Course Description

This seminar offers an in-depth look at the main theoretical and methodological problems which inform the academic study of religion. We will pay particular attention to the genesis of the modern discipline of religious studies, and will go on to examine the findings of the most influential theorists in the field, from Emile Durkheim and William James, to Mircea Eliade and Henry Corbin.

Book Report Guidelines

Instructions

Carefully read Michael Sell’s Mystical Languages of Unsaying. After you have completed the book, proceed to type up a report on it (see below for formatting guidelines). The first part of the report must thoroughly summarize the book’s underlying argument(s). The second part must offer an analysis of the author’s argument(s). This assignment is designed to provide you with an opportunity to think critically about this important book. It will also help hone your academic writing skills. Moreover, close study of this text will prove to be very beneficial in preparing for your essay and presentation.

Method of Evaluation

The report is out of 30, and is worth 30% of the total course mark. For a good mark, you have to (1) follow the format guidelines to a tee; (2) offer an effective summary of the text; and, most importantly, (3) demonstrate to me, through your analysis of the work, that you have given considerable thought to the issue(s) raised by the author.

Due Date

Book reports are due at the beginning of class on October 16th, 2013. Emailed versions of the assignment are not acceptable.

Penalties

Reports not handed in on the due date will receive a mark of zero. Absolutely no exceptions will be made to this rule. Papers submitted late due to a medical or other compassionate reason must be accompanied by relevant documentation (i.e., a medical certificate, etc.). Plagiarized reports will be assigned a zero, and the issue will be taken up with the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences.

Format Guidelines

1. Your report should be 8 full pages in length, double spaced, and written in Times New Roman font (size 12). It must use the normal page layout which comes standard on all Word programs, and page numbers must be on the bottom right corner of the page.

2. Diction is to be formal, and each piece is to be written in Canadian English. Grammar, syntax, spelling, and style must be impeccable. You may write in the first person.
3. At the top right of the first page of your report, include the course code, your student number, full name, and the assignment’s due date. This should be in Times New Roman font (size 12).

4. At the top left of the first page of your report, include the main title of the book in italics, Times New Roman font (size 12).

5. All paragraphs—except the first paragraph of your piece—must be indented. Every paragraph of the paper—including isolated quotations—must be justified. This can easily be done by using the “paragraph” function on your Word program.

6. There are to be no title pages, footnotes, endnotes, or bibliographies. If you want to directly cite the book in your report, provide the passage in quotation marks, and then, in brackets directly following the quoted passage, include the page number, preceded by a “p.” For example, (p. 29).

7. If you cite from the book, do not put your quotations in italics, bold, or a combination of the two. Sentences which are more than 3 lines long are to be isolated, single spaced, and reduced to font size 11 with their margins indented to 1 inch on both the right and left. This can easily be done by using the “paragraph” function on your Word program.
Paper and Presentation Guidelines

Instructions

1. Select any single, major theorist of religion in consultation with the Professor.

2. After you have read enough of your selected figure’s work, as well as the relevant secondary literature on him/her, write an essay that addresses any aspect of his/her theory of religion.

3. Your presentation will offer the class a precise of the more detailed findings outlined in your essay.

Presentations

Presentations will roughly be 15 minutes long, and will aim to explain the scope and content of your essay in any fashion you deem suitable. Presentations will be graded out of 25, and are worth 25% of the total course mark. They will be held in class on November 20th and November 27th, 2013 (a presentation date sign-up sheet will be distributed towards the beginning of the course).

Penalties

Presentations not given on their respective due dates will receive a mark of zero. Absolutely no exceptions will be made to this rule. Delays in presenting due to medical or other compassionate reasons must be accompanied by relevant documentation (i.e., medical certificates, etc.).

Papers

Essays are graded out of 45, and are worth 45% of the total course mark. Each essay will be evaluated in terms of (1) the clarity of its thesis, (2) the coherence of its argument(s), (3) thoughtful reflection on the subject matter, and (4) faithful adherence to the content and formatting guidelines mentioned below.

Content

The paper must have a clear thesis which is defended consistently throughout. An essay without a thesis cannot receive more than a C+. A thesis essentially summarizes, in one or several sentences, the entire point of your essay. It is simply not enough to say “I am going to talk about x, y, and z”; you must be more specific than that. A good thesis should be concise and straightforward, and must endeavour to prove a point: “In this essay, I am going to demonstrate that x because of y and z.” You may not use the wording of this example in your essay.

Please note that you must keep biographical information to a minimum—i.e., a one page summary of your selected figure’s life and work should suffice. Any other historical information that has a direct bearing upon the presentation of your selected figure’s theory of religion can, of course, be integrated into the fabric of your essay in any way you deem suitable.

Due Date

Essays are due at the beginning of class on December 4th, 2013. Emailed versions of the essay are not acceptable.

Penalties

Essays not handed in on the due date will receive a mark of zero. Absolutely no exceptions will be made to this rule. Papers submitted late due to a medical or other compassionate reason must be accompanied by relevant documentation (i.e., a medical certificate, etc.). Plagiarized essays will be assigned a zero, and the issue will be taken up with the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences.

Form

1. Essays are to be between 15 and 20 full pages in length (excluding the title page and bibliography). They are to be double spaced, and written in Times New Roman font (size 12). You must use the normal page layout which comes standard on all Word programs.

2. Diction is to be formal, and the essay is to be written in Canadian English. Grammar, syntax, spelling, and style must be impeccable. You may write in the first person.

3. All paragraphs—except the first paragraph of your essay—must be indented. Every paragraph in your essay—including isolated quotations and footnotes—must be justified. This can easily be done by using the “paragraph” function on your Word program.

4. Use footnotes as opposed to endnotes and/or internal citations. Footnotes are to be single spaced and written in Times New Roman font (size 10). A bibliography must be appended to the essay. Your method of citation will follow the rules laid out in the latest edition of the Chicago Manual of Style.

5. Do not put your quotations in italics, bold, or a combination of the two. Sentences which are more than 3 lines long are to be isolated, single spaced, and reduced to font size 11 with their margins indented to 1 inch on both the right and left. This can easily be done by using the “paragraph” function on your Word program.

6. Your essay must have a title page. All pages—excluding the title page and bibliography—are to be numbered at the bottom right corner of the page.
Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties can range from a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when the student has failed the course on the basis of the original final exam. The ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as unintentional can be presented, whether in the original or in the course submitted in your courses.

Always retain for yourself a copy of all essays, term papers, written assignments or take-home tests submitted in your courses.

The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in “substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.”

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course

GRADING SYSTEM

FAILING AN ASSIGNMENT

If you miss a final examination and/or fail to submit a FINAL assignment by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control, you may apply for a deferral of examination/assignment.

If you are applying for a deferral due to illness you will be required to see a physician in order to confirm illness and obtain a medical certificate dated no later than one working day after the examination or assignment deadline. This supporting documentation must specify the date of onset of the illness, the degree of incapacitation, and the expected date of recovery. If you are applying for a deferral for reasons other than personal illness, please contact the Registrar’s Office directly for information on other forms of documentation that we accept. Deferrals of assignments must be supported by confirmation of the assignment due date, for example a copy of the course outline specifying the due date and any documented extensions from the course instructor.

Deferral applications for examination or assignments must be submitted within 5 working days of the original final exam.

REQUESTS FOR ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term because of disability, pregnancy or religious obligations. Please review the course outline promptly and write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. You can visit the Equity Services website to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation at: carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/

Students with disabilities requiring academic accommodations in this course must register with the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) for a formal evaluation of disability-related needs. Documented disabilities could include but not limited to mobility/physical impairments, specific Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/psychological disabilities, sensory disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), and chronic medical conditions. Registered PMC students are required to contact the PMC, 613-520-6608, every term to ensure that your Instructor receives your Letter of Accommodation, no later than two weeks before the first assignment is due or the first in-class test/midterm requiring accommodations. If you only require accommodations for your formally scheduled exam(s) in this course, please submit your request for accommodations to PMC by Nov. 8, 2013 for the Fall term and March 7, 2014 for the Winter term. For more details visit the Equity Services website: carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/
