

From Moses to Malcolm X: The Narratives of Religious Founders

This fourth-year seminar in Religious Studies will consider the forces that motivate and shape the generation of founder narratives in religious movements around the world and throughout time: social memory, historiography, nostalgia, reverence, contestation, social identity formation, and so on.

RELI 4850 – Wednesdays 8:30-11:30am (Winter Term)