POSITION DESCRIPTION
ALTERNATIVE SPRING BREAK TEAM LEADER

Position Title: Alternative Spring Break Team Leader

Department: Student Experience Office (SEO)

Term of Position: October 14th, 2023 – March 29th, 2024 (approximately 5-10 hours/week)
Trip Dates – February 17th – 25th, 2024

This position will require work during some evenings and/or weekends to accommodate student schedules.

Remuneration: Team Leaders will receive $250 towards the cost of participating in the program.

Leaders are responsible for their remaining participation cost, as well as insurance (travel and health insurance is required), travel doctor appointments, and any vaccinations necessary for travel.

The Student Experience Office (SEO) provides transitional support for new undergraduate students and engagement programming for current undergraduate students. The Community Engaged-Learning (CEL) portfolio of the SEO is comprised of co-curricular programs aimed at promoting experiential, community-based learning – emphasizing reflection, action, and real-world engagement.

Alternative Spring Break (ASB) is an immersive CEL program that connects students with international and domestic partner communities. Over the winter reading week (February 2024) – students will explore the social, environmental, and economic challenges impacting their partner community while supporting meaningful community-led projects.

Students spend months actively preparing for their reading week experience by attending pre-departure sessions, conducting research, participating in local community-engaged learning, and fundraising for their trip.

POSITION SUMMARY:

Reporting to the Student Development and Community Outreach Coordinator, Team Leaders should be full-time Carleton University students who will work in cooperation with two Team Advisors and, one other Team Leader, to guide up to 16 Student Participants through the ASB program.
