Generic Calendar Blurb: A study of a period or theme in the art and archaeology of Ancient Greece. Topics may vary from year to year.

Anti-requisite: precludes additional credit for RELI 3731 and ARTH 3101 and RELI 3306 (if taken in summer 2005, 2006, or 2007).

Prerequisite: second year standing or permission of the unit. Permission of the unit is required to repeat this course.

Topic for fall 2018: We examine the form and function of the sanctuary in Greek culture focusing on the Archaic to Classical period (roughly 800-300 BC). Archaeological evidence (art and architecture) is used to reconstruct this essential element of ancient city-states. History of excavation, religious ideology and practice will also be addressed. Ancient sources will be read in English and discussed where relevant.

Text: John Pedley, Sanctuaries and the Sacred in the Ancient Greek World (Cambridge, 2005).

Mandatory readings in the Homeric Hymns to Apollo and Demeter are posted on cuLearn.

Requirements:

Essay Lecture (Oct. 1).....	minus 5% penalty if not present
Midterm Test (entire class Oct. 17).....	25%
Research Project: get topic approved by October 1 st
Research Bibliography (due Nov. 5).....	15%
Essay (due Nov. 28).....	30%
Final Exam (2 hours, exam period Dec. 2018).....	30%

The final date for voluntary withdrawal without academic penalty is December 7, 2018.

Test and Exam: The midterm test and final exam include short answer, slide identification, and essay questions. No aids will be allowed during tests and exams. A make-up midterm will only be given for valid, documented reasons. The professor must be informed within 3 days of the test. A make-up test is normally scheduled within one week of the original test and at the professor's convenience. Students must produce their Carleton Student ID at the final exam.

Research Project: Students may develop their own essay topic IN CONSULTATION WITH THE PROFESSOR. All topics must be approved by the professor by October 1, 2018. Research on a topic that has not been approved will not be accepted or graded.

The research bibliography and essay must be submitted in hard copy. The penalty for late submission will be 10% subtracted from the grade for each working day late:

ie. 1 day = minus 10%; 2 days = minus 20%; 3 days = minus 30%; 4 days = minus 40%; 5 days = minus 50%). After five days, the late work will receive a mark of zero.

Academic offences: All students are expected to know what constitutes an academic offence, to avoid committing academic offences, and to take responsibility for their academic actions. Academic offences include things like plagiarism, cheating, improper research, obstructing academic activity, double submission, unauthorized cooperation / collaboration, impersonation, falsification etc. When the commission of an academic offence is established, disciplinary penalties will be imposed in accordance with the regulations of the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences.

Carleton University – College of the Humanities
Greek and Roman Studies Program

A normal penalty for a first offence is a mark of zero for the work that is affected. Stiffer penalties may be imposed, and are normal for subsequent offences.

Information about academic offences and student discipline can be found in the university calendar under Student Conduct (Section 14.0 Academic Integrity). This policy can be read in full online at: <http://calendar.carleton.ca/undergrad/regulations/academicregulationsoftheuniversity/acadregsuni14/>
If you need help in learning how to avoid academic offences or clarification of aspects of the discipline policy, ask the professor!

PLEASE NOTE: This course uses cuLearn, Carleton’s learning management system, accessed at <http://carleton.ca/culearn>. Information posted on cuLearn includes the syllabus and course regulations, slides for review, a list of terms, course information and announcements, and all grades.

Marks in this course will be released only through cuLearn. Information provided on cuLearn is considered to have been provided to all registered students within 24 hours of posting. Students are responsible for reading and responding appropriately to all information distributed through cuLearn.

Academic Integrity at Carleton

Plagiarism is presenting, whether intentionally or not, the ideas, expression of ideas, or work of others as one's own. Plagiarism includes reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else's published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one's own without proper citation or reference to the original source. Examples of sources from which the ideas, expressions of ideas or works of others may be drawn from include but are not limited to: books, articles, papers, literary compositions and phrases, performance compositions, chemical compounds, art works, laboratory reports, research results, calculations and the results of calculations, diagrams, constructions, computer reports, computer code/software, and material on the internet. More information can be found here.

Academic Accommodation Policy

Academic Accommodation

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy obligation: write to the instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details see the Student Guide

Religious obligation: write to the instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details see the Student Guide

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).

Grading System at Carleton University

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor, subject to the approval of the faculty Dean. Standing in courses will be shown by alphabetical grades. The system of grades used, with corresponding grade points and the percentage conversion is below. Grade points indicated are for courses with 1.0 credit value. Where the course credit is greater or less than one credit, the grade points are adjusted proportionately.

Course Sharing Websites and Copyright

Classroom teaching and learning activities, including lectures, discussions, presentations, etc., by both instructors and students, are copy protected and remain the intellectual property of their respective author(s). All course materials, including PowerPoint presentations, outlines, and other materials, are also protected by copyright and remain the intellectual property of their respective author(s).

Students registered in the course may take notes and make copies of course materials for their own educational use only. Students are not permitted to reproduce or distribute lecture notes and course materials publicly for commercial or non-commercial purposes without express written consent from the copyright holder(s).

Statement on Class Conduct

The Carleton University Human Rights Policies and Procedures affirm that all members of the University community share a responsibility to:

- promote equity and fairness,
- respect and value diversity,
- prevent discrimination and harassment, and preserve the freedom of its members to carry out responsibly their scholarly work without threat of interference.

Deferred Term Work

In some situations, students are unable to complete term work because of illness or other circumstances beyond their control, which forces them to delay submission of the work.

Students who claim illness, injury or other extraordinary circumstances beyond their control as a reason for missed term work are held responsible for immediately informing the instructor concerned and for making alternate arrangements with the instructor and in all cases this must occur no later than three (3.0) working days after the term work was due.

The alternate arrangement must be made before the last day of classes in the term as published in the academic schedule. Normally, any deferred term work will be completed by the last day of term. More information is available in the calendar.

Deferred Final Exams

Students who are unable to write a final examination because of a serious illness/emergency or other circumstances beyond their control may apply for accommodation. Normally, the accommodation for a missed final examination will be granting the student the opportunity to write a deferred examination. In specific cases when it is not possible to offer a deferred examination, and with the approval of the Dean, an alternate accommodation may be made. More information.

The application for a deferral must:

1. be made in writing or online to the Registrar's Office no later than three working days after the original final examination or the due date of the take-home examination; and,
2. be fully supported by appropriate documentation and, in cases of illness, by a medical certificate dated no later than one working day after the examination, or by appropriate documents in other cases. Medical documents must specify the date of the onset of the illness, the (expected) date of recovery, and the extent to which the student was/is incapacitated during the time of the examination. The University's preferred medical form can be found at the Registrar's Office forms and fees page.

Any questions related to deferring a Final Exam or Final Assignment/Take Home Examination should be directed to the Registrar's Office.

Withdrawal From Courses

Withdrawn. No academic credit, no impact on the CGPA. WDN is a permanent notation that appears on the official transcript for students who withdraw after the full fee adjustment date in each term (noted in the Academic Year section of the Calendar each term). Students may withdraw on or before the last day of classes.

Important dates can be found here:

Financial vs. Academic Withdrawal

Make sure that you are aware of the separate deadlines for Financial and Academic withdrawal!

Making registration decisions in Carleton Central involves making a financial and academic commitment for the courses you choose, regardless of attendance. If you do not attend – you must withdraw in Carleton Central within the published deadlines to cancel your registration. More information
