for a deferral due to illness, please contact the Registrar’s Office directly for information on other forms of documentation that we accept.

Deferrals of a final assignment or take-home, in courses without a final exam, are permitted. If you fail to submit a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment due date, for example a copy of the course outline specifying the due date and any documented extensions from the course instructor.

Deferral applications for examination or assignments must be submitted within 5 working days of the original final exam.
