Anti-requisite: precludes additional credit for RELI 3306 if taken summer 2005, 2006, or 2007.

Prerequisite: second year standing or permission of the unit.

Topic for fall 2011: This course will examine the form and function of the sanctuary in Greek culture from the early Archaic to late Classical period (roughly 800-300 BC). Emphasis will be placed on archaeological evidence for the architectural and artistic development of this essential element of every ancient city-state, but the history of excavation, religious ideology and practice will also be addressed. Literary sources will be read and discussed where relevant.

Text: John Pedley, Sanctuaries and the Sacred in the Ancient Greek World (Cambridge, 2005).

Additional mandatory readings will be available on webCT.

Requirements:

Essay Lecture (deadline to have topic approved, Oct. 5)....minus 5% penalty if not present

Midterm Test (entire class Oct. 19).....20%

Research Bibliography (due in class Oct. 26).....20%

Research Essay (due in class Nov. 28).....35%

Final Exam (2 hours, exam period Dec. 2011).....25%

The final date for voluntary withdrawal without academic penalty is December 5, 2011.

Tests and Exams: The midterm test and final exam will consist of various types of questions, but certainly slide identification and essay questions. No aids will be allowed during tests and exams. Make-up tests will only be given for valid, documented medical reasons. The professor must be informed of such cases immediately. Make-up tests are normally scheduled within one week of the original test and at the professor's convenience. Students must produce their Carleton Student ID card at the final exam.

Research Assignments: Students may develop their own essay topic IN CONSULTATION WITH THE PROFESSOR. All topics must be approved by the professor by October 5, 2011. Students are encouraged to meet with the professor to develop an appropriate topic.

I do not accept or grade essays on topics that have not been approved.

Your research bibliography and essay must be submitted in hard copy. I do not accept electronic submissions. These requirements are due by the end of their respective classes. If they are not in my hands by the time I leave the classroom on those dates, they will be considered late and a penalty will be assessed (see below). If you drop them off in ANY departmental drop box, or give them to an Administrative Assistant, I will consider them to have been handed in on the date that I receive them.

Carleton University – College of the Humanities
Greek and Roman Studies Program

Late policy: The penalty for late submission is 10% subtracted from the grade for each working day late (ie. 1 day = minus 10%; 2 days = minus 20%; 3 days = minus 30%; 4 days = minus 40%; 5 days = minus 50%). After five days, the late work will receive a mark of zero.

Academic offences: All students are expected to know what constitutes an academic offence, to avoid committing academic offences, and to take responsibility for their academic actions. When the commission of an offence (such as plagiarism, cheating, improper research, obstructing academic activity, double submission, unauthorized collaboration, impersonation, falsification etc.) is established, penalties will be imposed in accordance with the regulations of the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences.

The minimum penalty assigned to any requirement in this course that is affected by an academic offence will be a mark of zero for the work.

Information about academic offences and student discipline can be found in the university calendar under Student Conduct (Section 14.0 Academic Integrity). If you need help in learning how to avoid academic offences or clarification of aspects of the discipline policy, ask the professor!

WebCT: This course will be supported by the WebCT Course Management System. Marks will be posted on WebCT. Email correspondence with the professor should be carried out through the WebCT email system. I will NOT reply to messages from other email addresses. Students are responsible for reading and responding appropriately to all information posted on WebCT. Information on WebCT will be considered to have been released to all registered students within 24 hours of posting.

REGULATIONS COMMON TO ALL HUMANITIES COURSES

COPIES OF WRITTEN WORK SUBMITTED

Always retain for yourself a copy of all essays, term papers, written assignments or take-home tests submitted in your courses.

PLAGIARISM

The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in “substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.”

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course
