Contract Instructor Opportunities Summer Term, 2019
School of Indigenous and Canadian Studies, Carleton University

Pursuant to Article 16 of the CUPE 4600 Unit 2 Collective Agreement, applications are invited from members of the CUPE 4600-2 bargaining unit and other interested persons to teach the following courses in the School of Indigenous and Canadian Studies:

CDNS 2210 [0.5 credit]: Introduction to the Study of Canadian Culture
This course meets July/August 2019

This course discusses the challenges of constructing a national culture in Canada. Topics may include: colonialism and its cultural legacies; cultural nationalism; cultural policies and institutions; popular culture; technology; regionalism; fears of Americanization; gender; multiculturalism; globalization; and cultural hybridity.

Precludes additional credit for CDNS 2200.

Prerequisite(s): second-year standing or permission of the School of Indigenous and Canadian Studies.

CDNS 2600 [0.5 credit]: Branding Canada
This course meets May/June 2019

What does it mean to sell a country the same way one sells coffee? This course examines the rise of nation-branding in Canada. It discusses the ways governments brand Canada internationally and domestically and the ways corporations brand themselves as "Canadian" to customers.

Previous teaching experience in the subject area is an asset for the courses listed above. Doctoral students must be post-comps to be considered. Review of applications and hiring decisions will be made in accordance with the CUPE 4600 (Unit 2) Collective Agreement. Please note that the review of applications will commence no earlier than 21 calendar days after the date posted and continue until the position is filled. All positions are subject to budgetary approval.

Application Procedures and Deadlines:
Closing Date: February 1, 2019.

All applicants must apply to the Department Head in writing and in relation to each course for which they wish to be considered:
