ANNEXE II – COURS THÉOLOGIE

Côte du cours :	DTHI 4567
Section :	A
Crédit :	1
Titre complet
Le désir dans la vie spirituelle
Titre long – base de données (max. : 100 caractères incl. les espaces et la ponctuation)
Le désir dans la vie spirituelle
Titre – relevé de notes (max. : 30 caractères incluant les espaces et la ponctuation)
Le désir dans la vie spirituelle
Description du cours
Depuis la fin du Moyen Âge beaucoup d'occidentaux se sont méfiés de leurs désirs. Aujourd'hui, c'est le contraire : beaucoup de chrétiens et de non-chrétiens essaient de satisfaire tous leurs désirs. Ce cours cherchera à justifier un usage raisonnable et joyeux des désirs, qui tienne compte d'un sens religieux.

Madame,

As requested by you to the Registrar of DUC, please find below this excerpt from a zoom meeting of the conseil des études (academic council):

"Lors de sa dernière rencontre, le conseil a approuvé le nouveau cours pour le semestre d'été 2024 (DTHI 4567 Le désir dans la vie spirituelle 1 crédit) et sa description. Les autres cours avaient déjà été approuvés par le passé ainsi que leurs descriptions."

Maxime Allard
Vice-Président aux affaires universitaires

Dominican University College Minor Modifications¹

Dominican University College is affiliated with Carleton University for the purposes of academic quality assurance. Carleton University's Institutional Quality Assurance Process is applicable to all non-vocational degree programs offered by Dominican University College.

¹ Carleton University's Vice-Provost and Associate Vice-President (Academic) and Dominican University College's Vice President Academic Affairs will meet as necessary to determine which program changes are major and which are minor.

² The Office of the Vice-Provost and Associate Vice-President (Academic) reserves the right to forward minor modifications to the Senate Quality Assurance and Planning Committee if it feels that useful advice and/or comment could be provided to Dominican University College.
