

Applied Linguistics & Discourse Studies 19th Annual Graduate Student Symposium
Contemporary Issues in Language Studies

Call for Proposals

The graduate students' Society for Applied Linguistics and Discourse Studies (SALaDS) is excited to present our call for abstracts for the 19th Annual Graduate Student Symposium, Contemporary Issues in Language Studies! The symposium brings together and showcases graduate student and upper-year undergraduate student research together with faculty and fellow students from the School of Linguistics and Language Studies (SLaLS) and related disciplines in a supportive atmosphere to share ideas and discuss recent projects.

The 19th Annual Graduate Symposium will be held on Friday, April 5th, 2024, from 3:00-5:00 PM, in St. Patrick's rooms 306 and 309. We welcome and encourage proposals for poster presentations based on coursework, research papers, or theses from upper-year undergraduate and graduate students.

All abstract proposals should be 300 words max (a short paragraph), plus your title and references. Abstracts are due by 11:59 PM on Friday, March 1st, 2024. The Symposium application, which includes a space for your abstract, should be submitted using our online submission form, available at: <https://forms.gle/uVrD2xi72Pvtt8qZ9>. We will confirm the acceptance of your abstract by March 15.

We encourage all graduate and 4th year undergraduate students to submit a proposal to present a poster at the Symposium. It is our hope that students will take advantage of this opportunity to display their research at this annual event. It is also a great opportunity to meet and chat with your fellow students and faculty members.

Resources and contact

You will find abstract writing and poster making resources on the SALaDS Brightspace page. For more information, please contact SALaDS Symposium Organizing Committee Member Dima Zaid-Kilani at dimazaidkilani@cmail.carleton.ca.

Looking forward to reading your abstracts!