

School of Linguistics and Language Studies

UNDERGRADUATE
SPECIAL TOPIC COURSE IN APPLIED
LINGUISTICS AND DISCOURSE STUDIES

Winter 2016

ALDS 3903 A – Special Topic in Applied
Linguistics and Discourse Studies

Topic: Introduction to Deaf Studies

Description: A critical introduction to Deaf community and culture as they relate to a social model of disability, to ethnicity, and to issues of diversity and inclusion. Discourse analysis of research and policy in education for Deaf students from early childhood and beyond.

Prerequisites: 3rd year standing in Linguistics or Applied Linguistics and Discourse Studies or enrolment in the Minor in Disability Studies, or permission of the instructor.

Instructor: Kristin Snoddon

Schedule: Go to Carleton Central
<http://central.carleton.ca/>