ADDENDUM – German and ALDS 2705 added

Fall/Winter 2022-23 – May 20, 2022
Contract Instructor positions in the School of Linguistics and Language Studies (SLaLS)

Pursuant to the CUPE 4600 (Unit 2) Collective Agreement, and subject to budgetary approval, the following courses may be available for Contract Instructors for Fall 2022 and Winter 2023. Please consult the undergraduate calendar on the University website for course descriptions.

After May 26, the schedule of courses, with specific days and times, should be viewable on the public class schedule.

For positions in Linguistics and Applied Linguistics and Discourse Studies the required minimum qualifications are a PhD in an appropriate field (usually Linguistics and Applied Linguistics and/or Discourse Studies, respectively) and some successful university teaching experience related to the appropriate field. A desired qualification is experience in course development, including assessment tools.

For positions in Modern Languages (other than American Sign Language and aboriginal languages – see below), the required minimum qualifications are an MA in an appropriate field (relevant to the language in question); however, a PhD in an appropriate field will normally count as a superior qualification. Given the nature of our programs, a degree specialization in language pedagogy or applied linguistics will normally be considered as more relevant to the position than a degree in literary and/or cultural studies. Some successful university teaching experience is also required, as is native or near-native proficiency in the language. Because our School highly values the in-house generation of curricular content, a desired qualification is experience developing curricular content and assessment tools.

Application procedure:
Application packages (a written expression of interest plus curriculum vitae) are to be sent to Dr. David Wood at david.wood@carleton.ca. Due to the high volume of applications, these must be sent electronically as they are filed electronically for processing – hard copy materials will not be considered. In the subject line, please indicate: "Expression of interest: COURSE CODE" (e.g., "Expression of interest: ESLA"; "Expression of interest: LING"; "Expression of interest: ARAB").

If you are applying for courses under more than one course code, you must sent separate messages for each course code, as applications are filed by course code (e.g., ALDS, ARAB, ASLA, CCDP, etc.). For example, if you are applying for both LING and SPAN, you must send two separate messages with relevant application materials.

A note to all applicants: As per Articles 16.3 and 16.4 in the CUPE 4600 (Unit 2) Collective Agreement, the posted vacancies listed below are first offered to applicants meeting the incumbency criterion. A link to the current CUPE 4600 (Unit 2) Collective Agreement can be found at the Academic Staff Agreements webpage on the Carleton University website, or here.

Also, as per Article 15.3 of the current CUPE 4600 Unit 2 Collective Agreement, applicants are required to submit an up to date CV, including a complete listing of all courses taught within the CUPE 4600 Unit 2 bargaining unit at Carleton University. Candidates who are new to Carleton are also asked to complete a "Contract Instructor Application Form"

The initial deadline for receipt of applications is June 1, 2022.

The modality of this course is determined by the University (in-person, online, or hybrid). In the event public health authorities impose public health restrictions, part or all of these courses may need to be delivered online as required by the University and as directed by public health authorities.
