YOUR PROFESSORS:

As the Jewish Studies specialist of the Religion Program, Professor Deidre Butler brings together her general expertise in Jewish Studies and Religion with an emphasis on contemporary Jewish life, modern Jewish thought, Holocaust, and gender and sexuality. Come to professor Butler with general questions about Jewish belief and practice, rabbinic texts and halakha, general Jewish history ancient to modern, modern Judaism and Jewish thought (including Zionism), modern Israel, Holocaust, gender and sexuality, Christianity, Islam. She will be grading all assignments on modern topics and is the contact person for blogs and videoblogs.

Professor Shawna Dolansky is an expert on the history, literature, and religion of ancient Israel as well as more generally the ancient Near East, and studies the Bible in this context from a historical-critical perspective. Come to professor Dolansky with questions about the ancient world; the Bible; history of interpretation in Judaism, Christianity, and Islam; rabbinic Judaism; Judaism and Christianity in antiquity; archaeology; and Jewish mysticism. She will be grading assignments on ancient and late antique topics.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

This travel course includes travel in Israel from May 4-27 with course requirements beginning before travel.

Course meetings include:

Feb 9, 2014: Israel Culture Night: Israeli Food and Culture with Representatives of the Israeli Embassy

March 19, 2014: Lectures by Butler and Dolansky, Legal information by Tony Lackey

March 26, 2014: Public Lecture by Dr. Dan Chiyutin,

April 30, 2014: 1-4pm, location TBA, last minute travel talk

Style: Use Chicago Manual of Style for citations (Humanities style with Bibliography)

30% Participation: Participation in this travel course includes pre-course activities, being helpful and responsive to pre-course requests, meeting deadlines, as well as your participation while we travel.

- 10% Course travel participation includes being a good travel companion and keeping an eye out for your fellow travelers: positive attitude while traveling, arriving at meeting points on time, not delaying the group, being helpful with others and assisting with ensuring others' safety, being responsible for your own safety and maintaining good communications with the group and your professors. If you miss a group departure it is your responsibility to get yourself to the group by whatever means necessary.
- 20% Course academic participation includes being a positive and engaged student: enthusiastically and fully participating in lectures, discussions, site visits, being attentive and contributing thoughtfully during student presentations, preparation for course discussions by preparing readings in advance.

20% Presentation or Web page: You have the choice of either giving a presentation while we are traveling or developing a web page. Extra research is not required but recommended and will raise your grade. An A grade is only possible with extra outside research that enhances our understanding of the sites visited.

Presentation: SIGN UP FOR TOPIC AS OF MARCH 19

These presentations happen on the bus or when possible on site. Plan to present an overview of all of the readings quickly, especially things specific about what we are about to see, and lead the discussion based on readings. Optional extra research should be posted on the course website as a bibliographic entry AND if possible as a link if online.

- 15% Presentation content, presentation style/skills, comprehension of readings, original insight, connection to major course questions/themes, relevance to course questions, encouraging participation.
- 5% Presentation handout (minimum 1 page, max 2, bring with you already printed AND send to Jordan to post on web site as a pdf) Should include your name, readings/sites you are referencing, outlines of major concepts, relevant dates, definitions, quotes, images, discussion questions for the group, plus optional outside research annotated bibliography and overview if you are doing outside research. Handout must be complete and submitted by May 1 at the latest.
- If you are ill the day of the presentation and you cannot make it up because of time constraints in our schedule you are responsible to write a replacement 5 page essay due June 1.
- Possible topics: On a particular site we are visiting, a central course question or theme that is connected to readings and/or site visit.

Webpage: SIGN UP FOR SITE AS OF MARCH 19

Focusing on one particular site: including images and or video, your own original researched and cited text, bibliography and links.

- 10% web page due before we leave. Equivalent to 2 pages of text. Must be up and running before we leave. Send link to Jordan (and cc professors) to be put up on course web site. We are looking for a scholarly travel site integrating information about the site, with images and links, with your original analysis of relevant course readings and optional outside research. You may also choose a major course question or theme to frame your site and discussion.
- 10% After we return, complete assignment by adding your own images plus personal reflections update based on personal visit. (minimum 2 page of text). Final version must be online by June 4 with a 10% late penalty per day.

50% Blogs or Research paper

You have the choice of completing blogs or a research paper for this course. Both options require preparation before we leave, outside research, addressing required readings and the lectures, discussions, and sites we visited while we travel.

BLOGS: Choice of all text blogs or combination of text and video blogs. There are 14 days of traveling to sites when you can blog and we require you to blog for half of them (7).

- Grading: Each blog is worth 7% where $7 \times 7\% + 1\% \text{ bonus} = 50\%$ of your final grade. Up to 3 of the blogs may be video blogs. Half of each blog grade is based on readings, half is based on critically engaging the site and placing that discussion in the context of the learning you are doing through traveling.
- Extra Blogs for Participation: Anyone, including students completing Research paper may blog for extra participation (video or text). Please email us at the end of the course summarizing any extra work you have done that should receive extra credit.
- Deadlines: Blogs are due 48 hours after the day of travel you are blogging about. If you are blogging about May 10, the blog is due online by 9pm on May 12. Every extra day adds a 5% late penalty. Blogs will not be accepted if they are more than one week late.
- Length: Video blogs should be 3 minutes of talk time plus picture/video time. Try not to exceed 3 minutes. Text blogs should be 3 pages long.
- Content: Half of the content should be based on the readings and the sites for that day. Half of your material will be based on actually visiting the site and seeing it for yourself. This will allow you to discuss details you hadn't known, and integrate your discussion within what you are learning throughout the course. We are looking for comprehension, clear, well organized writing, critical reading and writing skills, original analysis, integrating your discussion within the context of course materials, lectures, travel, course questions/themes.
- Tone: Blogs are naturally less formal, but you still must demonstrate real critical thinking, seriously addressing the material, illustrating your ability to integrate readings, lectures, what you are seeing. Don't say "here is the Temple Mount" show us how you are thinking about it in terms of the course.
- Work before you fly: We strongly advise that you prep your blogs (video or text) before you leave. Choose the sites you are most interested in (or the day of travel). Read the required readings and as much of the suggested readings as you can. Write the first 1.5 pages of the blog or script for your video so that all you need to do while traveling is respond to what you are seeing that day.
- Training on video blogging: We will host a training session on videoblogging for interested students. Sign up March 19.

Research paper:

Length: 20 pages

This is a research paper that integrates a sustained argument about the research findings. We do not want to see a report or a summary of the references you consulted. Topics to be chosen from the list below. Please be in touch with the professors for research suggestions for the topic you choose, although responsibility for thorough research lies with the student.

Project proposal: 10%

Due Date: April 11

The proposal will be worth 10% of the 50% allocated to the research paper in your final course grade. It should include your name, title of paper, a 200 word description of your topic, and the research question you are investigating.

Annotated bibliography: 10%

Due April 11 with your proposal

The annotated bibliography will be worth another 10% of the 50% allocated to the research paper in your final course grade. It should follow the Chicago Manual of Style. It should list all resources you are consulting toward your research paper, with annotations that include what the reference is about, but more importantly why it is important to your project. There should be a minimum of 10 sources listed, of which no more than 5 may be assigned course readings.

REGULATIONS COMMON TO ALL HUMANITIES COURSES

COPIES OF WRITTEN WORK SUBMITTED

Always retain for yourself a copy of all essays, term papers, written assignments or take-home tests submitted in your courses.

PLAGIARISM

The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in “substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.”

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course

GRADING SYSTEM

Letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

| | | |
|------------------|----------------|-----------------|
| A+ = 90-100 (12) | B = 73-76 (8) | C - = 60-62 (4) |
| A = 85-89 (11) | B- = 70-72 (7) | D+ = 57-59 (3) |
| A- = 80-84 (10) | C+ = 67-69 (6) | D = 53-56 (2) |
| B+ = 77-79 (9) | C = 63-66 (5) | D - = 50-52 (1) |

|-----|--|
| F | Failure. Assigned 0.0 grade points |
| ABS | Absent from final examination, equivalent to F |
| DEF | Official deferral (see "Petitions to Defer") |
| FND | Failure with no deferred exam allowed -- assigned only when the student has failed the course on the basis of inadequate term work as specified in the course outline. |

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean.

DATES AND DEADLINES

Last day to withdraw (financial): with a full fee adjustment

Early Summer: May 23. Full Summer May 23.

Late Summer: July 23.

Last Day to withdraw (Academic):

Early Summer June 17. Full/Late Summer: August 15.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term.

<http://carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/academic/>

For an accommodation request the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy obligation: contact the instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist

Religious obligation: contact the instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist.

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).

PETITIONS TO DEFER

If you miss a final examination and/or fail to submit a FINAL assignment by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control, you may apply a deferral of examination/assignment. If you are applying for a deferral due to illness you will be required to see a physician in order to confirm illness and obtain a medical certificate dated no later than one working day after the examination or assignment deadline. This supporting documentation must specify the date of onset of the illness, the degree of incapacitation, and the expected date of recovery.

If you are applying for a deferral for reasons other than personal illness, please contact the Registrar’s Office directly for information on other forms of documentation that we accept.

Deferrals of assignments must be supported by confirmation of the assignment due date, for example a copy of the course outline specifying the due date and any documented extensions from the course instructor.

Deferral applications for examination or assignments must be submitted within 5 working days of the original final exam.
