Policy: Carleton University shall confer the honorary rank of Canada Research Professor upon a Carleton University professor who completes in good standing his/her full term and reappointment as a Canada Research Chair, either Tier I or Tier II, at the University.

Purpose
The purpose of this policy is to:

a) acknowledge the accomplishments of a Canada Research Chair who has completed his/her full appointment in good standing; and

b) advance Carleton University’s national and international reputation as a research-intensive University.

Scope and Term
This policy shall apply to a Canada Research Chair who continues to hold a professorial appointment at Carleton University upon successful conclusion of his/her term and reappointment as a Canada Research Chair at Carleton University.

This shall be a permanent appointment and shall continue until the Carleton professor retires.

Procedures
This honorary rank shall be conferred upon a professor who successfully completes his/her term and reappointment as a Canada Research Chair and continues to hold a professorial appointment at Carleton University by the Provost and Vice-President (Academic) upon the recommendation of the Vice-President (Research and International).
