Yunbo "Evie" (Mandarin Chinese)

Armando (Spanish)

"We study English because it helps us to make connections with people who have different backgrounds...I decided to participate in this contest to make great memories with Joe because he will leave Canada in April. I hope you guys enjoy our song."

Ruoxin & Joe

"I thought Mandarin was a very annoying language at first, but then this changed. I was marveled by the beauty and complexity of Chinese characters, as well as its efficiency to communicate ideas."

Omar

1st Year (Computer Science)

"Music is a bridge that connects us all. There is so much emotion that is expressed through music without even taking into account the lyrics. Have you ever stopped to wonder why you still get emotional when listening to sad music in a language that you don't understand?"

Emily
