

SEO

Student Experience Office.
430 Tory Building

Summer Orientation

Summer
Orientation
2018

Carleton has many intramural teams such as Badminton, Ball Hockey, Basketball, Dodgeball, Flag Football, Ice Hockey, Soccer, Tennis, Ultimate Frisbee and Volleyball.

Did
You
KNOW

Disposable batteries, rechargeable batteries, printer toner cartridges, and cell phones can all be recycled at four depots around the Carleton University campus.

Did
You
KNOW

Every January, the Student Experience Office hosts the SOAR! Student Leadership Conference, where students are challenged and inspired to develop their leadership skills. The conference also hosts a keynote speaker. Last year's keynote speaker was Chris Hadfeild!

Did
You
KNOW

The Canadian Water Network (CWN) is funding two Carleton professors, Dr. Edward Lai (Department of Chemistry) and Dr. Banu Ormeci (Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering), to continue their innovative research to find better ways to produce safer drinking water and wastewater.

Did
You
KNOW

CUSA's REC Hall (Race, Ethnicity, and Culture Hall) strives to ensure an all inclusive and interactive environment promoting the respect, recognition, and appreciation of racial, ethnic and cultural differences further meeting the needs of a diverse, ethnic and multicultural student body.

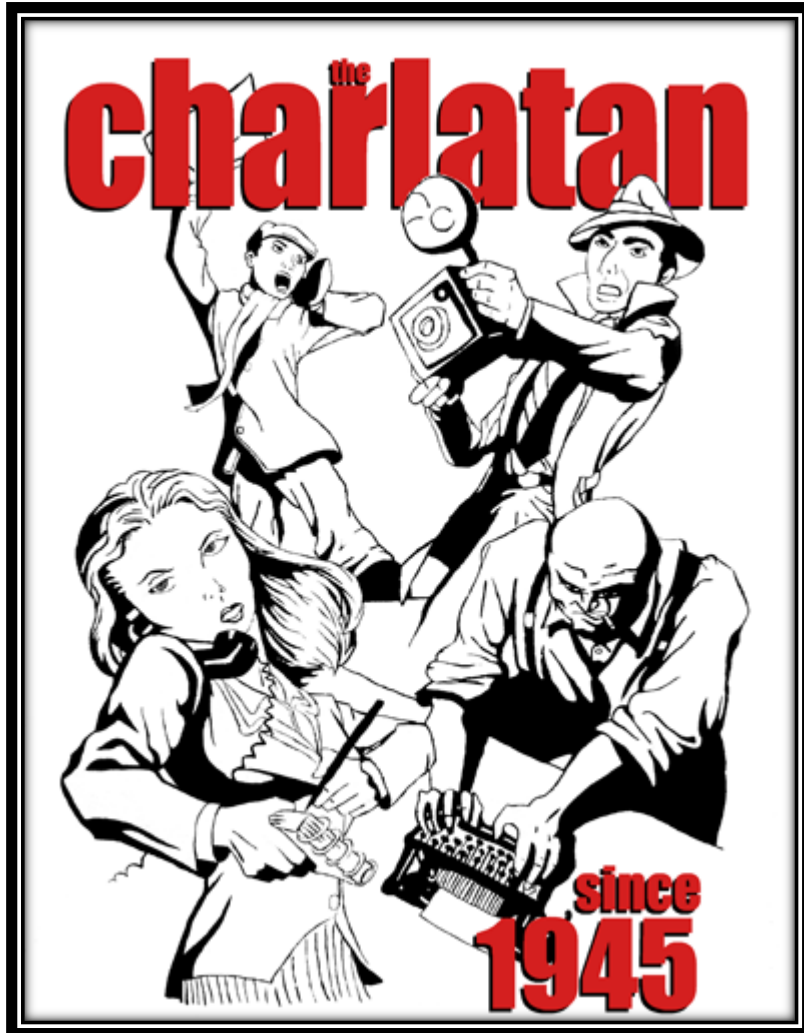

Did
You
KNOW

“My participation with ASB allowed me the opportunity to have an international experience while being a student. With the support of my team and the community, I learned so much about the community we stayed in, the wonderful individuals I worked with and I also learned a lot about myself. It was rewarding, encouraging and an amazing learning experience that was unique in so many ways.”

Becca- Alternative Spring Break Participant and Team Leader

Did
You
KNOW

The Charlatan is Carleton University's weekly independent, student-run newspaper.

Did
You
KNOW

Last year over 150 students participated in Carleton Serves, in which they provides a day of service at 17 community partners

Did
You
KNOW

Summer Orientation Leader Spotlight

Did you know?

Albert is the Assistant Director for the Campus Activity Board (CAB) this upcoming year!

Ask him about events and how to get involved with CAB.

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton has a 50-metre, L-shaped swimming pool that features a diving area with a 3-platform Olympic diving tower, 1 metre springboard, a slide, a bubbler, and a swing rope!

Did
You
KNOW

EPIC BINGO

Mar 28th
UC Food Court
9pm

CAMPUS ACTIVITY BOARD

C Campus Activity Board.
STUDENT EXPERIENCE OFFICE

carleton.ca/CAB
/carletonSEO
@carletonSEO
@carletonSEO

Shinerama
STUDENTS FIGHTING CYSTIC FIBROSIS

Bring donations for Carleton Shinerama!

The Campus Activity Board (CAB) runs events for students throughout the year! The events are on campus and are completely free! Past events have included movie nights, epic bingo, and video game days.

Did You KNOW

Allegro (1997) by Rita Letendre, Carleton University Art Gallery. Donated by the artist, 1998.

Carleton University has an Art Gallery on Campus! Visit the Gallery in the St. Patrick's Building.

Did
You
KNOW

Fall Orientation takes over the streets of Ottawa on September 7th for Shine Day

Join us as we sing, dance, strum and shine our way to our goal for cystic fibrosis research and care.

#CUShine

Did
You
KNOW

Ashkan Golshani, a biology professor at Carleton University, is looking at turning food into medicine. His research proposes to create foods that have increased beneficial compounds so they could replace certain pharmaceuticals and medicines.

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton's Co-Curricular Record acts as a database which catalogues all of your extra-curricular activities at Carleton University! You can use it to compliment your transcript and submit along with your resume to jobs and to graduate schools.

Did
You
KNOW

“I have always felt totally supported as a Carleton student. When I needed to dedicate more time to various courses, I turned to the Peer Assisted Study Sessions. When I was preparing for job interviews. When I had questions about my residency in Canada, the International Student Services Office provided me with important information. And when I needed to take a break from the books, my intramural soccer teams and yoga classes in Athletics were the perfect outlets. These resources have helped me lead a well-rounded and balanced university life.”

Kathleen - Public Affairs and Policy Management Graduate

Did
You
KNOW

All wet food waste from Residence Commons is sent for composting.

Bio-degradable cutlery was introduced and bio-degradable and recyclable packaging is used in most of the outlets.

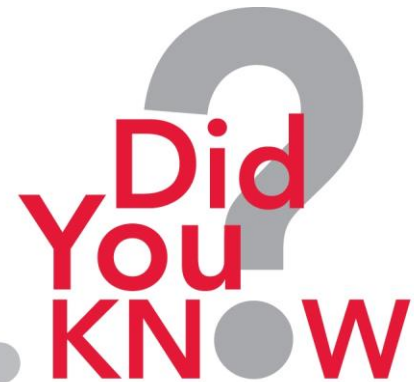

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton has tons of school spirit!

Every Friday is Spirit day and students are encouraged to wear their Ravens gear!

Students who wear any Carleton Gear on Friday's will receive prizes and discounts at various locations for showing their CU Spirit!

Carleton Immersive Media Studio (CIMS) is a Carleton University research centre dedicated to the advanced study of innovative, hybrid forms of representation that can both reveal the invisible measures of architecture and animate the visible world of construction.

Did
You
KNOW

Dr. Ata Khan, a Carleton Engineering professor, was presented with a lifetime achievement award by the Canadian Institute of Transportation Engineers (CITE) in 2009.

Did
You
KNOW

In 2009, Carleton University and The Batawa Development Corporation (BDC) formed a unique partnership called the Batawa Initiative to help the village of Batawa create a sustainable community model for the world. Twenty-seven Architecture and Industrial Design students spent several weeks developing new designs and plans for the village's old shoe factory and the surrounding village.

Did
You
KNOW

Summer Orientation Leader Spotlight

Did you know?

Brier worked as Residence Fellow and Community Developer!

Ask her about ways to get involved in the residence community.

Did
You
KNOW

“Graduation is important – but it’s not the only thing to focus on. University is about expanding your perspective and making meaningful connections with others and there are so many ways that you can do that at Carleton. Everyone’s university experience is different; it’s up to you to decide how you want to shape your time here and how you are going to make your mark.”

- Jen Sugar, Director of Admissions

Did
You
KNOW

“Carleton has a thriving Campus to Community Program in which teams of students partner with various community organizations across the city for an afternoon of service-learning work. Community partners include local shelters, women’s shelters, school programs, local eco-projects and more. Be part of the impact today and sign up for a Community Day!”

Did
You
KNOW

Explore Geoheritage Day teaches students in Carleton University's Department of Earth Sciences how geological processes have shaped the local landscape and provided resources for our use.

Did
You
KNOW

"Being able to go into a community where people struggled for food and education on a daily basis, but still displayed unconditional love and joy, was life changing. I am grateful that I was able to lend a hand, no matter how small, and create an impact. Every University student should attempt to go on an experience such as ASB."

David, ASB Dominican Republic 2015

Did
You
KNOW

How we learn, remember, perceive and reason will be a core part of Carleton University's new Master of Cognitive Science degree (M.Cog.Sc.)

The first of its kind in Canada!

Did
You
KNOW

CUSA's Womyn's Centre allows people interested in improving the status of women, dispelling stereotypes, and empowering women to use the centre as a route to explore their ideas and turn them into action.

Did
You
KNOW

Summer Orientation Leader Spotlight

Did you know?

Zeinab assisted with the Spirit Day Program this year!

Talk to her about how you can show your Carleton Spirit and get great prizes and discounts!

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton alumna Maude Barlow (BA/74) is co-founder of the Blue Planet Project, which works to stop the commodification of the world's water.

Did
You
KNOW

Students can enjoy the magic of butterflies as they emerge from their chrysalises, and watch hundreds of exotic tropical butterflies fly free in the two greenhouse displays at Carleton's Nesbitt Biology Building in October.

Did
You
KNOW

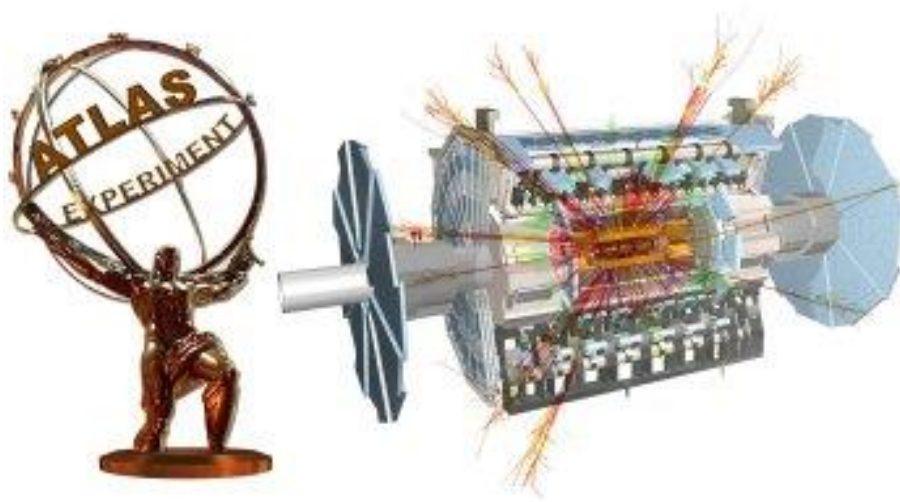

In 2018, more than 800 Carleton University students, faculty, alumni and local community members participated in the annual Carleton University Relay for Life.

The 12-hour overnight charity event for cancer research raised over $142,000

Did
You
KNOW

The Carleton group is working on the ATLAS experiment, one of four large detectors located around the Large Hadron Collider (LHC), which is designed to explore the physics which underlie the behaviour of the building

Did
You
KNOW

Belinda Boekhoven, a doctoral student in Carleton University's psychology department, has published the report Caution! Kids at Play? that examines the shift in child-rearing practices where free time is more strictly organized than in the past.

Carleton alumnus Jean-Pierre de Margerie (MA/92) is part of the United Nations World Food Program which worked in Rwanda amid the genocide of 1994, East Timor during the militia bloodshed, Baghdad after the US invasion, Indonesia after the tsunami, Nepal during its civil war, and North Korea.

Did
You
KNOW

Summer Orientation Leader Spotlight

Did you know?

Chiara has participated in 3 Alternative Spring Break experiences!

Talk to her about how you can apply and experience Community Service Learning.

Did
You
KNOW

The Department of Housing and Residence life services has a therapy dog that visits the Residence Counselling office every week! His name is Blue!

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton University is part of Project Hero, a scholarship to provide financial assistance to children of Canadian Forces personnel killed while serving in an active mission.

Did
You
KNOW

RAVENS

CARLETON UNIVERSITY

In 2017 Six Raven football players were drafted into the CFL! Way to go Nate Behar, Tunde Adeleke, Nathaniel Hamlin, Zach Annen, Kwabena Asare, and Emmanuel Adusei!

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton alumna Lorna de Blicquy (BA/53) was a pioneering aviator (1931-2009) who became the first female pilot Civil Aviation Inspector, the first woman commercial pilot in the high Arctic, and the first Canadian to be inducted into the International Women in Aviation Pioneer Hall of Fame.

Did
You
KNOW

Annick D'Auteuil, who is finishing her PhD in mechanical and aerospace engineering at Carleton, has spent the last four years working with Dr. Guy Larose at the National Research Council Canada (NRC) to help improve the aerodynamics of athletes who are competing in events at both the Olympics and Paralympic Games that require speed.

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton University has established a Sustainable Energy Research Centre (CSERC) that will conduct world-class research into sustainable energy.

CSERC will focus on innovative ways to reduce energy consumption, research and explore emerging renewable energy sources such as wind, solar and biofuels while looking at strategies for using traditional, non-renewable sources effectively and responsibly.

Did
You
KNOW

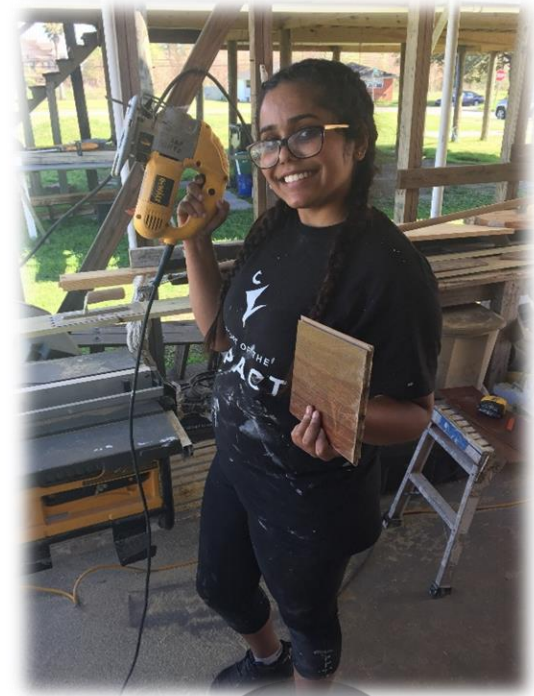

In January 2015, members of the Carleton University United Nations Society participated in the 26th annual Mcgill Model United Nations (McMUN) conference in Montreal. The Carleton United Nations Society international relations debate team took five awards and was ranked the top Canadian university.

Did
You
KNOW

“My experience with Alternative Spring Break was incredible. Coming into ASB I was very scared and nervous because this is unlike anything I have ever done, but by the end of the week I gained great education, amazing friends and an experience that I will never forget. Joining alternative spring break was one of the best decisions I ever made.”

– Debopriya Shome, ASB New Orleans

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton University is one of eight universities and a research group participating in the Canadian Seismic Research Network (CSRN), that will help identify, assess and mitigate urban earthquake risks in Canada.

Did
You
KNOW

Did you know?

Jimi is on Carleton's varsity soccer team!

Ask him about athletics and ways to get involved.

Did
You
KNOW

Fall Orientation is a great opportunity to meet new people at Carleton and get to know the school with over 4,000 other new students.

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton's Emergency Notification System is used to alert and inform the Carleton community in the event of a major incident or campus emergency by desktop computer alert, email notification and a text message to those who register.

Did
You
KNOW

If you are feeling stressed out or are in a crisis situation, counsellors are available at Health & Counselling Services and in Residence to help.

Did
You
KNOW

Lynne Wolfson, a contract instructor in Carleton's School of Mathematics and Statistics, spent the 2009 winter semester riding her bicycle 12,000 kilometres across Africa from Cairo to Cape Town.

Wolfson was fundraising to purchase bicycles for health-care workers in Africa.

Did
You
KNOW

CUSA's GSRC provides education, advocacy and support to Carleton's Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender, and Queer Community.

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton has Varsity Teams such as Basketball, Hockey, Fencing, Field Hockey, Soccer, Nordic Skiing, Rowing, Swimming, and Water Polo.

Did
You
KNOW

@CarletonSEO

carleton.ca/seo

Carleton Engineering Professor Amir Hakami has received funding from the American Petroleum Institute (API) to help develop better tools for understanding air pollution.

Did
You
KNOW

Summer Orientation Leader Spotlight

Did you know?

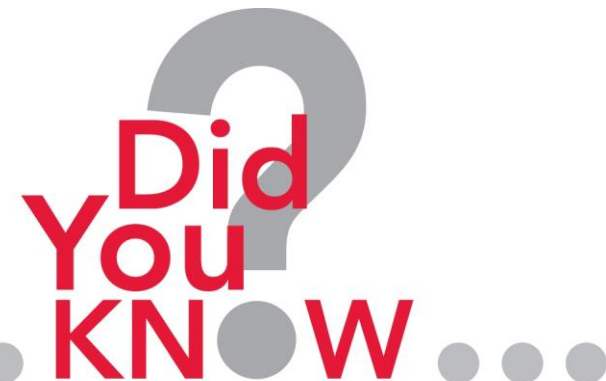

Celine participated in Carleton's Relay for Life for 3 years!

Ask her about ways to get involved at Carleton.

Did
You
KNOW

The Sprott Business Student's Society (SBSS) is an organization representing the interests of all business students, as well as those interested in the world of commerce, to help develop professional, social, and academic skills

Sustainability at Carleton has a Bike Share Program that offers Carleton students, staff and faculty a way to commute on campus and travel around the local community.

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton alumnus Tim Fagan, who graduated from the School of Industrial Design, was the designer of the 2010 Olympic torch for the Vancouver Games.

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton has a Kayak Club!

It is open to anyone and organizes fun trips to local rivers and rapids.

Did
You
KNOW

Isaac Otchere, a Sprott School of Business Finance professor was recognized with a 2009 Capital Educators' Award for teaching excellence

Did
You
KNOW

The Carleton Food Centre is a CUSA sponsored service centre offering a variety of programs aimed at promoting food security for the members of the Carleton campus community, and operates an emergency food bank program for students in need of temporary assistance in meeting their basic food requirements.

Did
You
KNOW

Residence Commons is the central hub of residence.

Its services vary from a place to pick up mail packages to information about the City of Ottawa.

Did
You
KNOW

In September, the Student Experience Office runs IKEA Student Madness! This is a great chance for students to get all the items they may need for the upcoming school year, and a chance to win great IKEA prizes.

Did
You
KNOW

Summer Orientation Leader Spotlight

Did you know?

Lauren has participated in 8 Campus to Community Days!

Ask her how to get involved in Community Service Learning initiatives at Carleton.

Did
You
KNOW

“My ASB experience was life-changing. Being able to gain real, hands-on experience in a developing country was an incredible learning opportunity. Making connections with the community members also enhanced my understanding of community development and sustainable initiatives.”

Olivia- Carleton Alumni

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton alumna Minnijean Brown Trickey (MSW/94) is a crusader for civil rights.

Trickey was part of the Little Rock Nine, the first group of black students to test the 1954 ban on school segregation in the United States.

Did
You
KNOW

ASB Guatemala 2018

Carleton students can make a difference during reading week with the Alternative Spring Break where dedicated students spend the week serving in Ottawa or abroad!

Did
You
KNOW

Equity services is responsible for both the promotion of diversity on campus, and for responding to various complaints from individuals in the community who feel that they have been discriminated against.

Did
You
KNOW

The International Student Services Office holds the “Through the Global Lens” Photography competition each winter.

Submit photo's from your travels and vote for your favourites when they are on display in the Atrium!

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton's Co-Curricular Record recognizes student involvement in leadership development, extra-curricular activities, and community service

Did
You
KNOW

“Try to get involved with your department, clubs, societies, or services on campus. Carleton’s a great place to find your passion or to develop it. Your education matters, so invest time into your academics and studying. As Ferris Bueller says, “Life moves pretty fast. If you don’t stop and look around once in awhile, you could miss it.”

Danielle – Graduated with a Masters of Arts and currently works as the Student Activities and Engagement Coordinator

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton alumnus Robert-Ralph Carmichael (BA/64) is the artist who designed the loonie – the loon displayed on the Canadian one dollar coin.

Did
You
KNOW

the Mentorship Network

First Year Connections is a mentorship program that pairs first-year students with trained upper-year student mentors.

Sign-up at carleton.ca/se0/mentoring

Did
You
KNOW

Summer Orientation Leader Spotlight

Did you know?

Caedan is going into his 3rd year of business!

Ask him about the SPROTT School of Business.

Did
You
KNOW

In an emergency Campus Safety can be reached by dialling 4444 from any campus phone or 613-520-4444 from your cell phone

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton Professor Alfonso Abizaid is researching the reasons why we overeat and why we crave calorie-rich foods, especially after stressful events.

Meet tons of other first-year students during Fall Orientation and participate in fun activities on campus, at the beach, and even along the canal!

Did
You
KNOW

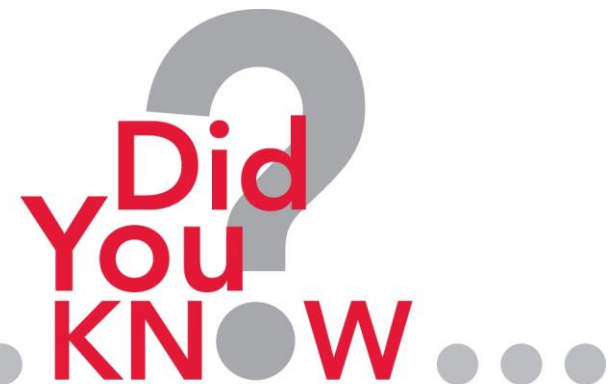

Many of the services students need to stay healthy are provided by Health and Counselling Services. On campus we have doctors, counsellors, nurses, dentists, and lab technicians.

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton students Sheena Lee Smith, Sheila Grantham and Victoria Tenasco were selected to attend the Vancouver 2010 Indigenous Youth Gathering and were involved in the opening ceremony of the Vancouver Olympic Winter Games.

CUSA's The Bill Ellis Centre for Mature and Part Time Students (BECAMPS) addresses the unique needs of Mature and Part-time students at Carleton University.

Dan Aykroyd was part of Carleton's Sock 'n' Buskin' Theatre Company and went on to be involved with Second City, Saturday Night Live and Ghostbusters!

Did
You
KNOW

Joining The Parents Campaign gives you access to free lectures across Canada, as well as e-newsletters distributed by the Student Experience Office.

Carleton UNIVERSITY

Did
You
KNOW

@CarletonSEO

carleton.ca/seo

The Carleton Ravens Men's Basketball Team have been National Champions in 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2009, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016!

Did
You
KNOW

The Carleton University's Ravens men's basketball team was honoured by Mayor Jim Watson at City Hall. The mayor declared March 31, 2015 to be Carleton Ravens Men's Basketball Team Day in the City of Ottawa.

Did
You
KNOW

The Registrars Office is responsible for managing the academic activities of Carleton students. This includes course changes, registration, and record keeping.

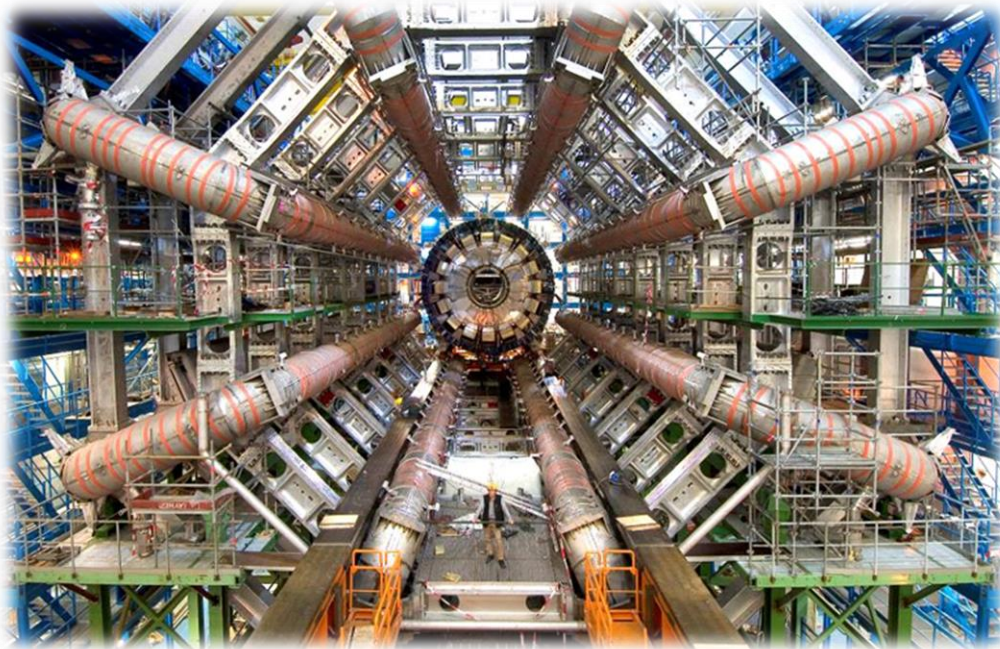

Did
You
KNOW

Previous Governor General Michaëlle Jean presented Carleton Journalism Professor Allan Thompson with a medal in recognition of his efforts to help re-build media presence in Rwanda after the 1994 genocide.

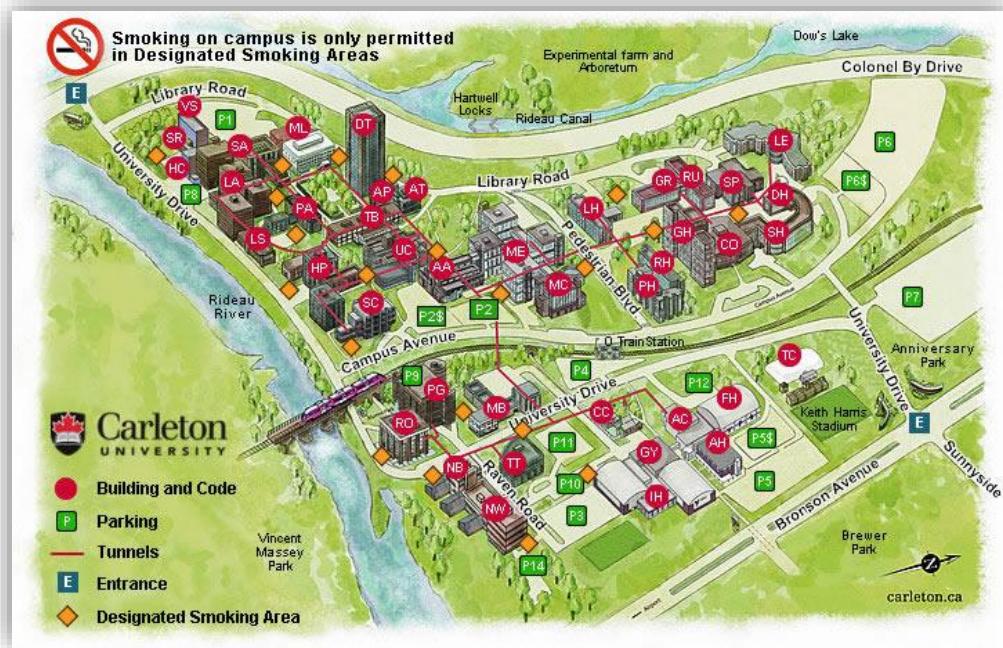

Did
You
KNOW

Two Carleton physicists, Gerald Oakham and Manuella Vinciter, were on hand at CERN in Geneva when scientists established world-record energy collisions in the Large Hadron Collider Particle Accelerator.

Did
You
KNOW

Well-lit underground tunnels connect all of Carleton's buildings.

They make it easier for you to get around campus, especially on cold winter days!

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton alumna Louise Charron (BA/73, L.L.B.) was Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada until her retirement in May 2011.

Did
You
KNOW

Summer Orientation Leader Spotlight

Did you know?

Rebecca has been involved with the First Year Connections Program for 4 years!

Ask her about transition support and leadership initiatives for students.

Did
You
KNOW

The Career Services office assists students in finding part-time employment, summer jobs and volunteer opportunities.

Did
You
KNOW

PARLIAMENT OF CANADA

The Rideau River Residence Association (RRRA) has a Parliament Hill Volunteer Program that gives students the opportunity to gain parliamentary experience by assigning them to Members of Parliament and Senators who need help running their offices.

Did
You
KNOW

“The best way to get involved is to attend “Expo Carleton” during Fall Orientation. There you will see all the clubs and societies Carleton has to offer and can pick the one that suits you best!”

- Charlotte- 4th Year International Business

Did
You
KNOW

Parents make things happen!

Parent gift make up 7% of gifts under $10,000!

These donations are helping to fill the funding gap between government contributions and student tuition fees.

Did
You
KNOW

“The mentoring relationship with my mentor made my transition into Carleton very smooth. Connecting with a mentor in the same program as me gave me inspiration and hope to be successful. The FYC program also inspired me to be a mentor myself!

– Danni, 2016 FYC Mentee

Did
You
KNOW

The Paul Menton Centre is responsible for accommodating students with different abilities.

These services include academic accommodation, and attendant services for students with mobility requirements.

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton has over 300 student-run organizations that anyone can join! Catering to a variety of interests, our clubs and societies make it easy to find others with whom you share common pursuits.

If you don't find the club you looking for, create your own!

Did
You
KNOW

Summer Orientation Leader Spotlight

Did you know?

Alex has participated in 7 extra-curricular activities while at Carleton!

Ask him about ways to get involved on campus!

Did
You
KNOW

In May ,2017 Carleton hosted the third annual Technovation Challenge finals, a global program that empowers young girls to learn how to code!

Did
You
KNOW

Ted Jackson (Public Affairs professor) was awarded the Ontario Medal for Good Citizenship, one of few academics to ever receive the award.

Did
You
KNOW

After two years of full-time study in a degree program, students have the opportunity to spend a semester, or an entire year, studying abroad with one of Carleton's 140+ exchange partners, in over 80 countries.

Did
You
KNOW

Zeba Crook (Humanities) and John Stead (Neuroscience) placed in the final 20 top lecturers in TVO's Big Ideas Best Lecturer Competition.

This competition celebrates the most engaging and intellectually stimulating lecturers in Ontario.

makes you think

Did
You
KNOW

“Get to know your professors. They enjoy making connections with students and seeing great ideas being brought to life through the minds and experiences of you, the students. And don’t forget to take care of yourself: eat well, get some sleep, nurture new friendships, and take on some new physical challenges.”

-Mira Sucharov – Associate Professor Faculty of Public Affairs

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton History professor David Dean, worked alongside many partners to create the first Public History Kiosk for Canada's 150th celebrations

Did
You
KNOW

Doctoral student Karen Murchie shared her research findings on bonefish on several episodes of the ESPN TV special Pirates of the Flats featuring journalist Tom Brokaw.

dP

Did
You
KNOW

The MacOdrum Library has a collection that includes more than three million books, journals, government documents, maps, newspapers, music scores, CDs, microforms, archives and rare materials.

An increasing portion of the collection is becoming available in digital format.

Did
You
KNOW

FOOT PATROL

CUSA's Foot Patrol is a student-run, volunteer based, campus safe-walk and patrol service. All patroller teams (one male and one female) carry a flashlight and two-way radio to ensure quick contact with Campus Safety, and will walk you around campus and 30 minutes off campus!

Did
You
KNOW

@CarletonSEO

carleton.ca/seo

Carleton hosted a two-day international symposium on border issues with key federal policymakers and 30 top academics from across North America.

Did
You
KNOW

Final-year undergraduates are increasingly satisfied with their Carleton experience.

In a recent survey, 94% reported satisfaction, compared with an average of 88% for similar post-secondary institutions across Canada.

Did
You
KNOW

Summer Orientation Leader Spotlight

Did you know?

Trina has been involved with Fall Orientation for 4 years!

Ask her about this years Fall Orientation Week and how you can participate.

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton has a chapter of Engineers Without Borders, that creates opportunities for rural Africans to access clean water, generate an income from humble farms, and have improved access to services and infrastructure they need to improve their lives.

engineers without borders
ingénieurs sans frontières
Canada

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton holds an Aboriginal Awareness Week to celebrate Aboriginal life, culture, history, and community.

Did
You
KNOW

@CarletonSEO

carleton.ca/seo

Dr. John Osborne, the former Dean of The Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences has his own blog to help connect with students and share his experiences

Did
You
KNOW

“Being in the Amazon was one of the greatest experiences of my life. We heard stories about the struggles the community and its members faced in obtaining clean water and education, and subsequently the gratefulness they had for our help, which made the trip absolutely worthwhile. The community members welcomed us with open arms. I have learned so much on this trip.”

– Jean-Michel Assaad, ASB Ecuador
2017

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton students competed in the CU Amazing Race for Via Rail pass, Lazer Quest tickets and other great prizes!

Did
You
KNOW

In Fall 2010, Carleton introduced a new stream in Computer Science that focuses on Mobile and Social Networking Applications.

The courses have no lectures, but instead have labs in which students will learn through “hands-on” experience, under the guidance of their teachers and in collaboration with their classmates.

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton is a three semester University, and with a great selection of summer courses, it is an ideal place to spend your summer.

Did
You
KNOW

Summer Orientation Leader Spotlight

Did you know?

Jess is the Shinerama Fall Orientation Coordinator!

Ask her about Shinerama and how you get involved.

Did
You
KNOW

For five full days in March 2017, seven students from the Sprott School of Business lived outside the University Centre at Carleton to raise awareness of youth homelessness and raise funds for the Ottawa Homeless Organizations as part of the 5 Days For The Homeless national campaign.

Did
You
KNOW

The Science Student Success Centre (SSSC) increases the engagement of students in the Faculty of Science; informs students of academic opportunities including lectures, scholarships and workshops; and identifies students who may be experiencing difficulties with their studies

Did
You
KNOW

CU Don't Know is Carleton's Alcohol Awareness Campaign that encourages responsible drinking and offer's safe drinking tips for student.

It is NOT an anti-drinking campaign

Did
You
KNOW

The Ravens Roost is a student lounge located in the tunnel level between Stormont and Dundas House. It is open seven days week from 6pm-12am.

Did
You
KNOW

CUSA's Aboriginal Service Centre promotes awareness of Aboriginal student issues on campus and offers peer support in an effort to improve upon the quality of university experience for Aboriginal students.

Did
You
KNOW

Parents of Carleton students can learn about campus resources and be informed of current events through a monthly parents newsletter.

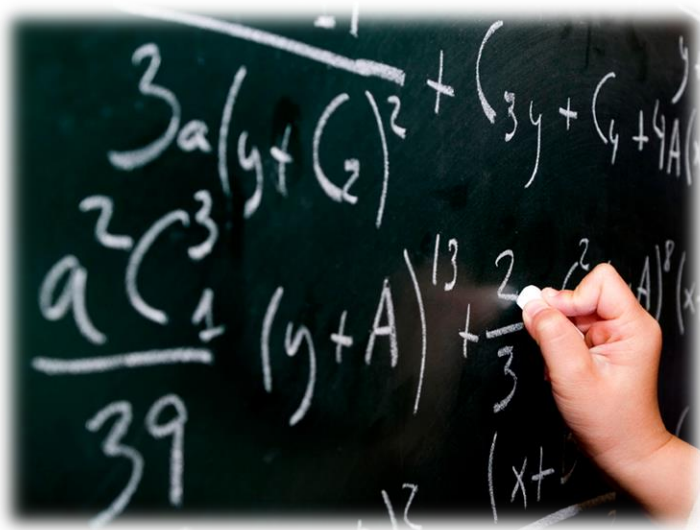

Sign up and stay up to date on what is going on at Carleton!

Did
You
KNOW

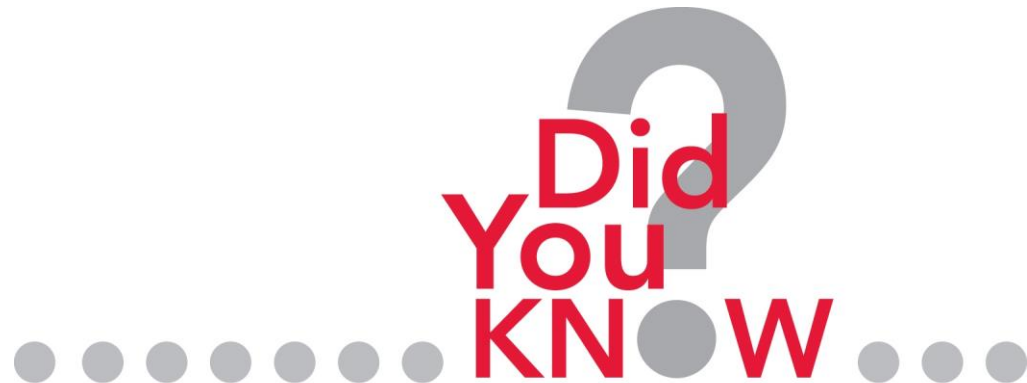

Math Matters is a program offered to revisit and review key math components and learn about strategies for success in math. If your program has a math component register for Math Matters to ensure you have the best results in University level math!

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton University's Men's Basketball Team, led by Rob Smart, won their sixth consecutive national Canadian Interuniversity Sport (CIS) championship. In the last 14 years, Carleton has won 12 national championships, more than any other university in history.

Sara Gruen, an English Literature graduate from Carleton University, recently had her New York Times best-selling book Water for Elephants made into a movie starring Reese Witherspoon and Robert Pattinson.

Did
You
KNOW

Nobel Peace Prize Laureate, and the 14th Prime Minister of Canada, Lester B. Pearson, was a Chancellor of Carleton University from 1969 until 1972.

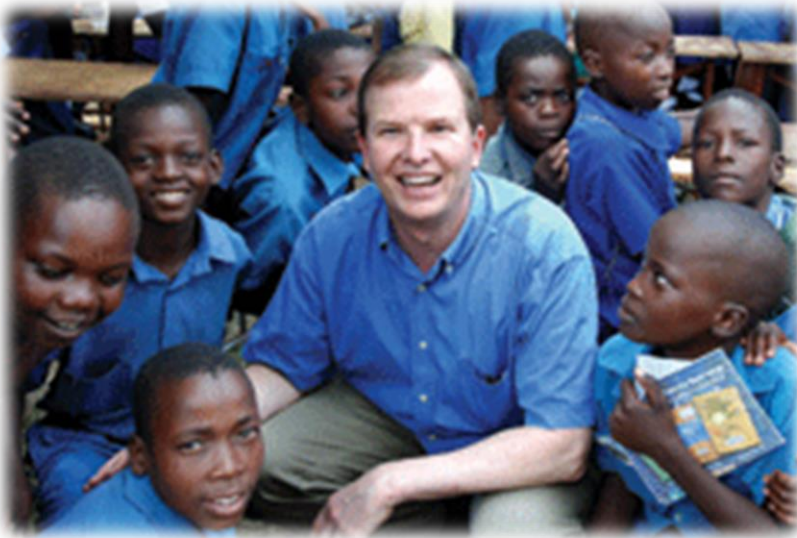

Did
You
KNOW

Dr. Mira Sucharov, an Associate Professor of Political Science at Carleton University, won the Provost's Fellowship in Teaching in spring 2011, as well as the Rockower Award from the American Jewish Press Association (2011).

Did
You
KNOW

David Morley (BAHons/77) was the Executive Director of the Canadian section of Medecins Sans Frontieres/Doctors without Borders (1998-2005), and is currently the President and CEO of UNICEF Canada. He was recently recognized by the Canadian government for his work in international cooperation with the 125th Anniversary of the Confederation of Canada Medal.

Did
You
KNOW

Summer Orientation Leader Spotlight

Did you know?

Raiquon has participated in intramurals!

Ask him about how you can sign up and participate.

Did
You
KNOW

“Carleton University has provided me with many opportunities, both in and out of the lecture hall. I have learn so much from all of the experiences I have had on campus, from working at the Athletics department to volunteering with the Student Experience office's Days of Service program. It is through these opportunities that I have gained valuable skills and new perspectives that will benefit me for my whole life.”

Samantha- 4th Year Psychology

Did
You
KNOW

Remember to sign-up for your Official Carleton e-mail account.

www.connect.carleton.ca

Secure Access Login

User Name:

Password:

Having problems logging in? Click here.

Welcome to MyCarleton Portal

- Single Sign-on to Connectmail
- Single Sign-on to Carleton Central
- Single Sign-on to Carleton LMS (Learning Management System, WebCT)
- Targeted Announcements

Phishing Warning: Never respond to an email request for your password. Carleton will never request this.

1. Student Computing Account activation and Password Reset
2. Faculty/Staff Computing Account Password Reset

Top

Did
You
KNOW

@CarletonSEO

carleton.ca/seo

Carleton University is dedicated to ensuring students get the support that they need to meet their academic, personal and social goals. Mentoring is a great way to make connections and learn from the experiences of their students.

Did
You
KNOW

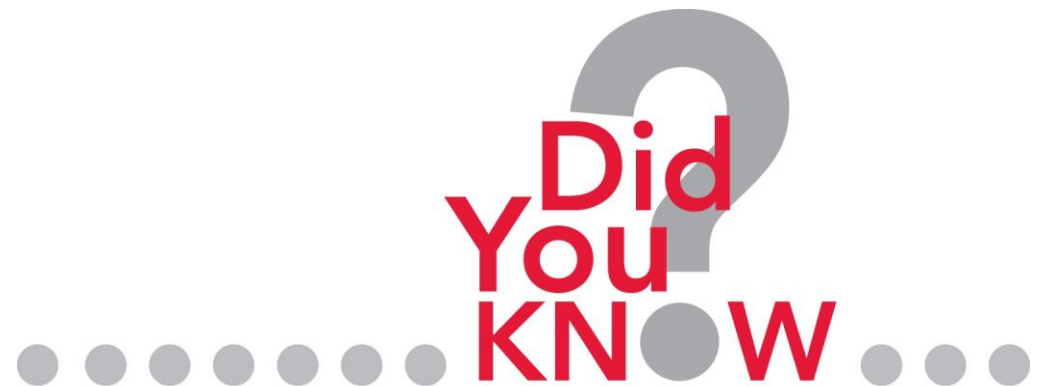

First Year Engineering, Architecture, Industrial Design, and Information Technology students have the opportunity to participate in “EngFrosh” an alternative Fall Orientation program specifically for their faculty.

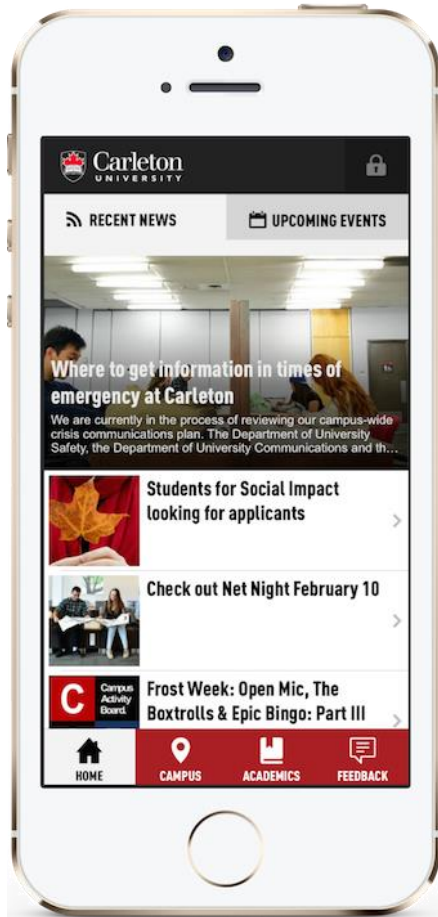

Did
You
KNOW

First Year Spratt School of Business students have the opportunity to participate in “Sprosh” an alternative Fall Orientation Week specifically for business students

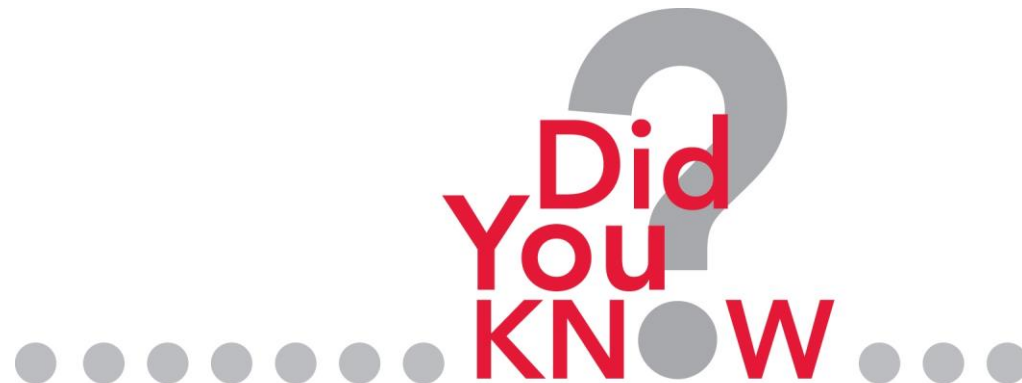

Carleton has a mobile app! To find out more information and download it for free, visit www.carleton.ca/cumobile.

Did
You
KNOW

“Even if I don’t finish, we need others to continue. It’s got to keep going.”
- Terry Fox, July 10, 1980

#iamaraven

Key highlights for the 2017-2018
season:

goravens.ca

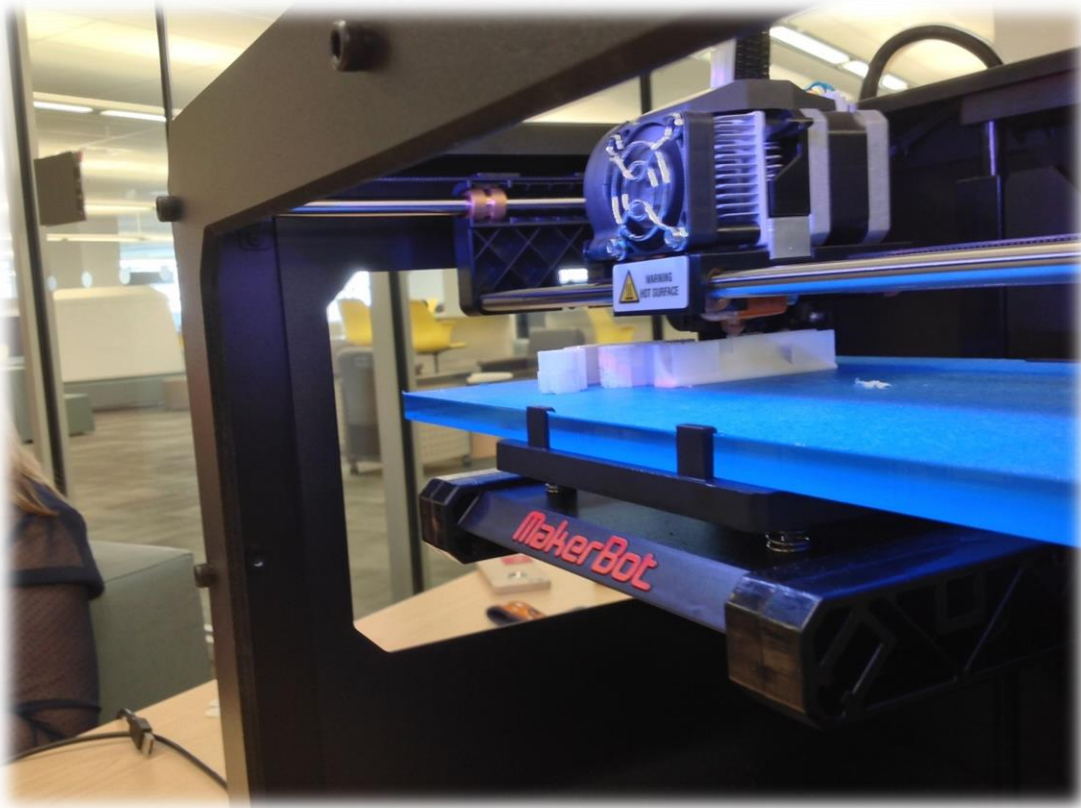

Did
You
KNOW

The Discovery Centre is an interactive learning space with program areas in undergraduate research, community engagement, immersive learning and international experience.

Did
You
KNOW

The Discovery Centre offers 3D printing to students with their two new Makerbot 3D printers!

Did
You
KNOW

School of Public Policy will be introducing Canada's first Master's program in Non-Profit Management

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton University Students' Association
401 University Centre

Did
You
KNOW

CUSA Service Centers:

Aboriginal Student Centre, Foot Patrol, Carleton Disability Awareness Centre, Food Centre, Multi-Faith Centre, Gender Sexuality Resource Centre, Bill Ellis Centre for Mature and Part-Time Students Multi-Purpose Centre, Womyn's Centre, Race, Ethnicity, Culture Hall, International Student Centre, Health & Wellness Resource Centre.

Did
You
KNOW

Carleton offers minors in 7 modern languages:

- American Sign Language
- Mandarin Chinese
- German
- Italian
- Japanese
- Russian
- Spanish

We also teach Academic ESL and languages like: Arabic, Inuktitut, Kiswahili, Portuguese, and Turkish.

Join us on Facebook: facebook.com/culanguage

Did
You
KNOW